

YANKEE VALOR IN BIG BATTLE HIGHLY PRAISED

Part Played By American Machine Gunners in Defense of Chateau Thierry Worthy to Stand With Achievements of American Infantry at Cantigny.

LONDON, June 5.—The disclosure in the French official statements that American troops have been engaged in hard fighting in two sectors of the present great battle line and have again demonstrated their splendid quality, as they did at Cantigny recently, is most welcome to the British public. The Americans, it is noted, are in the field in sectors where the fighting is most intense, namely, between the Marne and the Oureq rivers where the Germans do not appear yet to have yielded belief in their ability still further to develop their thrust for Paris.

Praises From Reuters The part played by American machine gunners in the defense of the Chateau Thierry bridges is classed by Reuters' correspondent at French headquarters as worthy to stand with the achievements of the American infantry recently at Cantigny. Telegraphing under date of Monday, the correspondent writes: "On Friday when the Germans were already in the outskirts of Chateau Thierry an American machine gun unit was hurried thither in motor lorries. The Americans had scarcely reached their quarters when news was received that the Germans had broken into the northern part of Chateau Thierry, having made their way through the gap driven in our lines to the left of the town and then pouring along the streets to the bridge, intending to establish themselves firmly on the south bank and capture the town."

Defense of River "The American machine gunners and French colonials were thrown into Chateau Thierry together. The Americans immediately took over the defense of the river bank, especially the approaches to the bridge. Fighting with their habitual courage and using their guns with an accuracy which won. The soldiers showed a courage and determination which aroused the admiration of their French colonial comrades. "With their machine guns they covered the withdrawal of troops across the bridge before its destruction, and although under severe fire themselves kept all the approaches to the bank under a rain of bullets which nullified all the subsequent efforts of the enemy to cross the river."

Blew Up Bridge "Already wavering under the American fire, the Germans were counter attacked by the French colonials and driven from the town. They returned to the attack the next night and under cover of darkness crept into the town along the river bank and began to work their way through the streets toward the main bridge. At the same moment a tremendous artillery bombardment was opened upon the southern half of the town. "When within range of the machine guns the Germans advanced under cover of clouds of thick white smoke from smoke bombs, in order to baffle the aim of the American gunners. A surprise, however, was in store for them. They were already crossing the bridge, evidently believing themselves masters of both banks, when a thunderous explosion blew the center of the bridge and a number of Germans with it into the river. Those who reached the southern bank were immediately captured."

FAIRBANKS DEAD AT AGE OF 66 AT HIS INDIANA HOME

INDIANAPOLIS, June 5.—Charles Warren Fairbanks, former vice-president of the United States, and former United States senator from Indiana, died at his home here at 8:55 o'clock last night. Death was due to interstitial nephritis, which has been a chronic ailment with him, but not regarded as particularly serious until recently. All members of the former vice-president's family except Major Richard Fairbanks, who is in France, were at his bedside.

Mr. Fairbanks became unconscious several days ago and did not regain consciousness up to the time of his death. Mr. Fairbanks was 66 years old, and had been nominated twice on the republican ticket for vice-president of the United States. After his first nomination he was elected but was defeated in his second race in 1916.

The former vice-president's health had been poor for several years. During the second Liberty loan campaign, while on a speaking tour in behalf of the loan, he suffered a physical breakdown. Last winter he went to California in an effort to recuperate and when he returned to his home here early in the spring, felt somewhat improved. In May, however, he had an acute attack of illness and was unconscious several days. While at times since then he has improved, various relapses always have left him weaker. Last Thursday he became much worse and Sunday had a stroke of apoplexy.

FRENCH TANKER ESCAPES U-BOAT

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The story of the captain of the French tanker Radiotele, attacked by a submarine off the Maryland coast yesterday, reached the navy department today showing that the raider had fifteen shots at the Frenchman from long range before an American destroyer answering a "S. O. S." appeared.

