

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

News regarding local soldier boys at various military posts indicates that in the readjustment of assignments at Fort Stevens, Edward Barrett has been appointed railroad artilleryman, the appointment being one of responsibility in the transportation of big guns.

Married, in Portland, July 7, Dr. C. F. Tilton, local dentist, and Miss Luella Fowler. The newly wedded couple are due in Ashland where they will be at home after a fortnight's vacation at the seaside.

Wm. H. Hazyard, known all up and down the Southern Pacific system as the popular manager of the Shasta Springs, died recently. He was a native of Prince Edward Island.

Wm. Beagle, forest ranger, is laid up temporarily, due to kick from a horse. He belongs to the fire patrol which is guarding exposed territory on the Siskiyou.

Fred Schneider, former local orchardist, who went to southern California some time ago, is now in Tacoma where he has a fine position as inspector in a meat packing plant. Mrs. Schneider will join him soon.

The good warship "B. P. O. E." which figured conspicuously in the celebration parade on the Fourth, is anchored permanently in the parks, with guns trained directly on the Plaza.

R. P. Cornelius, who recently met with a distressing accident at Klamath Falls, is home for a visit, but will return to his employment there, a good position being retained for him.

Charley Sheldon, whose wife was formerly Miss Alta Holmes, was accidentally killed at San Diego, July 8. Particulars are lacking, but dispatches indicate that he was employed on the aviation field in that locality.

Carroll Holmes, Mr. Sheldon's brother, is with her. Charley was the son of Miles Sheldon, now at Marshfield, who has another son, Edgar, lieutenant with the British Columbia forces in France, who is being invalided home from Europe after nearly a year's service in the war zone.

What is brighter than a day in June, especially when one enjoys 21 of them denominated as "clear" in this locality. Only one day came under the cloudy designation, the rest being partially obscured intermittently. The warmest temperature was 99 on the 10th, and coolest 24 on the 6th.

Some don't think it worth while to buy thrift stamps, inasmuch as they can't afford to invest direct in the larger denominations. The small investor is reminded of the admonition: "Hush, little thrift stamp, do not cry; you'll be a war stamp by and by."

The limit in which Chautauqua tickets can be procured at reduced rates has been extended to July 15. This will be next Monday, preceding the grand opening on the 18th. Get in line on the reduction basis.

L. L. Mult, of Portland, is taking his customary summer vacation here, visiting recreation spots hereabouts.

Mr. S. C. Corbett, who used to live in Ashland, died recently at Turlock, Cal.

Troy Woodward has joined A. L. Lamb in extensive bridge construction work in Siskiyou county under specific contracts.

Clyde Gunter, Wednesday, Ford car, cranking; broken arm. Temporarily laid up from duties at greenhouse.

Orres' tailoring establishment on East Main street resembles a munitions plant, with ten-inch shrapnel prominently displayed in front windows. A card announces that these murderous missiles "were fired by Lieut. Walter A. Phillips, now fighting in France."

These shells each contain 250 jagged bullets resembling small stones, but said to be of lead. A sabre also on display was wielded by the late R. P. Edgington, veteran of the Civil war as lieutenant of Co. C, 129th Illinois infantry.

Orres has ordered a captured submarine to be added to the collection.

W. H. McNair is a Portland visitor this week.

Within a week there have been a dozen enlistments at the local recruiting office for various assignments in the naval service. Without exception all were from neighboring towns.

L. M. Sanders of Corvallis, has sold his former home here on upper Beech street, to Mrs. E. M. Jassman. The place comprises four lots well improved. The Beaver Realty company made the sale.

After prolonged agitation and much watchful waiting, local gas rates have been raised in response to a request from the Oregon Gas & Electric company to the public service commission. Local papers assert that the increase will average 33 1-3 per cent. Ashland residents persuaded themselves to believe that, under provisions of a special franchise, no increase of rates could be made unless by vote of the people. Sometimes franchisees are "mere scraps of paper."

