SECRETARY LANE TALKS TO TEACHERS UPON WAR AIMS

PITTSBURG, July 3.—Three years of negotiation, patience and appeal showed the United States the only language Germany can understand—from the mouth of the big gun, asserted Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, at the closing session of the national educational association convention. Every industry and every dollar in the land is pledged to support the war until victory for the allies. Two million troops will be added to the 1,000,000 already in France, if needed a year from now, Mr. Lane added. "We all work, when the last word is said," Secretary Lane declared, "for the preservation of what we call Christian civilization, which is the recognition of the fact that physical force must be limited by moral force, that the world is not to belong to the strongest." There are 5,500,000 illiterates in the United States—700,000 of these are within the draft ages. Secretary Lane said, declaring it is a shame that public schools are open only half a year and a "disgrace" that teachers in them are paid less than a day laborer.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

The observance of the Fourth at Gold Hill was certainly unique. Picnic dinners were in evidence but about 4 p. m. the event of the day took place when the local physician assisted by the postmaster editor, nurses and patriotic citizens succeeded in operating upon the kaiser, removing his "gall bladder" according to arrangements which were very satisfactorily carried out in the grove adjoining the old school building. If the snags taken are a success pictures may be ordered at the local drugstore. Mrs. A. A. Rowley and children of Grants Pass came Thursday morning to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Russell of Beagle. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Blacker and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Simmons were a party going to Yreka, Calif., Thursday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cardwell and family of Klamath Falls are visiting at the home of Mrs. Cardwell's mother, Mrs. Griffith, and also her sister, Mrs. George Patrick. Misses Kathleen and Marguerite Blank and Miss Ada Iverson were visitors to Medford Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. E. Hughes of Weed, came down to spend a week with her mother, Mrs. E. T. Simmons. Cecil Johnson and Joe Lewis left Wednesday morning for Portland. C. N. Shaver and family spent Thursday in Ashland. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Douney of Gales creek were in Gold Hill Thursday. Ben H. Lampham, former resident of this city and still owner of the Gold Hill News, but now a resident of Portland, came down Tuesday to fish in his old haunts, the "famous Rogue river," where he had spent many happy hours while a resident of these parts. J. H. Beaman was a Medford visitor Tuesday. Dr. R. C. Kelsey, who has been in Portland and other northern parts returned Tuesday night. Mrs. Moorelock and grandchildren and Mrs. Crawford accompanied the judge on the star route Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Odgen Snyder have moved to their own home near the high school building. Floyd Darling went to Ashland Wednesday to visit at the home of his uncle, Carl C. Darling. Martin Bowers was a passenger to Ashland Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cook were visitors to Medford Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Sutton were passengers to Ashland this week. TALENT TALK

