NAVY RECRUITING STATION OPENS AT POSTOFFICE

According to recent instructions issued to local draft boards, by Provost Marshal General Crowder, young men who have registered for the selective draft on June 5th, 1918, as well as those who registered the year before, can obtain a release to enlist in the United States navy.

The navy has lately opened a recruiting station at Ashland where men have been enlisting for the past week. For the convenience of Medford applicants, the officers have come to Medford for two days of this week, June 11th and 12th, and are enlisting men at Room 253 Federal building.

Applicants are accepted for both the regular navy and the naval reserve force. Desirable ratings have been opened for men between the ages of 18 and 35, including electricians, machinists, blacksmiths, cooper-smiths, cooks, bakers, radio operators, seamen, firemen and hospital corps. The aviation branch of the navy is likewise open for enlistments.

DR. LOVEJOY DECLARES AMERICAN WOMEN LOAFERS

CHICAGO, June 11.—Germany, balked in its efforts to conquer the mainland of France, is attempting to subjugate the women of the republic, through motherhood, while the women of the United States, unheeding the call of their French sisters, are "loafers, going about in high heeled shoes wanting to be entertained by the story of the war." Dr. Esther Lovejoy declared in an address here today.

Dr. Lovejoy, former health commissioner of Portland, Ore., was speaking before the Medical Women's National association.

Huns Detain Children. Speaking of the "Eaters of France" Dr. Lovejoy, who recently returned from a six months' sojourn in the war zone, declared that 350,000 girls over 16 and boys over 14, had been detained by the Germans in the captured French province.

"Three rules govern the Germans in the retention of the French civil populations," the speaker said. "Those retained must be of value for fighting, labor or breeding.

Women Must Stop Germans. "It is up to the women of America to stop this Hun invasion. We will have no loafers among men or women either. While the women of France and England are staggering along under the awful loads imposed by the war, the women of America are loafers, going about in high heeled shoes, wanting to be entertained by the story of the conflict.

"If the women of Germany had laid down their arms and ceased doing the work of men, the war would have been over long since. If the women of America would wear winter clothing in winter and not sit about in clothing fit only for hot dog days, while they burn tons of coal to keep them warm—wanting coal to preserve the dictates of fashion—heatless Mondays would be unnecessary.

Women's Wartime Duty. "The big thing in the United States is for women to replace the men in useful occupations, in order that our full man-power may be sent to the aid of the allies. There is a pressing need in the south, for instance, for harvest hands. This is a splendid opportunity for women golfers and tennis players.

"We have only to be as good as our grandmothers, who made this great land for us to live in."

PRESIDENT SEEKS BETTER FEELING WITH MEXICO

which was adopted with your consent and without the consent of any of the Central American or South American states. We said:

"We are going to be your big brother whether you want us or not."

Seeks Agreement

"We did not ask you whether this was agreeable to you. We said we are going to be. Now that all is very well as far as protecting you from aggression from the other side of the water was concerned, but there was nothing in it that protected you from aggression from us, and I have repeatedly seen an uneasy feeling on the part of representatives of the states of Central and South America that our self-appointed protection might be for our own benefit, and our own interests and not for the interest of our neighbors. So I have said: "Let us have a common guarantee that all of us will sign a declaration of political independence and territorial integrity. Let us agree that if any of us, the United States included, violates the political independence or territorial integrity of any of the others, all the others will jump in. This is the kind of an agreement that will have to be the foundation of the future life of all the nations.

"Peace can only come by trust. If you can once get a situation of trust, then you have got a situation of permanent peace. Therefore, everyone of us owes it as a patriotic duty to his own country to plant the seeds of trust and of confidence, instead of the seeds of suspicion."

In emphasizing the disinterestedness of the United States in the world war, the president said:

Policy of Disinterestedness

"One of the difficulties that I experienced during the first three years of the war, the years when the United States was not in the war, was in getting the foreign offices of European nations to believe that the United States was seeking nothing for herself, that her neutrality was not selfish and that if she came in she would not come in to get anything substantial out of the war, any material object, any territory or trade or anything else of that sort. In some of the foreign offices there were men who personally knew me and they believed, I hope, that I was sincere in assuring them that our purposes were disinterested, but they thought that these assurances came from an academic gentleman, removed from the ordinary sources of information and speaking the idealistic purposes of the cloister. They did not believe that I was speaking the real heart of the American people and I knew all along that I was. Now I believe that everybody who comes into contact with the American people knows that I am speaking their purposes."

Russia Is Cited

As a concrete example the president referred to his declaration that he intended to stand by Russia.

"We cannot make anything out of Russia," he said. "We cannot make anything out of standing by Russia at this time—the most remote of the European nations, so far as we are concerned, the one with which we have had the least connections in trade and advantage."

CARE FOR CHILDREN WHILE MOTHERS DO RED X WORK

Medford is always in the fore of every good work, especially that which pertains to war needs, and the winning of the war. Among the many excellent things which have expedited matters in this direction is that which the Roosevelt Parent-Teachers association have just formulated. There are many mothers who have not been able to work at Red Cross headquarters because of the care of little ones, although they would like to do so if they could. They have the chance now.

It has been arranged that every Thursday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. members of the above society and other societies will be at the Presbyterian church to take care of children of parents who would like to assist in the work of the Red Cross and workers are always needed. Just dress the children in their every day play clothes, the plainer the better, and provide them a little luncheon, and the ladies in charge will do the rest. They will be well taken care of, and will have the freedom of the park without danger and be taught many helpful things. Now is your chance to show your patriotism and it will cost you nothing for this. Let there be a hearty response to this splendid offer, and the idea may take root in other parts of the city.

THREE CANDIDATES FOR SCHOOL BOARD

Much interest is being shown by the citizens in the coming election next Monday, June 17, of two members to the school board to fill the places of R. J. Palmer and W. A. Folger, whose terms expire. Mr. Palmer is a candidate for re-election but Mr. Folger, who was appointed to fill a vacancy in the board membership, is not.

The only other candidates are Ed F. White, the real estate dealer, and V. E. Conser, the east side grocer.

A quiet campaign has been in progress in the interests of the election of Messrs. White and Conser. Mr. White is especially backed up by the residents of the Jackson school district, which district has no member on the board. Those back of the movement are urging the election of Mr. Conser chiefly because he would represent the east side of the city which has no resident representative on the board.

J. J. Buehler, O. O. Alenderfer and E. C. Jerome are spending several days at Glendale on business.

Catarrah Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrah deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrh Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrh Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 755. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

The commencement exercises of the Central Point high school will be held tonight in Central Point hall beginning at 8 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Rollins of this city will deliver the address. His subject will be "The Virtue of Preparedness."
