

WORST IS OVER IN GERMAN SMASH SAYS PARIS PRESS

PARIS, June 1.—The military critics, says a Havas agency reviewed today, still view the situation as serious, but consider the signs increasingly reassuring.

In the first shock of this new rush, it is pointed out, the allies were obliged to give ground in some places, but they held their own on the Aisne and the Ourcq and their vigorous counter attacks are considered a prelude to the stoppage of the enemy advance.

With some of the most important part of the battle is that with Noyon, or the region to the south of it, on the one end, and the district north of Chateau Thierry, on the Marne, on the other, it is here that the German rush toward Paris demands undivided attention.

The military situation shows progress for the allies, says the Temps, because the enemy failed to make gains last night, although he doubted the violence of his attack.

"The mass of our reserves," it continues, "has begun to take part in the action. Just south of Soissons our counter attacks have driven the enemy back to the Crise river, which flows into the Aisne, and we have retaken the villages of Chandun and Verzy. Further south the enemy many times made futile efforts to advance through the valley of the Ourcq."

SERVICE CROSS FOR HARRIMAN

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Friday, May 31.—(By the Associated Press.)—For extraordinary bravery in action, Second Lieutenant Lynn H. Harriman, an American infantry officer, has been awarded the distinguished service cross.

The citation shows that Lieutenant Harriman, while in command of a platoon completing a relief, led his men "with determination and great courage" when they were "violently attacked by an enemy of greatly superior numbers."

"He himself stopped the advance of the enemy inside a trench which gained him the admiration of his men. Twice wounded, apparently mortally, he continued the fight, calling on his men and encouraging them and participating in the fight while thus wounded, driving off the enemy."

VATICAN DISOWNS IRISH PROPAGANDA

LONDON, June 1.—According to the Daily Mail, the Vatican has written to the Catholic Union disclaiming all knowledge of the Irish bishop's manifesto against conscription. The communication says that the Vatican knew nothing about the manifesto until eight days after its publication.

Any such symptoms as swollen muscles or joints, backache, headache, dizziness, nervousness, played-out feeling, urinary irregularity, pitiness under the eyes? You need Foley Kidney Pills. Mrs. Frank P. Wood, R. F. D. 2, Morrill, Maine, writes: "I found relief as soon as I began taking Foley Kidney Pills. My husband also received much benefit from them. He was so lame he could not stoop over; now he feels no pain. Sold everywhere."—Adv.

BOYS AT THE FRONT SERVING UNCLE SAM

(The Mail Tribune will publish in this column each week interesting letters from our soldiers and sailors and news items concerning their movements. The Association of Mothers, Wives and Next of Kin requests that items for publication be furnished to Mrs. M. C. Barber, chairman of the press committee, not later than Thursday of each week.)

Letters from Nurse Kate Buckley to her sister at Ruch: My dear Sis and All:

At last we received our orders and are sailing. We went on board and were first assigned our state rooms. I am in a room with three, a very nice stateroom and quite comfortable. First day in had to remain pretty close to our rooms while all were being settled. Then the second day we were on deck and could watch them load the ship. Bright and early we were sailing, but could hardly feel the motion of the boat, the water was so calm.

We are all fine and having a good rest. We go to bed early, get up early and eat three meals a day and good meals, and I am hungry all the time. We have an orchestra with our unit so we have been having dances. We stay on deck as much as we can. We are on our third day out and the water is not so calm and boat is rocking some, so some are not feeling so well today. Yours truly is O. K. so far.

I didn't feel excited starting. I guess I was ready so long that the excitement wore off.

We cannot tell the name of the boat we are on so you will not know until I get home unless you are good guessers.

I tried to write to all before I left but there were some I did not get around to.

By the time this is mailed we will be safe on land. Love to all. KATE. May 3rd, 1918.

My dear Sis and All: I am just fine and enjoying the trip, think I would have gotten fat had it been a longer sea voyage, for I was hungry all the time and the meals were fine. Tell Lala that we had good coffee and all we wanted of it, so my nerve was good all the way. But nothing happened to upset my equilibrium. I guess it will be hard for you to believe that our trip was so smooth.

