

CHILDREN HELP IN SALE TO BENEFIT HOSPITAL ON HILL

Splendid progress has marked the first day's sale of the two liberty bonds presented the Sacred Heart hospital for the benefit of that institution and every indication is that a handsome sum will be raised before the campaign is closed.

Many school children have enlisted in the contest for two valuable prizes offered by Martin J. Reddy for the two children selling the greatest number of tickets. The prizes are on display in Mr. Reddy's display window and the contest is open to all school children, who may enlist in the work by applying to Mrs. G. E. Satchwell at the Medford Commercial club. Tickets are also on sale at various prominent business houses.

The money will be used by the Sisters of the Sacred Heart hospital in its charity fund which is called upon every year for several thousand dollars' worth of gratuitous service for both the sick and destitute who look to this refuge for charitable assistance.

Mayor Gates will preside at the conclusion of the sale at the Page theatre on the evening of July 13th, and during the regular performance will present the bonds to their new owner.

POPE TO PRAY FOR SURCEASE OF EVIL

ROME, June 22.—Pope Benedict, in offering a special prayer for the evils tormenting humanity, will descend to the Basilica of St. Peter's at 10 o'clock in the evening of June 28, which is the eve of St. Peter's day. For two hours the pontiff will kneel in worship of the holy sacrament. Immediately after midnight the pope will celebrate the special mass that has been ordered for the Catholic clergy of the whole world, for the "cessation of the evils tormenting humanity." Thus the pope will be the first to offer divine sacrifice in

GALAXY OF STARS IN THE WANDERER AT PAGE TONIGHT

A Belasco setting always means a successful play. But even if "The Wanderer" had come to town in more modest garments, its allegorical value would have carried home its lessons of atonement and forgiveness its splendid all-star cast would have commanded the theater-going city's attention, says the San Francisco Bulletin, of "The Wanderer," the big scenic production at the Page tonight.

As it was "The Wanderer" was introduced to a fashionable Cort theater audience last night with all the picturesque of a magazine cover picture of the "green pastures and the hills" of David come to life. Sheep and goats ambled down the hillside and into the goat shed of an ancient home in Judaea, and the prodigal son followed them with naught to clothe him but a leopard skin about his loins.

The simplicity and beauty of the first and last scenes presented a dramatic contrast to the second act in which "The Wanderer" is presented in the harlot's house in the holy city of Jerusalem, put on with such sumptuous splendor that canvas cannot help but give one a vivid reminder of stories of monkey dinners and the like staged before the war in a very modern Babylon.

There is nothing subtle about "The Wanderer." He is a boy who will not listen to the admonition of his parents, but who insists upon faring forth into the world and discovering life for himself.

The mother and the father become the big figure in the drama, which in a certain sense is an epic of motherly love, for Nance O'Neil plays the role of Huldah with a tremendous grasp of the great mother passion, that sees in her boy nothing but the good.

California's great tragedienne has scappely, if ever, found a role so completely suited to her.

The day sacred to the Apostles Peter and Paul, imploring their intercession with the view that justice and peace may be restored.

PHOENIX LADIES SETTING THE PACE AS ENTERTAINERS

As far back as last January the ladies of the Phoenix Red Cross unit gathered themselves together and said one unto the other, "Let us give an entertainment this summer for the benefit of our organization." One of the ladies said unto the other, "What kind of an entertainment shall we give?" And they all replied as in one voice, "Let us give a comic opera with a natural setting in our grove."

They then selected the opera of "Mikado" and called on Mr. Geo. Andrews for advice, and he immediately assured them that they had struck on a very wise and novel plan, and that they had selected the greatest of all comic operas. They arranged then and there for Mr. Andrews to take charge of the production.

The work of rehearsing and preparing for this performance, which takes place on Thursday evening, June 27, has been under way for some months, and the Phoenix ladies feel certain that this entertainment will easily take first place with anything of the kind ever presented in the valley.

There is in course of construction a stage of 40x40 to be decorated and set with foliage and scenery. The California Oregon Power company kindly donated the juice for illuminating the grove and stage. Paul's Electric store is furnishing the streamer and flood lights, and on Thursday night this grove and stage will look like a fairy land.

The company will be gorgeously costumed. Full orchestra will accompany the singers. The price of 50 cents will be the entire charge for this entertainment.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

WAR SAVING STAMP NOTICE TO MERCHANTS

The national war savings committee, thru the executive committee for Jackson county, desires the assistance and co-operation of all advertisers in the Medford papers from now until national war savings day, June 28th. It is desired to insert in each advertisement appearing during this period a line appealing to the people of Jackson county to assist the government in this W. S. S. work. This line will in no way affect or change the advertisement but on the other hand by its evidence of patriotism will enhance its value.

It is not practical to solicit this assistance individually from the advertisers in view of the large amount of work to be done and the committee therefore is taking this method of notification to the effect that the small addition mentioned will be made in all ads in both Medford papers unless notice to the contrary is sent to the papers. The committee feels certain that this patriotic assistance will be gladly rendered and desires to thank the advertisers most heartily for their co-operation.

QUESTIONNAIRES FOR 1918 CLASS ORDERED

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Draft executives of all states today were directed by Provost Marshal General Crowder to begin on June 25 and to continue for three days thereafter the mailing of questionnaires to registrants of the class of 1918. Twenty-five per cent of the registrants of each board will be provided with questionnaires each day. Boards were instructed to leave serial and order number spaces blank until classification takes place, probably some time in July.

Lend Your Money as Freely as They Are Giving Their Lives

You don't have to fight, you don't have to die.
BUT—
Your son does, or your brother who is now across the way---or the kid now in khaki to whom you used to give pennies a short time ago.

That money you have laid away for "a rainy day"---wouldn't you give every nickle of it to keep a Hun's knife away from his throat.

Well, the Hun is here, and so is his knife---and so is the "rainy day"---it's raining now, raining bombs and shrapnel on our boys "over there."

June 28th National War Savings Day

On that day the Nation will call upon you, not just your neighbor, but you, to pledge yourself to the purchase of a certain number of War Saving Stamps during 1918.