The destroyer passed full speed ahead toward the enemy, which promptly submerged. When the destroyer reached the spot where the U-boat had disappeared the Radiotele was too far away to see what happened. None of the shots hit the tanker and three which she fired at the raider went over.

The captain said the submarine was so big that when his lookout sighted her six miles away he reported her as an American destroyer.

GERMANS CAPTURE NORWEGIAN SHIP

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The Norwegian steamship Eikundasund which had a German safe on board, has been captured by a German submarine and taken to Swinemunde as a prize, according to the state department said today. The ship was on its way to Stockholm with a cargo of herring consigned to the Swedish food commission.

SHIP INSURANCE NOT TO BE RAISED

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Submarine danger is not sufficient at this time to justify advances in government marine insurance rates, the treasury announced today. The rate on life insurance for officers and crews of merchant vessels engaged in traffic thru the war zone was reduced today from 25 cents to 15 cents per $100, as recommended before the submarine attacks off the Atlantic coast.

RUSSIANS VICTORIOUS IN TRANS-Caucasus

LONDON, June 5.—A big battle was fought in the Kars district of Trans-Caucasia on May 24 resulting in favor of the Russians, the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Moscow wires. The Turks and the Germans are retiring along the Ardahan road and the population is being massacred, the dispatch declares.

AMERICA MUST ALSO SEND ARMY TO RUSSIA, TAFT

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, June 5.—It will be necessary for the United States not only to send an army to the western front, declared Former President Taft in an address here today, but this country also will be obliged to send an army into Russia. Mr. Taft spoke here under the auspices of the Red Cross.

"We must send an army to Russia soon," said Mr. Taft, "we must prevent Germany from developing all the man-power and the mineral and agricultural resources of Russia to enable her to carry on this war." The purpose of Germany, he declared, has been made plain by her conduct in Russia. Every allied nation now realizes that it must be a war to the death.

Mr. Taft asserted that as a nation we are inclined to fight with the trumpet rather than with less popular weapons. But we also have, he said, the great virtue of national tenacity—the harder a thing becomes the deeper our resolve to do it.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The establishment of Mitchell and Whittle has experienced a change, Lloyd Whittle having sold out his interest in the business to WH Mitchell, any further change in the business awaiting developments. Mr. Whittle will take a vacation pending business engagements. This business house is one of the landmarks on the Plaza. Leo Ferguson and Amos Nininger are engaged in a drive, the specific object of this particular one being to advertise the approaching round-up celebration here during the July holidays.

Major Thomas W. Hammond, for sometime past on the general staff of the army at Washington, has been assigned to duties overseas by special request of General Pershing, and has left for France. His wife and two children remain at the national capital. Major Hammond is an old time Ashland high school graduate, and is a brother of Mrs. J. H. Turner of this city.

Citizens are universally fretting and fuming over the arrival of the morning mail, delivery of which is not made until nearly noon owing to the annulment of the Shasta Limited service. The equipment of the Shasta was more than ordinarily fine on the occasion of its "farewell tour" last Sunday, both as to palatial cars and their luxurious appointments. At a regular meeting of the Soldier Auxiliary, to be held at Memorial hall on Thursday evening this week, there will be entertainment features of music and readings. The instructive lesson will be a talk by Mrs. Dr. Houlough setting forth the objects and scope of home service work in behalf of soldiers and their dependents. J. W. McCoy and V. O. N. Smith, cashiers of the First National and Citizens bank respectively, are prospective attendants upon the sessions of the Bankers convention, to be held at Bend, June 7 and 8.

No use of dodging increased railroad passenger fares by investing in mileage books on the current basis previous to the raise, as orders are issued not to honor such tickets after the increase in rates goes into effect, at Bend, June 7 and 8. The commercial club of that enterprising town will look after the entertainment of delegates, a dinner and dance being planned at the Pilot Butte Inn, with tours on the side to various logging camps, the Emblem club to assist in looking after the welfare of guests. Glasses—smoked, of course—will be provided in order that the bankers may view the eclipse of the Sun on June 8 to best advantage. Bend being in the path of a ninety per cent obscuration of Old Sol's visage at the hands of fair Luna.

