

PRESS OF PARIS UNITES TO PRAISE WILSON'S SPEECH

PARIS, July 5.—President Wilson's Independence Day address is printed with prominence by all the newspapers. Some of them single out special phrases to display as slogans in the heaviest type at the top of the front page. The amount of space devoted to recording the celebrations in France, England and America, averaging 10 to 12 columns, compels most of the editorial writers to postpone until tomorrow comment on the speech.

In its comment the Petit Parisien says: "In soulful phrases President Wilson portrays the deep meaning of the anniversary which France celebrated yesterday with all the allies of the great American nation. The noble spirit which guides the destinies of the mighty trans-Atlantic republic disregards details. He dominates us from a height every situation, sometimes even the most obscure and most tragic, and sees only the broad aspects which comfort and calm."

Of the other newspapers that commented upon the address, L'Ouvrier lays stress upon the president's reference to Russia, which nation, it declares, entente will not forsake.

The Libre Parole remarks that President replies "to the insistent provocation of the kaiser in language which will move all generous souls."

Yesterday's Fourth of July celebration likewise finds an echo in the press. The Petit Parisien asked several noted personages for their impressions of the event and today prints their replies.

"A wonderful day for both countries," was Ambassador Sharp's comment. "It will have a wide report and discussion in the United States."

Marshal Joffre declared that July 4 would hereafter "be an unforgettable date, opening a new era in history."

Rene Viviani, former minister of justice, said: "We can truly feel that soldiers of both nations are brothers in arms. The two democracies are linked by the deepest feelings of regard and friendship."

REICHSTAG PASSES RUMANIAN TREATY

AMSTERDAM, July 5.—The reichstag has passed the treaty and supplementary treaties with Rumania, according to a Berlin dispatch. The independent socialists voted against all the treaties.

AMSTERDAM, July 5.—Peace between Rumania and the central powers probably will not be ratified until the autumn, says Dr. Edgar von Schmidt-Pauli, the special commissioner in Rumania. Rumania is quite ready, he says, to ratify the agreement, but the Austrian parliament does not meet until August and there are several points on which there is opposition from Bulgaria and Turkey which must be cleared up.

AMERICAN NAVAL AVIATOR PRISONER IN GERMANY

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Ensign George Roe of Scituate, Mass., an aviation pilot in the American navy, has been captured and is imprisoned at Camp Landschaut, Germany. The navy department was advised today by Admiral Sims.

Ensign Roe was last heard from in a cablegram from Admiral Sims on June 4. He had made a forced landing 18 miles off the coast of Holland when his seaplane developed engine trouble.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quart of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautified, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

AIMS OF ALLIES IN WAR RESTATED BY THE PRESIDENT

ed, not for a single people only, but for all mankind. They were thinking, not of themselves and of the material interests which centered in the little groups of landlords and merchants and men of affairs with whom they were accustomed to act, in Virginia and the colonies to the north and south of her, but of a people wished to be done with classes and special interests and the authority of men whom they had not themselves chosen to rule over them. They entertained no private purpose, desired no peculiar privilege. They were consciously planning that men of every class should be free and America a place to which men out of every nation might resort who wished to share with them the rights and privileges of free men. And we take our cue from them—do we not? We intend what they intended. We here in America believe in our participation in this war to be only the fruitage of what they planted. Our case differs from theirs only in this, that it is our inestimable privilege to consort with men out of every nation who shall make not only the liberties of America secure but the liberties of every other people as well. We are happy in the thought that we are permitted to do what they would have done had they been in our place. There must now be settled once for all what was settled for America in the great age upon whose inspiration we draw today. This is surely a fitting place from which calmly to look out upon our work, that we may fortify our spirits for its accomplishment. And this is the appropriate place from which to avow, alike to the friends who look on and to the friends with whom we have the happiness to be associated in action, the faith and purpose with which we act.

