

W. S. S. BIG DRIVE UNDERWAY WITH SOLICITORS BUSY

Inspired with the same patriotic enthusiasm that has marked the success of all the war fund drives in the Medford district twenty-five optimistic Thrift Stamp solicitors started the Medford canvass this morning confident of a record-breaking campaign.

The present campaign will close Friday night with monster mass meetings in every school district in the United States and its possessions from Alaska to the Philippines, and Chairman Henry Hart of the Jackson county district has completed arrangements for enthusiastic meetings throughout the county. Assistant Chairman W. F. Isaacs is in charge of the Medford district and the following solicitors who reported for duty this morning assure the success of the local campaign:

Solicitors for City
Ralph Bardwell, Myron E. Root, Wig Ashpole, Harry Wortman, Joe Brown, C. I. Hutchinson, Sid Brown, Ray Moran, Paul Janney, A. H. Miller, W. Y. Crowson, Jonas Wold, Frank Elliott, J. W. Wakefield, J. W. Dressler, Sam Richardson, F. W. Hollis, L. J. Miksche, C. M. Kidd, John C. Mann, B. W. Paul, W. E. Walker, O. O. Alendorfer, J. J. Buchter, Corning Kenley, C. C. McCurdy.

The present campaign is the result of an order from Frank A. Vanderlip, national chairman of the Thrift Stamp movement and will result in the entire thrift stamp quota of the country being raised by next Friday night when patriotic mass meetings throughout the nation will celebrate the completion of the drive.

Refusals to Be Listed
The "clean up" campaign has been most carefully arranged and at the close of the canvass the various committees will have a carefully prepared record of all thrift stamp savers as well as those who have failed to enlist in the movement and the evident reason for their failure to help the cause. Each solicitor is required to turn in either a signed pledge card to buy specified amounts of thrift stamps at given times or a yellow index card bearing the name of the person solicited, the excuse given for not subscribing and the solicitor's opinion of the refusal. These cards will be filed for future reference and each case investigated as it may demand. While it is not the desire to force anyone to sign up for Thrift stamps there are few people who can not buy at least one five-dollar Thrift stamp before the first of the year and the government wants a record of all such cases.

Limit Club Organized
In conjunction with the soliciting campaign for pledges of monthly purchases of stamps a national movement known as the Limit club has been organized. Any purchaser of $1000 worth of savings certificates is eligible to membership and is entitled to wear a special Limit club button. Fred Stripp has been appointed chairman of the Limit club in Jackson county and is meeting with splendid success in his campaign.

Jackson County's original Thrift stamp quota was $258,000 of which approximately $87,000 has been raised and Chairman Hart and Mr. Isaacs are relying on the patriotism shown in every war fund movement of the past to be repeated before the close of the present campaign. Chairman Henry Hart received the following telegram this morning:

Washington, D. C., June 24, 1918.
As county chairman of War savings you are expected to win success in June campaign just as we expect our boys in France to win victory in this war period. One hundred per cent Americanism for your country should mean nothing less than one hundred per cent pledged war savers. I am confident you will succeed.
F. A. Vanderlip.

MEDFORD APPLES NET RED X $500

A box of Rogue River apples which was sent by Ralph Bardwell to C. M. English of Medford who is visiting at Niagara, N. D., was recently auctioned off at that place for the benefit of the Red Cross and brought over $500.

The apples were put on the block at a Woodmen's picnic. The box sold outright for $350 after spirited bidding. Then the buyer auctioned off the individual apples. These went at $25 apiece for a while, and a number went at $10 apiece. The remainder found bidders at $1 until the whole box was twice sold.

BOGUS OFFICER DEFRAUDS RED CROSS

The authorities of the city and county have received notice from Sheriff W. B. Walker of Weiser, Idaho, to look out for a young man who is swindling Red Cross chapters and young girls out of money on the pretense that he is an officer of the army and temporarily in need of financial assistance. At Weiser he went under the name of James J. Murphy and claimed to be on furlough from the 36th engineers stationed at Fort Douglas, Utah. The sheriff's circular in part reads as follows:

"Murphy is an imposter, and not a member of the U. S. army. He wore a khaki government uniform; is about 23 years old; height about 5 feet, 6 inches; weight about 150 pounds; brown hair and eyes; rather long face and very prominent chin; body long and legs short. Has plenty of money, but his game is to go to the head of the local Red Cross and ask for aid. He is also soliciting help from young girls, giving as a reason that he is broke and must get back to duty. This man may change his name, but will try to work his game as he travels. Was last seen at Nampa, Idaho. Arrest and wire Sheriff Walker, at Weiser, Idaho."