Funeral services of Walter W. Carpenter, who died Monday, were held on Tuesday afternoon at Stock's undertaking parlors, under Grand Army auspices, the deceased having been a commissioned officer in the Civil war. Interment was in Mountain View cemetery by the side of his wife whose death occurred a brief month ago. Mr. Carpenter was 83 years of age, and a native of Vermont.

The M. L. Sanders place on upper Beech street, has been sold to Robert Rainey, of Corvallis, who is already in possession. The purchaser is a brother-in-law of Dick Beswick of this city. An acre of land is included with the residence. The Beaver Realty company made this sale.

J. N. Dennis, following an operation, is quite ill at his home on Allison street.

The Teacup club held its first outdoor gathering of the season in the parks on Tuesday afternoon. Acknowledged experts in making of surgical dressings, Mr. J. M. Wagner and Mr. S. B. McNair have "graduated" as qualified instructors in this particular work. The latter has been appointed first assistant to Mrs. A. D. Graham in this branch of Red Cross activities.

Mrs. Charles L. Hanson, residing at 63 Pine street, has been ill of late. Many friends will be pleased to learn of improvement in her condition. Nobody ever accused Ralph Billings of being an alien, but nevertheless he is covertly nursing a case of German measles. Medical espionage has developed this fact.

Neil Shinn, student of the Pacific Dental College at Portland, is here for a short visit with his home folks. Local stockyards are to be eclipsed by those being erected by the Southern Pacific at the Berber terminal, where ample accommodations are being afforded for thirty carloads of stock. Cement blocks and other sanitary accommodations are a part of the equipment.

L. A. Williams, assistant chief of police, has resigned and joined the force of auto truck drivers which are speeding up transportation facilities thruout sections of the valley. This is fuel week, and a well primed woodshed or coal chute stocked early in the season will insure against needless days next winter. The Loosley-Dwinnell company, ranch operators in the vicinity of Montague, are shipping baled hay in carload lots to Ashland dealers.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Mrs. J. W. Merrill spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nims in Ashland, to visit with her old friends, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. McConnell of Los Angeles, who are guests at the home of their daughter in Ashland. Messrs. Thomas and Carter of Medford were business visitors in Gold Hill Tuesday. G. W. Milan left Sunday evening for his war gardens at Ashland. He was accompanied by Miss Hattie Hodges who had been spending the day with relatives in this city.

Messrs. Arthur Pratt and Donald Avery visited friends at Eagle Point, Tuesday. Mrs. George Iverson and Miss Hattie Paulson were Medford visitors Tuesday. The barn dance to be given at Sams Valley next Saturday night, June 8th, for the benefit of the Red Cross, promises to be one of the biggest events of the season, (the circus not excepted). Great preparations are in progress and accommodations for about 500 people will be provided. E. T. Simmons was a business visitor to Medford Tuesday afternoon. Miss Bolah Morine, sister of Mrs. Horace Pelton, came Wednesday from her home in Kansas to spend the summer at the ranch home of her sister, near Gold Hill. John Edgington came over from Butte creek orchard Sunday and took a few of our young ladies over to help thin the fruit. Benton Bowers of Ashland was in town Monday. Mrs. B. E. Adams was in from her Rock Point ranch Monday. Mrs. C. B. Stoner of Sams Valley was in Gold Hill Sunday.

The friends and neighbors of D. K. Luthy in the vicinity of Alderbrook school house on Sardine creek had a good old fashioned picnic Sunday as a sort of a farewell to that estimable gentleman and his wife. He has taught for several years at this school and has a host of friends in Gold Hill as well as up the creek. Miss Nora Newton and Mrs. Ed Fene of Sardine creek were shopping in Gold Hill Tuesday.

Ben Davis of Seattle came in Tuesday afternoon and surprised his cousin, Mrs. F. D. Schrumpp of this city.
