ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Round-up headquarters have been fixed at Joe Ahlert's cigar store and pool rooms, and already the atmosphere in that locality is surcharged with the hum of activities, inasmuch as the big show begins next week. The location is central and convenient, with abundant room to accommodate and entertain the crowds which through this bureau of information. For full particulars "inquire within." Rooms on ground floor of Elks block. Boucher's United Shows will be an attraction of round-up week, featuring many specialties. Experts from Pendleton and the Klamath country are beginning to arrive. Pending the appearance of official programs, keep in touch with headquarters for round-up gossip and preliminary forecasts concerning celebration week in general.

Ed Barrett, S. P. trainman, has just returned from a visit to his son Edmond, member of the 69th artillery at Fort Stevens. He was shown all over the fortifications within due bounds, and represents that the site of the fort is heavily camouflaged.

A fire in Ashland creek canyon, which for a time threatened to reach beyond the incipient stage, has been squelched.

In the midst of all other activities the Chauntauqua assembly, beginning July 13 and ending the 25th, is not to be overlooked. Next week a drive will be inaugurated to expedite the sale of season tickets, which should be procured by July 10 in order to secure the discount. The ladies will manage this campaign, instituting a systematic canvass. The discount is considerable on the several ticket classifications. In the meantime programs of the approaching assembly gathering are in preparation. Among social reunions incident to the session former residents of Iowa think it is about time to summon the clans to renew allegiance to and sound the praises of the Hawkeye state. In this particular matter Medford is taking the initiative.

Rev. L. A. Sander, recently ordained and at present assistant pastor of a Portland church, officiated at the local Catholic church on Sunday.

Miss Bertha Eliason returned home from Alberta on Wednesday. Her brother Lars is at Camp Lewis.

A climax to the war savings stamp campaign will be the rally at Chauntauqua auditorium on Friday evening the meeting to be addressed by City Attorney Moars of Medford. Ashland's quota is $62,542, but this amount includes six suburban districts, the specific city quota being $53,656, over half of which is already pledged. There will be about a dozen in the limit club classification. The drive began Monday, with Mayor Lamka as chairman of the canvassers, nearly 40 assistants helping in the work.

Young ladies of the Honor Guard will conduct a rest room during the celebration period next week in the Camps block near the Plaza. The entire floor space will be available, quarters that are roomy and convenient.

John McRae, member of the firm of Swenson & McRay, is making patterns for anchor hoists, some extra heavy and exacting work being done in behalf of the government. The hoists proper will be made at the Ashland Iron Works. A score of these mechanical devices will be made here, the installation of which is applicable to either war or merchant ships.

Ladies of the Baptist church will serve dinner on July 4 in the church parlors. The meal will be a substantial one served in cafeteria style. The Baptist ladies are among the first to announce dining accommodations for the holiday visitors.

F. J. Berger of Eugene, has been here this week attending to business interests, he being a property owner in this vicinity.

About 40 business men and their guests attended the public lunch at Hotel Austin on Wednesday, the first of a series of social "feeds" to be given at mid-week intervals. Talks delivered in chiefly centered on plans for furthering the attractions of Round-up week.

The estate of George Engwicht will pay over to Mrs. Hattie Moore $1200 in stock in the State Bank of Dunsmuir and over $50 worth of jewelry, which the Siskiyou county courts have decided that Engwicht, deceased left to Mrs. Moore as a personal gift. Heirs to the estate fought this provision of the will. The deceased banker formerly lived here, and afterwards was identified with various financial interests in Yreka and vicinity. Mrs. Moore nursed Engwicht in his last illness.

Aldred Beaver, motor car distributor with headquarters in Portland, is home this week visiting relatives. His wife, who has been at Klamath Falls, will join him here on the return north.

P. M. Black, of the Atlanta hotel, San Francisco, canvassing southern Oregon territory, was in this city on Thursday.

Chief of Police Hatcher was summoned to Yreka this week to testify in the case of a negro lately arrested in this vicinity.

Water is supplanting alcohol in city court proceedings of late. Wednesday night seemed to be a fateful period for those who allowed water from city mains to flow beyond stipulated hours. The enormity of the offense was aggravated by irrigating thru open hose. Half a dozen offenders, one an ex-mayor, were haled into Judge Brower's court and fined accordingly, the penalty being supplemented by a warning lecture against a repetition of the violation of specific regulations in force every summer.

Another one of our boys expects to leave for Fort Lewis Thursday morning. This time it is Ormeo Goddard of Wagner creek, who was called and who will be a credit to the service.

Dr. Anderson has purchased a new car to enable him to fill the demands which his growing practice has compelled.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vanderhulst motored over from Granada, Calif., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts of Medford motored up and spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vogeli last Thursday.

Miss Lucy Oatman visited in Ashland with her relatives Monday.

The Applegate valley Saturday. The young men are driving two of the auto trucks which are carrying the gravel from the county rock crusher to the Wagner creek district.

What might have been a serious accident occurred on the Wagner creek road Tuesday afternoon. John Nywander who was driving the water wagon while trying to turn around in the road upset the tank which was about half full of water, he jumped, but was caught in the barb-wire fence and only saved himself from being crushed by exercising super-human strength and holding the full weight of the tank until released from his dangerous position by four of his fellow workmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holdridge and family, Mrs. Ella Holdridge, Charles Holdridge and son Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scott and son Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Clark were among some of the people who spent Sunday at Rogue river.

Mrs. Alford went to Medford Tuesday morning for an engagement with her dentist.

Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. T. C. Williams, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. J. H. Fuller, Mrs. James Weaver and Mrs. Marion Tryer, hostesses.

County Commissioner Owen was out viewing the road in the Wagon creek district recently. The road is being put in first-class condition.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and only saved himself from being crushed by exercising super-human strength and holding the full weight of the tank until released from his dangerous position by four of his fellow workmen.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.