We always got up early and walked the deck before breakfast to get the fresh air and get up an appetite for breakfast. Then we walked the deck after breakfast and watched the waves, for one does not get tired of watching the waves. We read some and gossiped a great deal, for want of something to do.

We liked the water, but all were glad to see the land, and it is pretty this time of the year. The hills are all green and the fields also. We haven't been into the town yet, but they say it is a very pretty place.

We are not settled yet but hope to be soon. We don't know where as yet, but somewhere here in France, of course.

Our letters are very unsatisfactory for there are lots of things to write about, but guess it will have to keep until we get home. I will try and write short letters often, but don't know yet about mailing them after this. I know this will go soon and I mailed one on board.

I hope all are well at home. Love to all. KATE. M. Catherine Buckley, U. S. A. N. C. Base Hospital 30, A. E. F.

Claire Seely has entered the reserve officers training school at San Francisco. He is taking the course of training for the naval signal service.

The three Medford boys still in the ambulance corps, Harry Wortman, Milton Schuehard and Winston Vance are all packed up for France, their equipment has gone forward and hopes were high that they were on their way. For more than a week nothing has happened and they say now it may be a month or six weeks before they go.

FOOD HOARDERS IN TILLAMOOK JAILED

PORTLAND, Ore., June 1.—Federal warrants were issued here today for the arrest of Fred Kebbe, Sr., and Fred Kebbe, Jr., farmers living near Tillamook, Ore., on charges of hoarding necessary food. Both are German born and they are registered with the postmaster at Tillamook as enemy aliens. Besides large quantities of flour, the authorities claim to have found firearms in the possession of the Germans, in violation of the proclamation, forbidding these to enemy aliens.

If the men are convicted on the charges, their internment will be asked.

UNION PATRIOTIC MEETING AT NAT. SUNDAY EVENING

Dr. Sidney L. Gulick of New York City, who will speak.

NEED PAYROLLS TO MAKE OREGON PROSPEROUS STATE

Evidence in plenty is available that prosperity goes hand in hand with payrolls.

Wherever a goodly number of people are steadily employed at a good wage, there you will find a prosperous community.

The payroll dollar comes back into circulation quickly and moves from one business to another, one profession to another and as it moves it stimulates each and every one.

Oregon's payrolls are now greater than ever known. They are growing greater every day.

The shipyarders and kindred industries are spreading millions of dollars into the hands of thousands of workers.

The workers pass it along through all the avenues of business and the country is now what we call "prosperous."

This wonderful example of the benefit of payrolls should not be without its moral.

What if shipbuilding would suddenly cease? What would become of the thousands now employed there?

What other lines of wage earning would they take up?

In the midst of our prosperity we must be serious about this thing of payrolls.

There is a way to provide against a possible calamity, but every citizen must do his or her duty. There is no law to compel it; it is a matter for individual action.

Every citizen must demand Oregon factory products—keep up the demand—insist upon the merchant trade stocking Oregon goods.

If you do not increase production by your demand of our factory products, how can they grow and prosper and add more and more people to their payrolls and thus build up a big manufacturing state?

It is your move, Mr. Oregon citizen. It's your job to support Oregon industries. Begin today.

O. & C. LANDS STILL OPEN FOR ENTRY

Roseburg, Ore., June 1. There seems to be an impression that the re-vested Oregon & California railroad lands which have been opened to entry are not now open to filing until June 10. Those lands not filed on during the period ending May 25, 1918, are still open to filing. The units mentioned in the list of the lands must still be conforming to until June 10, 1918, and on and after that date they may be disregarded, and the land entered regardless of units, if contiguous.

The U. S. commissioners at Medford and Grants Pass will be furnished with the numbers of the units on which entries have been allowed, for the information of the public, and this office will furnish information as to specific tracts of land, upon request. W. H. CANON, Register.