RUSS REPUBLICS IN HOPELESS WAR ON TURKS, HUNS

LONDON, June 24.—Details are just reaching London of the hopeless fight against tremendous odds now being waged by our forgotten allies, the twin republics of Dagestan and Transcaucasia.

Transcaucasia is the hardest hit, being opposed by Turkish armies on the west and hostile Tartars on the east, with the northern frontier given over to Bolshevik anarchy, and retreat into "neutral" Persia out of the Turkish occupation of the Persian city of Tabriz.

These two republics are the sole remnants of the former Russian empire that have not concluded a German peace or quit the field in exhaustion.

Transcaucasia is composed of Armenians and Georgians, who united against the common enemy when much of their territory was surrendered to the Turks by the Bolshevik government at the Brest-Litovsk conference. The Armenians and Georgians refused to recognize the right of the Bolsheviks to surrender their lands.

Turks Attack Republics
Enver Pasha and Tahat Pasha immediately sent Turkish armies against the combined Georgian and Armenian armies, who were really the same armies that had carried the Russian flag into Asiatic Turkey under the leadership of Grand Duke Nicholas.

Deserted by their Bolshevik Russian comrades, the armies of the new republic were slowly driven east and north into their own territory.

At the same time the Bakr Tartars, Mohammedans and Turkish sympathizers, who were always ready under the czar's sway, turned against the Georgians and Armenian Christians, and started massacres of armed villagers in the eastern part of Transcaucasia.

Parts of the Transcaucasian army were removed from the Turkish front to stop the Tartar massacres. The Turks meanwhile invaded Persia, which is helpless to protest, and effected a junction with the Tartars in northern Persia near Tabriz.

Dagestan Aids Twin Nation
The republic of Dagestan lies on the north side of the Caucasus mountains adjoining Transcaucasia. This republic was formed by a revolt of the mountaineers against the republic of Kuban, ruled by the Cossacks, which had been proclaimed as an independent nation after the Bolshevik revolution.

Dagestan has sent small detachments of fighting men to aid Transcaucasia, but most of them have remained at home to await possible attacks by the Kuban Cossacks, who may attempt to reassert their sovereignty over the Dagestanese.

The people of Dagestan are Mohammedans, their president being Colonel Tehermoev, formerly of the Russian army. Despite their religion they appear friendly to the Christians of Transcaucasia. At a conference of the Dagestan, Georgia and Armenian national councils in Dagestan, a Mohammedan sheik, Najrudin, tried to arouse his people to a "holy war" against the Christians. This attempt was frustrated by President Tehermoev, who denounced it as insulting to the Mohammedan religion.

HALF PEOPLE IN WAR WORK IN YEAR

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 24.—Half the American nation will be actively engaged in the war in another year, if the administration sends two million or more soldiers to Europe.

Only about half the actual army can be sent abroad. With 2,500,000 men in Europe, a similar number will be needed in America and the outlying possessions.

Ten workers are needed to keep each soldier armed, fed and clothed. This would mean 50,000,000 men, women and children working to supply the army of 5,000,000,000.

On the basis of 110,000,000 population, that's half the nation.

And the other half will be indirectly engaged in war work, too.

These figures give Americans a new conception of the oft-repeated phrase:

"This is a war of nations, not of armies."

Keep Faith With Your Boy "Over There"

When your boy was so little that all the world was a foreign country to him, he trusted you to take care of him. You sent him to school and to play and on your little errands, and with implicit faith he did your bidding.

Now we have sent your boy or your neighbor's boy out into a foreign land, into terrors that he cannot even know--and his faith has not faltered. He knows we will do our part if he does his.

National War Savings Day, June 28th.

Saving to help our sons is not to be called by the ugly name of duty or sacrifice. It is love's blessed privilege.

Are we keeping the faith? Are we scrimping and saving and giving to help our boys do this thing that humanity has asked of them, and to help them come back to us sane and whole? Are we doing not only our bit, but all we can?