Prof. E. E. Washburn, relative of the Dodge family, is revisiting local scenes, he formerly having been principal of the old North school. He is now connected with the schools of Oakland, Cal. His family accompanied him, and the pleasure trip now being made by them is a motor one.

Among the pleasant reunions on the Fourth in the parks, was one given in honor of Miss Nellie Beaver, former teacher in the Gregory district on the Siskiyou, who is engaged for the Butte Falls schools the ensuing term. In addition to Miss Beaver's relatives here, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Norris and son, and Miss Lockwood, the present teacher at Gregory were in attendance at this lively social gathering.

Herb McCarty, formerly living here but now of Klamath Falls, is one of the bondsmen of J. F. Miller, Southern Pacific freight conductor, lately arrested at Klamath Falls for perjury, and who is out on $2,000 bonds, having been indicted by federal court at Portland.

The remains of Mrs. Roy Anderson who died here July 8, were taken to Wilbur, Ore., for interment. The deceased was 31 years of age. Her husband is a clerk in the Whitehouse grocery. She also leaves a son two years of age.

CENTRAL POINT

Miss Margaret Foley of Gold Hill, spent a few hours here the first of the week.

Corporal Cletus McCredie who is home on a furlough from New York, arrived here Tuesday night. Mr. McCredie will be here until the end of the month.

Mayor and Mrs. W. A. Cowley and family enjoyed an auto trip to Dunsmuir, Cal., the first of the week.

Melvin Ellestad returned Tuesday morning from a month's stay at the Presidio, San Francisco.

At the regular meeting of the Central Point State bank for July the regular semi-annual dividend was declared and paid out of the earnings of the bank. The surplus $5,000 was also filled, leaving a surplus of $4,000 in the undivided fund. This places this bank on the roll of honor of state banks.

Mrs. A. E. Terrill nee Virgie Owens arrived here from Fort Columbia, at which place she has been residing for the past several months. Tuesday afternoon, to spend the remainder of the summer with her mother and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Abbott of Butte Falls, were out of town guests here Sunday.

Mrs. W. E. Alexander has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in Corning, Cal.

Leonard J. Freeman, Iral Stewart and Merritt Hoagland, young Central Point boys who enlisted in the radio department of the U. S. navy, passed thru here en route to San Francisco Sunday afternoon, having successfully passed the examination in Portland.

Mr. Hodges of California, was renewing acquaintances and friends here the past week. Mr. Hodges formerly resided here, having owned a blacksmith shop here some twenty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Neale left Wednesday morning for Condon, at which place they have employment during the harvest season. Mr. and Mrs. Neale expect to return here about Oct. 1st.

Mr. Adial Dubell and Miss Zeila Dubell, after a several days pleasant stay with relatives here, returned to their home at Canyonville, Ore., the middle of the week.

Mrs. Charlotte Stewart of the east who has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Love and family and other relatives here, left recently for Portland to remain with friends for a short time prior to returning home.

Mrs. Wayman Warner left Wednesday for Eugene where she will join her children and visit relatives during the summer, after which they will join Mr. Warner in Portland.

Joe Mann, Mrs. Mann and their children and Grandma Mann arrived here from Chico, Thursday morning, to again take up their residence in Central Point.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Our P. & E. railway is getting to be quite a factor in our little business world. Last Saturday afternoon when it came down from Butte Falls there was a train of twelve cars—lumber cars, wood, box cars and a passenger and baggage car combined. Among the passengers was Mr. Bennett, one of our prominent nursery men who was returning from a business trip to the big timber country, and Mr. and Mrs. Hickox, father and mother of our neighbors. Mr. L. L. Hickox. They had been out here from Iowa to visit their children and were just starting for their home.

In my last letter I spoke of parties who went from here to different parts of the country to spend the Fourth and spoke of Royal Brown and W. C. Clements, but did not mention that their families accompanied them, but Mrs. Royal Brown and their daughter Miss Hazel and Mrs. Brown's married daughter, Mrs. W. H. Brown accompanied them, and so did Mrs. Clements accompany her husband.

