

REX LAMPMAN TO JOIN MARINES AND FIGHT HUNS

(From the Fargo, N. D., Courier-News) Rex H. Lampman, one of the best known newspaper men of the state, left Fargo last night for St. Paul, where he will apply for admittance in the marines, and if unsuccessful there, in some other branch of the service.

Mr. Lampman has been engaged in newspaper work in North Dakota most of the time for the past 20 years. He started his newspaper career at Neche, this state, and operated that paper for several years. During the time he was at Neche he earned an enviable reputation as a writer and fame as a poet of extraordinary ability, and during the past years he has added new laurels to those already won.

"I Long to See a Snowbank" In 1909 he left Neche and went west. His first newspaper venture in the west was at Gold Hill, Ore., and while there a few months after leaving this state, he wrote a poem entitled "I Long to See a Snowbank," which was one of the prettiest tributes to the state of North Dakota that has ever been written, and was not only copied extensively in this state, but throughout the entire country as well.

Mr. Lampman attracted attention in Oregon, and during the next few years was employed as a special writer on a number of the greatest newspapers of the west. In 1917 he went to Pittsburg and was there employed by one of the big dailies for a time. Finally in the fall of the same year, hearkening to his love for "Good Old North Dakota," he came to Fargo and took a position with the Courier-News.

Edith North Dakota Leader In February of this year he was made editor of the North Dakota Leader, when that paper was established as the official organ of the Non-partisan league.

He is a versatile writer with few equals in the northwest, and his newspaper work has been at all times conducted on a high plane.

Rex has been an ardent supporter of the government in its war for the emancipation of the world from autocracy, and one of his poetic contributions in the Courier-News last winter, which follows, shows his opinion of the Kaiser:

The German Kaiser rattles peace, And tries to fool the Bolsheviks, Which shows he'd like the strife to cease;

His war machine is getting squeaky, We know that his remarks are puny; We do not pause in getting ready, Nor fall for crafty Wilhelm's bunk, Nor heed the loud noise made by Teddy.

We send our boys to training camps— They'll keep the old world on its axis; We purchase bonds and savings stamps, And gladly pay our income taxes. The Kaiser may not realize He's raised so big a bunch of Hales; 'Twould hurt his autocratic eyes 'To see our hosts of knitting ladies. The Kaiser prattles—let him prate, And with the Russians hold his pow-wows; We'll can him from his throne, like that, And knock his Kultur to the bows-ows.

Mr. Lampman has a host of real friends throughout North Dakota who will trust that he may have a brilliant military career and return home again in time to lend his ability and enthusiasm to the task of making this the greatest of all democracies when the war is successfully ended "over there."

AUSTRALIANS RAID HUNS IN FLANDERS

LONDON, July 29.—German positions in the Merris region, on the Flanders front, were entered last night by Australian troops, who took 49 prisoners, the war office announced today.

The enemy artillery was active in the region northwest of Albert, throwing in gas shells. It also displayed activity between La Bassoe canal and Ypres.

For Constipation and Bilioousness Good digestion goes far toward comfort and health in hot weather. Undigested food in the stomach can quickly poison the system. Geo. Jenner, 416 Labor St., San Antonio, Tex., writes: "Foley Cathartic Tablets have proven the best laxative I have taken and I recommend them to any one suffering from constipation or bilioousness. They should be in every traveling man's grip." Quick relief for sick headache, bloating or other condition caused by bad digestion. Sold everywhere.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

C. A. Newstrom and family of Lake Creek, and a stranger were here Wednesday noon for dinner and later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Reter and Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Leidman of Medford called.

Among the passengers on the P. & E. Thursday going to Derby and Butte Falls were Ralph Peyton, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Smith and Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Palmer and James Watkins. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were moving from Central Point to Butte Falls to work in the saw mill.

J. P. McCabe was one of the business callers Thursday.

Wm. Cantrall and Wilbur Jack were diners Thursday. Mr. Cantrall is the man who bought the Joe Hanahan place four miles this side of Trail, on Rogue river and is engaged in the stock business.

Gus Nichols and wife and Mrs. Harvey Stanley started for the Rancharie Prairie country north of Big Butte for an outing Thursday.

Mrs. Roy Stanley motored over to Medford Thursday to take her brother-in-law Carl Stanley and in the evening stopped at the Sunnyside for supper. He was getting ready to start threshing his grain Friday morning.

Mr. H. Van Hoevenburg of Sams Valley, was also a guest at the Sunnyside Thursday evening.

We, that is the citizens of Eagle Point, are in a peck of trouble, for the P. & E. railroad company have actually dropped off the evening mail Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and if Secretary McAdoo, the director of the railroads in the U. S. had been here last Thursday evening about 6 o'clock and heard the bitter denunciations there were expressed, and the threats that were made he would take the whole Pacific & Eastern railroad system and throw it into the junk pile and turn the mail service over to the postmaster general and had him make a star route of the whole bunch of post offices, for the way it has been in the past few months once in a great while the mail would get here on time and sometimes very late. For instance on the regular train days the mail will sometimes reach here at 9:45, the schedule time, and perhaps the next time at 11:30, and in that case the star route carriers leave without the mail and the people living along the routes between here and Persist and Derby can get no mail until the next day or two as we have on the star routes only every other day. And now on train days we receive our mail sometimes in the forenoon and then there is no mail goes out to Medford until late in the afternoon and by that means we do not receive the Medford Mail Tribune until the next day after it is published. But we live in hopes of having better mail accommodations and thereby have our mail come regularly on time.

Joe Rader and family were visiting friends here Friday.

Among the passengers on the P. & E. Saturday morning were Rev. Wm. Driver and wife on their way to Butte Falls to preach on Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Grigsby and her daughter Mary, Chris Beale, O. Adams. These were all going to Butte Falls.

Mrs. Mary E. Wright Ringer, her daughter, Mrs. E. S. Hock and her two children came from Ashland but expect to remain here this fall.

W. E. Hammel and wife and her father, R. R. Minter, passed thru here Saturday morning for Medford.

W. D. Roberts motored in Saturday morning from his home on the Rader ranch.

C. J. Kafee, our meat man from Brownsboro, Amos Ayres, Miss Margaret Mansfield of Florence Rock, Miss Gladys Wilson and Miss Oelie Whisenand of Medford, were here for dinner Saturday. The last two were friends of Miss Mansfield. She had been to Medford to take them to her home to participate in a Red Cross dance at her father's beautiful residence on Rogue river.

The Red Cross ladies are doing all that they can to make the dance Saturday night a grand success.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS
