DIED

MARKSBURY—James W. Marksbury, for many years a resident of Gold Hill and prominent in political affairs of the Jackson county, died June 28 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Miller, at Halsey, Ore., from pneumonia. He was born in Kentucky. In 1884 he came to Oregon, settling in Gold Hill. In 1906 he moved to Eugene, and later to Cottage Grove. Mr. Marksbury was an Odd Fellow of long standing and also a member of the A. O. U. W. He leaves a widow and four children—George, a merchant in Cottage Grove; Ben, who left Friday for Fort McWowell; Orville, who lives in Washington, and Mrs. Miller, who conducts a millinery store in Halsey. Mr. Marksbury was 69 years old.

DIED—At the home of Mr. Lawrence, 1022 East Main street, this city, a Saturday evening, July 6, 1918, after a brief illness, Miss Ella Eaton, aged 52 years and eight months, deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Eaton of Gold Hill. She had been teaching school during the past year at the Anderson Creek schoolhouse. She has been a resident of Oregon for the past seven years and was 2a native of Minnesota. Besides her parents at Gold Hill, deceased leaves a brother at Veneta, Calif. She was a member of the Gold Hill Rebekah lodge. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

She was the wife of Aaron Wilkinson and the family home was at Park place, west of the city limits. Mrs. Wilkinson is survived by her husband, and two sisters who reside in Illinois. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed. The body will be sent to Stillwell Hill, for interment. Mr. Wilkinson will accompany the remains to Stillwell.

JACKSON COUNTY FOREST FIRES OUT

Federal Forest Supervisor McDuff of the Siskiyou national forest phoned from Grants Pass this morning to Federal Forest Supervisor Rankin to rush him five experienced fire fighters at once to work on a threatening fire in Josephine county. He did not give the location of the fire. Supervisor Rankin has arrived home from the Rabbit Ears fire and reports that it is all headed off and will probably be burned out within a short time. Ten men are now at work on this fire. Mr. Rankin reported that a new fire is burning in the Flat creek region on the other side of the Umpqua divide, but it is surrounded and it is thought will soon be under control. The Woodruff Meadows fire in the Prospect district is reported as under control. Assistant forest supervisor Harold Foster has returned from assisting in fighting the big fire on the Klamath reservation and in the Crater national forest. This fire is now practically out.

REDUCE PRICES FOR COTTON PRODUCTS

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Prices of cotton products showing reductions of from 20 to 30 per cent as compared with quoted market prices were approved today by President Wilson. The prices were agreed upon at conferences between the price fixing committee of the war industries board and a committee representing cotton goods manufacturers.

MRS. McNARY'S FUNERAL TO BE HELD TOMORROW

SALEM, Ore., July 8.—Announcement is made that if United States Senator Charles L. TINY STEEL FORKS MYSTIFY PARISIANS

PARIS, July 8.—Paris is mystified by hundreds of tiny steel two-pronged forks which have been found in the Place de la Concorde and elsewhere. They are but a fraction of an inch long, and are similar to those which were found in sacks of oats intended for fodder two years ago.