Mention of Russia

"This, then is our conception of the great struggle in which we are engaged. The plot is written upon every scene and every act of the supreme tragedy. On the one stand the peoples of the world—not only the peoples actually engaged, but many others also who suffer under mastery but cannot act; peoples of many races and in every part of the world—the people of stricken Russia still among the rest, although they are for the moment unmolested and helpless. Opposed to them, masters of many armies, stand an isolated, friendless group of governments who speak no common purpose, but only selfish ambitions of their own by which none can profit but themselves and whose peoples are tied in their hands; governments which fear their people and set are for the time their sovereign lords, making every choice for them and disposing of their lives and fortunes as they will, as well as of the lives and fortunes of every people who fall under their power—government clothed with the strange trappings and the primitive authority of an age that is altogether alien and hostile to our own. The past and the present are in deadly struggle and the peoples of the world are being done a death between them.

Only One Issue

"There can be but one issue. The settlement must be final. There can be no compromise. No half-way decision would be tolerable. No half-way decision is conceivable. There are the ends for which the associated peoples of the world are fighting and which must be conceded them before here can be peace:

"(1.) The destruction of every military power anywhere that operates, secretly and of its single choice, disturb the peace of the world, or, if it cannot be presently destroyed, at least its reduction to virtual impotence.

"(2.) The settlement of every question, whether of territory, of sovereignty, of economic arrangement or of political relationship, upon the basis of the free acceptance of that settlement by the people immediately concerned, and not upon the basis of the material interest or advantages of any other nation or people which may desire a different settlement for the sake of its own exterior influence or mastery.

Organization of Peace

"(3.) The consent of all nations to be governed in their conduct toward each other by the same principles of honor and of respect for the common law of civilized society that govern the individual citizens of all modern states in their relations with one another to the end that all promises and covenants may be observed, no private plots or conspiracies hatch ed, no selfish injuries wrought upon and a mutual trust established upon a kind and sound foundation of mutual respect for right.

"(4.) The establishment of an organization of peace which shall make it certain that the combined power of free nations will check every invasion of right and serve to make peace and justice the more secure by affording a definite tribunal of opinion to which all must submit and by which every international readjustment that cannot be amicably agreed upon by the peoples directly concerned shall be sanctioned.

JACKSON COUNTY FOREST BLAZES UNDER CONTROL

The forest fire situation in the county, both in federal territory and elsewhere seems now to be well in hand and is no longer a big worry to the officials in charge of fighting the fires. Of course, with the breaking out of new fires this situation would at once be altered, but all the old ones are under control.

Hugh B. Rankin, federal forest supervisor, said today as he crossed his fingers and knocked on wood: "We've got control of the situation and will try to prevent in the future another such menacing situation. The fire at Woodruff Meadows in the Prospect district is under control and will be out in a few days. The fire at Rabbit Ears up on the Umpqua divide is not spreading and we will reinforce the crew up there with a large part of the force that has been fighting the Woodruff Meadows fire. This will be done just as a matter of precaution."

W. T. Grieve telephoned to the office of the Jackson County Fire patrol association yesterday that the association fires in the Prospect territory were under control, and asked that five men be sent to fight a fire at the head of Elk creek, which as yet had not assumed serious proportions. Mrs. Grieve, who is secretary of the association, was unable to find five men to send yesterday because of its being a holiday, but sent them to Elk creek this morning.

Supervisor Rankin also reports that the big fire that is on the Klamath Indian reservation and in the Crater national forest is under control and almost out.

BOLSHEVIKI WANT POWERFUL ARMY

MOSCOW, June 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The internal situation of the Russian soviet republic is such that only a powerful army of the basis of obligatory service can protect it, in the opinion of Leon Trotsky, commissar of war and marine. He has submitted a report advocating universal military service for the bourgeois as well as for the workmen and peasants and hopes that the fifth congress of soviets will pass such a measure.

Premier Lenin has approved the report and the details are being worked out. According to the report, the bourgeois will not be used as combatants but will be organized into trench digging units and also will be used for cleaning barracks.