Thomas Farlow and wife were doing business with our merchants Saturday afternoon.

I am requested to announce that Rev. Wm. Driver, the Evangelist who spent the month of May here with his chapel car will preach at Brownboro on Saturday evening, July 13th, and here on the Sunday following, both morning and evening.

Sunday was rather a busy day here. Among the guests were Miss Belford who is at present staying on the Stewart farm just northeast of here about two miles, R. E. Haney, wife, mother and niece, Miss Margaret Haney, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McPherson and son Fred, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jackson and grandchild, Joseph Mooman, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Holt and daughter Miss Helen, Dr. Pickel, Dr. Thayer and Mrs. Aushern of Medford. The three doctors and Mrs. Aushern had been called to perform an operation on one of our old and most highly respected citizens, Mr. Wm G. Knighton, that morning and they all came here for dinner. Rev. John Powers of Medford, Thos. O'Malley, J. B. Duggan, W. Joffe of San Francisco, and Francis Smith of Medford, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Van Scoyoc and daughter Miss Varian, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steep of Medford, and Nick Young now of Butte Falls and later in the day Ernest McKee of Medford and Walter Wood, one of our cattlemen.

When Wm. Lewis went to Crescent City he took with him his grandmother, Mrs. Isabel Hickthorn, his brother Harry and cousin Miss Warner of Crescent City. The two Lewis brothers returned Tuesday.

Thomas Riley who owns and operates a fine farm on Antelope creek, came over to the Sunnyside for breakfast at 6 o'clock a. m. to secure a lot of hogs he had bought of Wm. Hazelton and while en route to where they bought seven more of Wm. Perry, so had to wait until they could be brought from the pasture so that it began to get quite warm before he reached home with them. He paid fourteen cents a pound for them on foot, a big price.

Theodore Roosevelt Florey started Monday morning for Portland to go to work in the shipyards.

G. W. Cook, wife and daughter Miss Carolyn of Leesburg, Penn., and Mrs. Cook and daughter Miss Violet of Medford, came out Monday evening to supper and spent the entire evening with us. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cook are out here with their children. They had been up to North Bend prior to coming here and are now visiting their daughter in Medford. Miss Violet is the bookkeeper in the forester's office in Medford.

Mrs. Pete Betts, wife of one of our prosperous farmers between here and the Free Ferry brought in about four dozen young chickens, broilers, and shipped them to San Francisco Tuesday. She expects to realize at least fifty cents apiece for them. They were of the Plymouth Rock variety. J. P. Maxfield came in with her and took the train for Butte Falls to work in the lumber camp; and so did Homer Reynolds of Trail. Mrs. Kee of Butte Falls, was also a passenger and so was Mrs. C. H. Natwick. F. W. Elden and family of wife and three children stopped for dinner Tuesday on their way from the Dead Indian soda springs where they had been to recuperate.

Noble Zimmerman who had been up beyond Butte Falls to visit his parents came out Tuesday on his way to Weed where he is engaged working in a mill.

Mrs. Wm. Von der Hellen, Mrs. T. F. Boltz and two children were here for dinner Tuesday and John Edgington who has charge of the A. Corbin orchard, and three of his men, were here for supper Tuesday evening and so was Mrs. F. Rakowitz, Russell Rakowitz and Paul Howser of Joplin, Missouri.

C. W. Scott, the business manager of the Tacoma Metal company of Lake Creek, was in town Tuesday morning. He says that they are rushing business right along at the Lake Creek mill and will soon be working on another mill to grind out the ore.

Our Eagle Point, Wellen, Derby, Trail, Climax, Brownboro, Persist and Prospect mail was brought out Wednesday morning on an auto and among the passengers was R. R. Minter, one of the Butler boys and J. L. Robinson.

Since my last report Mrs. Rebekah Jonas has renewed her subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune.

Albert Clements who is working in the Edsall logging camp, came out and spent the night with us. Joseph Geppert and John Foster, both of Butte Falls, took supper with us and went on up home the same evening.