FOREST FIRES UNDER CONTROL IN SANTIAM

ALBANY, Ore., July 8.—Fire conditions in the Santiam forest in Linn and Marion counties are reported this morning as being more favorable. The high winds that prevailed the past few days have gone down, but while they lasted they made conditions bad, especially in view of the great dryness of the woods. Two of the fires went into the tops of the trees, causing some trouble and making control difficult.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett There was a general exodus from here during the past week and among those who took advantage of the national holiday and left here for the different places of amusement and pleasure resorts were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pelouse and son Bob, Royal G. Brown, W. C. Clements our postmaster, and a few select friends, who went up to the McAllister soda springs to spend the Fourth fishing and feasting. Mrs. Frank Lewis and son William took a trip to Crescent City to visit Mrs. Lewis' sister, Mrs. Ball. Our country recorder, Chas. Bauley, Freely and family, who come out here and took his mother and two brothers to spend the day in the shades of Big Butte creek. Bert Peachey and family, who went up on the headwaters of Little Butte creek. Mr. S. H. Harnish and family, who spent the Fourth in the Ashland park, besides quite a number who simply took a trip for the day to the shades along Butte and Rogue rivers to have picnic dinners. The business houses in our town were all closed and several of our citizens spent the day at home. There was very few went from here to Ashland as the most of them were afraid of the diphtheria. The Pacific and Eastern railroad train made its regular trip Thursday, although the train was pulled by a Southern Pacific locomotive. They had a few passengers going up the country, and among them were W. S. Baker who works most of the time for Gaddis and Dixon, the Page fence men of Medford, but has his family on their home-stead near Derby; W. A. Bishop and Bud Hildreth, Mr. H. came over from Siskiyou county to spend the day with his wife in Butte Falls, and a business man from Portland, by the name of Flood, who has been furnishing the machinery for the Butte Falls mill. Among the visitors at the Sunnyside the Fourth were Reed Charley, son of L. C. Charley, one of our prosperous farmers and stockman of Brownsboro, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Wynkoop, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kissing of Medford, Joe Trefern of Butte Falls, Mrs. T. E. Boltz, son and daughter, and Mrs. Lottie Van Seoy. Mrs. Howlett and our daughter Hattie started with Ted Edsall for a visit with another daughter, Mrs. C. E. Hoyt, on Seven Mile creek, near Fort Klamath on the afternoon of the third, and returned at midnight Friday. They came the Shovel creek route via Topsy and report the road very rough. Ted Foster, who is working with John Edsall in the logging business near Butte Falls, and the Geopert family also went to Fort Klamath to spend the Fourth and on the return trip Horace Geppert had a mishap, having his car torn over about two miles the other side of Hornabrook, demolishing the top and one of the wheel hubs of his car. And in the smashup Mrs. Geppert's collar bone was broken, but no one else was seriously hurt. Clarence Dume, Jake Meyers of Central Point, W. E. Hammel, O. C. King and wife were among the diners Friday. Mr. K. is selling groceries for a Medford firm. Thomas Stanley and wife and Hamilton Watkins were business visitors Friday. Robert A. Niell of Brownsboro spent the night with us, and so did another man who aims to avoid publicity. At Mayfield and wife are at this time visiting guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Knighton, his brother-in-law.

Mr. Knighton is quite sick at this time—Saturday afternoon—and I learned yesterday that an operation would be performed today. Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Liedman recently from southern California, who are guests at the Sunnyside, went to Medford Friday on business returning the same day. Once in a while a person comes here and requests me not to mention his name in the Eagles, but the most of them are perfectly willing and in several instances I have been asked to mention their names. Mr. Joe Barney called for breakfast Saturday morning. He and Mr. Neill were going to Crater Lake to work this summer. Mr. W. D. Roberts, who is living on the Joe Rader place, started this morning with his family for Crater Lake and Fort Klamath.

YANKS RESCUE PRISONERS. (Continued from Page One.) moment to inspect his gun with new interest. "We were surprised," the officer added, "at some of the prisoners taken. Most of them were strapping fellows, but there were a lot of them who, while big, were young. "I want to say here that those Australians are magnificent fighters. We have been learning the game from them."

During the evening of the day the correspondent spent with the Americans a big bundle of mail arrived from home and there was jubilation among the men.

BATTLE RAGING IN RUSSIA.

(Continued from page one.) regard to the attitude of the United States government toward Russia might be expected soon. So far there has been no official statement to illuminate the decision reached Saturday when President Wilson discussed the appeals of the allies for joint action in Russia with the heads of the state, war and navy departments and the chief military

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pains—and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has worked for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."—Mrs. LIZZIE COURTNEY, 108 8th Ave., West, Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Ugly, Unsightly Pimples Are Signs of Bad Blood

Give Heed to the Warning. Pimples on the face and other parts of the body are warnings from Nature that your blood is sluggish and impoverished. Sometimes they foretell eczema, boils, blisters, scaly eruptions and other skin disorders that burn like flames of fire. They mean that your blood needs S. S. S. to purify it and cleanse it of these impure accumulations that can cause unlimited trouble. This remedy is the greatest vegetable purifier known, and contains no minerals or chemicals to injure the most delicate skin. Go to your drugstore, and get a bottle of S. S. S. today, and get rid of those unsightly and disfiguring pimples, and other skin irritations. And it will cleanse your blood thoroughly. If you wish special medical advice, you can obtain it without charge by writing to Medical Director, 29 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.
