

NEW ZONE RATES FOR NEWSPAPERS IN EFFECT JUNE 15

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., June 12.—The new zone rates of second class matter, which postal authorities here have been informed are to be effective June 15, has been given an interpretation by the post office department. Jesse W. Roberts, superintendent of mails of San Francisco, has prepared a synopsis of the tentative regulations, as follows: Publishers will be required to file with the postmaster a marked copy of each issue of the publication showing portions devoted to advertising and to other matter. The percentage of each is to be endorsed on the first page. News agents, when mailing second class matter subject to zone rates, shall file a statement with the postmaster showing the percentage of space in such matter devoted to advertisements and the percentage devoted to other matter. Publishers should furnish this information through the news agents. Only sample copies for delivery outside the county of publication are required to be separated by zones. Publishers may make separation by zones of subscribers' copies, provided it does not interfere with the route separation. Where the publisher prefers not to make zone separation of subscribers' copies or when it is not practicable to do so without interfering with the proper routing, the publisher is required to submit a statement with the first issues of April and October in each year, showing the percentage of the total number of copies that are mailed to each zone. Postmasters shall make such tests of the publishers records as may be necessary to determine the accuracy of the percentages given by the publisher.

WILLOW SPRINGS

The Parent-Teachers Club meets with Mrs. J. W. Elder Saturday, June 15th. Miss Anna McCormick will address the meeting. Mr. Cowdell, with a large force of men has been putting up a fine crop of hay on the McClendon place. Mrs. Joseph Cook, of Teheran, Persia, spent Sunday and Monday with her old school friend, Mrs. Ralph Waldo Elden. For the period of the war, Mrs. Cook is making her temporary home at Redlands, California, and is returning there from Seattle from which place her husband, Dr. Joseph Cook, sailed June 8, at the head of an important commission carrying relief to stricken Persia and Syria. Colonel George P. Mims called on old friends and neighbors in this vicinity one evening last week. The J. J. Brophy family motored down from their home near Derby last Saturday, and spent the day at the W. K. Parker home. Miss Martena Neil, who has been attending O. A. C. the last four years and who graduated the 3rd of June, stopped at Seven Oaks for a few days on her way to her California home in Santa Cruz. She left Sunday morning, attended by her friend Helen Parker, who will spend a few weeks at Santa Cruz and other California points. Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. David Coy and a party of friends motored to the river on a fishing trip. Miss Rose Jones entertained a party of girls Thursday evening in honor of Miss Martena Neil. Mrs. and Mrs. George Davis entertained the little people of the neighborhood at an ice cream feast Saturday. The J. W. Eldens entertained R. W. Elden family and their house guest, Mrs. Cook at dinner Sunday. Cards have been received announcing the birth on June 4th of a daughter, Emma Elizabeth, to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hauri, at Oakland, California. Mr. and Mrs. John Sisty dined with the Earl Heft family Sunday. W. B. Harris sold his wool to our local dealer this last week, receiving 61 cents per pound. Wool is not as oily this year on account of the cool weather but some of Mr. Harris' flock sheared as high as twelve pounds. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Elden leave on Sunday, by auto, for San Francisco on a combination business and pleasure trip. They expect to be absent about two weeks.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Instead of a queen or goddess of liberty, the celebration parade on July Fourth, will be headed by a Joan of Arc, who with a retinue of followers will be arrayed in habiliments in keeping with the tradition of the era chronicled as glorious in the history of the heroine of France. This portrayal is thought to be opportune in view of present war conditions, and some of Ashland's fair daughters will play the part with statuesque pose and becoming grace, on July 4th. If purchased before July 10, the schedule will be $2.50 for adults; children under 12, $1. Adult tickets transferable in one's immediate family, $3. The war tax will be added to these reduced rates. If purchased after July 10, there will be 50c added to the adult and 25c to the children's classification. Notwithstanding the multiplicity of other demands, do not allow the chautauque attractions to miss a generous patronage. Stuart Saunders is in Portland this week representing the local affiliations at a meeting of the Masonic grand lodge. He will also visit his daughter Josephine, who is identified with war reconstruction work, such as is being demonstrated by a movement in Reed college under government auspices. After proficiency in the work as presented, graduates are eligible to be sent over seas for practical employment near the theater of war. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stock were visitors the first of the week to Stock's lamby at Lake of the Woods, from which snare harbor the family's yacht "Natives" was launched last summer. Ernest Wick is engineer of a submarine chaser, which with a dozen others is outfitting at New London, Conn. His specific ship is the U. S.

S. C. 353. This type is 110 feet long and notwithstanding its diminutive size houses more common equipment and complicated mechanism than any other war vessel afloat. The Round-up executive committee are urging subscribers to promptly meet the liability of their Fourth of July celebration pledges. Charles Ramsey, father of Miss Amy Ramsey and uncle of Tom Hudson, lately returned from his customary winter's sojourn in Texas. He reports that the recent increase in passenger fares made his trip homeward just about double the outgoing rate last fall. Miss Floy Cambers has returned home for the summer vacation from her most successful year's experience at teaching in the schools of Provo, Utah, where she has been located for sometime past. The town is a model educational center and affords university privileges. Hal McNair and Tom Simpson were Grants Pass visitors on Tuesday.

EDEN PRECINCT

Mrs. M. Stockford visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Henry last Sunday. Many of our young ladies are out helping this fruit this week. Mrs. Geo. McClain was brought home from the hospital last Sunday and is doing nicely. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rose, at their home east of Phoenix, on June 10, a boy. The happy event came on the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Rose, and was regarded as an anniversary gift. Mother and child doing well. A. Fridergar of Medford has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Henry, the past week. Harry Reames of Phoenix, has purchased a new Dodge car which himself and mother expect to enjoy these warm summer evenings. J. M. Unceasing Misery

Some Medford Kidney Sufferers Get Little Rest or Comfort There is little sleep, little rest, little peace for many a sufferer from kidney trouble. Life is one continual round of pain. You can't rest at night when there's kidney backache. You suffer twinges and "stabs" of pain, annoying urinary disorders, lameness and nervousness. You can't be comfortable at work with darting pains and blinding dizzy spells. Neglect these ailments and serious troubles may follow. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of disorder. Thousands have testified to their merit. Medford readers will find convincing proof in the following testimony: Daniel Platen, C street, Jacksonville, Ore., says: "It is some six or seven years ago since I used Doan's Kidney Pills but I cannot forget how much good they did me. I suffered from weakness of the kidneys and other disorders that go with kidney complaint. I pained and ached all over. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and received benefit from the very first. Soon they had me straightened up in good shape." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Platen had.