Mrs. Henry Brandt and daughter visited with friends in Medford last Wednesday night. Charles Terrill was the guest of his brother, Jay Terrill Tuesday. Red Cross will meet Tuesday afternoon. At this meeting the report of the year's work will be read and it will also be election of officers. All members of the society and all interested are earnestly asked to be present. Fred Combs recently received the news of the death of his brother, Loran Combs who was drowned in Squaw Creek, during a cloudburst, near Fossil in eastern Oregon. Jona Spitzer who has been over at Klamath Falls for several months returned last week. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Eates arrived from Glendale last week and are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Marion Tryor was a Medford shopper Friday. Jona Barrett returned from Klamath Falls last week. The Rev. Father Conaty was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. King and family Tuesday. Miss Violet Cook and her mother, Mrs. Cook motored up Wagner creek from Millonaire Row Wednesday, stopping for a little while at the home of Mrs. Marion Tryor. Mrs. Shastine and daughter were shopping in Ashland Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Crawford are over from Klamath Falls visiting relatives. Mr. Crawford expects to be called in the near future. The Children's day exercises which took place at the Methodist church Sunday evening, were enjoyed by a full house. The program was of a patriotic nature and together with the unveiling of the service flag was very effective and befitting at this time. The flag contained twenty-three stars. The center space was occupied by the gold star representing Earl Beeson, the only one deceased from our town. The other stars represented the following boys: Walter Sowash, Henry Rice, Bill Lacey, Ozro Wiltrow, Glen Withrow, Jay Wiltrow, Bill Spitzer, Jay Spitzer, Charles Tryor, Kenneth King, Ava Holt, Lloyd Turner, Billy Neal, Ormie Goddard, Ben Wyant, A. C. McCormick, Guy Quackenbush, Bryon Works, Ray Coleman, Wyant Clark. Mr. Bowman and family left recently for a fifteen days vacation. Mr. Bowman intends to spend the time in Portland and visit Mrs. Bowman's relatives who reside in Portland. Mr. John Robinson will take the mail route in Mr. Bowman's absence. The Garvin brothers are employed in digging a well for West Vogel and have struck a fine flow of water at fourteen feet. Mr. Vogel intends to cement the walls.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett Last Saturday we had a genuine wreck on our P. & E. railroad. The train, consisting of four box cars, six log cars, a coach and engine tender, passed through here all o. k. but in turning around a rocky point about a mile from the depot, it appears that the heavy box car of lumber crested so as to spread the track and toppled over, and it was attached to the tender, and so they both toppled over into the ditch, fortunately tearing loose from the engine, so that it did not turn off, but there were two or three log cars got off the track but did not turn over. Fortunately there was no one hurt. I see in the Mail Tribune and the Medford Sun attention is called to an item in one of the last list of items I sent in where I spoke of Mrs. A. H. Peachey having the diphtheria and the mayor and the board of health alluded to the item and deny that there was any diphtheria in Ashland, etc. I obtained my information from the Peachey family, who wrote every day to Mrs. Peachey's daughters-in-law, Mrs. Bert Peachey, telling her that she, Mrs. P., did have the disease and was quarantined, warning her not to come to Ashland, and if they did not to stop on account of Mrs. Bert Peachey's baby and I thought and still think that I was correct in my statement. When I make a statement of that kind I aim to know the facts before I write. No doubt the quarantine had been raised before the letter was published but the facts were the same. Miss Fay Perry and Miss Garnett Nichols were shopping Saturday afternoon in our town. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Nichols of L. C. were among the visitors Saturday afternoon. The W. S. S. move in the Antelope school district proved to be a grand success. The allotment for the district was $1,070, and the amount subscribed was $1,825. The people out in the rural districts as a rule are willing to do anything to help to crush the kaiser. Mrs. A. B. Clarno offered a pig for sale for the benefit of the Red Cross society and when all the chances were sold it brought $27.24. The Red Cross dance Saturday night the receipts of the evening were for tickets, $135.50 and for lunch $27.25. Among the guests at the Sunnyside Sunday were Mr. J. Taylor, one of the boys in khaki of Fort Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Taylor of Rash, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pepper, San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Backer, S. T. Richardson, Miss Richardson, Miss Ethyl Effort of Medford, Roy Stanley and family and Carl Stenley. Mrs. C. A. Chalmers and H. D. McDonald, two deputy sheriffs, were out here for dinner Monday. They were here on official business and I see by the Medford papers that they have been doing some business while here. I feel sorry of the boys who are trapped, but would be glad if those of the older ones who are really the guilty ones and bring the dope from Medford and selling it to the boys here at the dances and at other places, could be caught and given the full benefit of the law and also many of the older ones who do not go that far but encourage the younger ones to violate the bone dry law by making light of its violation and impressing on their minds that it is a smart trick to not only evade but violate the law. If the older ones would stand firm for law enforcement and teach the rising generation that it is a crime to violate any law, but to uphold it and if it is a bad or unjust law repeal it, it would make a vast difference in the morals of the rising generation. J. Hartman and seven or eight others passed through here Monday the first, on their way to the Florence Rock cemetery to try to stop the ravages of the fire in that section. W. E. Hammel was a business caller Monday. Russ Monroe of the Soda Springs district brought in his wool and sold it to the C. P. Produce company Tuesday. He also brought in two small lots for Mr. C. M. Martin and Henry Town of Lake creek. He realized 63 cents a pound for it in the dirt, that is, unwashed. Since my last two of the subscribers to the Daily Mail Tribune and two of the subscribers to the Weekly Mail Tribune have renewed their subscriptions.

How to Avoid These Pains and Distress Which so Many Mothers Have Suffered

Too much cannot be said for a wonderful preparation, familiar to many women as Mother's Friend. It is more effective in its action than all the health rasps ever laid down for the guidance of expectant mothers. It is an external application that spreads its influence upon the early, tender and sensitive of the abdomen, rendering this placid, and they spread gracefully without that peculiar wrenching strain. The reaction is, therefore, one of unbounded joy and anticipation and too much stress cannot be laid upon the remarkable period of expectancy for the muscles are relaxed easier and with less strain when baby is born. Mother's Friend is for external use only. Its ordinary use need not be had of your druggist. It is prepared by the Bradford Regulator Co., 1 Lumar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write them to call on their interesting "Mother's Friend" Book. They will send it at once, without charge, and you will find it very helpful. Do not neglect for a single night and resort to army Mother's Friend according to directions around the bottle and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort.
