ROGUE RIVER

Miss Booker and Mrs. Caldwell returned from their Ashland camping trip and report a good time. Mr. and Mrs. J. Reeder and family have left for Siskiyou where Joe is to watch railway tunnels. Mrs. James Martin went to Ashland on Wednesday to bid farewell to her soldier son, David, who passed thru en route to "somewhere." Mrs. Hatch and the Misses Seaman made a business trip to Grants Pass on Thursday. The Ladies' Improvement club will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. J. V. Smack on Friday, August 9th. Miss Marjetta Martin has resigned her appointment in the Rogue River school, she having accepted a position in the Grants Pass schools. Her cheery personality will be much missed but she is equally popular in the Pass where she has already taught. Mrs. I. L. Gallagher, late principal at Jacksonville, has been elected to the vacant position. Mrs. Ethel Parent who has been 7th and 8th grade teacher in Rogue River for the last four years, has also resigned her position here and goes to Grants Pass as head of the commercial department in the high school there. She has just secured her life certificate to teach in Oregon upon examination in twenty-four subjects, being the only teacher in Jackson county to do so this year. Her many friends and former pupils heartily congratulate her on her success and on obtaining a congenial post for which she is specially fitted, having had previous experience in business life. Mrs. Parent's departure is universally regretted as she has been most successful in her work here and former pupils in Grants Pass who passed thru her classes here will heartily welcome her.

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

Much excitement was caused Monday morning when the fire bell rang and it was discovered that the living rooms at the Gold Hill bakery were on fire. An overheated flue caused the damage which was slight but had been very threatening for a time. The confusion proved the necessity of a new fire chief as the present one, C. A. Peterson is now employed in Medford. Mrs. L. O. Walker came down from Ashland Monday evening. She received word recently of "deacon's" safe arrival overseas. Mr. Fether of Central Point, was a Gold Hill visitor Sunday. R. A. Jones left Wednesday evening for Portland. F. L. Kirby is station agent in his absence. Mr. Jones is seeking a more suitable climate. Thursday morning on 13, arrived Sergeant Kelsey and bride from Portland. Having secured a thirty days furlough from Camp Greene, he made a trans-continental trip and was married Tuesday to Miss Mary E. Griffith at the home of her aunt, 1322 Orient street, Portland. "Sergeant Bill" as well as his bride were both local high school students about three years ago, and well known in this vicinity, and fact the valley, for Miss Griffith's grandma who was a pioneer of southern Oregon still lives at Gold Hill, as do also the parents of William C. Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Kelsey. Mrs. George Iverson and son Arthur were passengers to Medford, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Lucy Mee was a passenger to Ashland Tuesday morning to attend the J. O. F. picnic. J. Marting was a Medford and Ashland visitor the middle of the week. Mrs. Mary Avery was called to Medford Tuesday to assist at the sanitarium. Mrs. W. W. Watson came over Tuesday morning from her home in Medford. Madames Watson, Wharton and Iverson were visitors to Cow Creek, Tuesday. Mrs. Charlow who has been visiting in Medford returned home Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Striker were passengers to Grants Pass Tuesday to attend the funeral of Miss Beat in that city. The two families had been friends for many years. Dr. Eva Carlow was a visitor the first of the week at the Collins home east of town. Mrs. Tom Dungey of Galls Creek who has been visiting at the home of her son Lester at Glendale, the past two weeks, returned to her home Wednesday evening.

It's in the Air Windblown pollen, carrying the bacteria that inflame nose and throat and cause hay fever, is abroad in the land. One remedy is known to give relief and comfort from chokins, gasping asthma and tormenting hay fever. That reliable remedy is Foley's Honey and Tar that spreads a healing, soothing coating on the inflamed membranes, stops irritating coughs and summer colds. Any one who has once used this standard cough and cold remedy will accept no other. Sold everywhere.

Proposals for State Highway Construction Proposals will be received by the Oregon State Highway Commission, 1301 Yeon building, Portland, Oregon, on August 6th, 1918 for the construction of 4400 lineal feet of pavement on what is known as the Ashland Hill grade elimination in Jackson county, Oregon. All proposals must be accompanied by a certified check amounting to ten (10) per cent of bid. Proposals will be received at the same time and place for maintaining pavement for a period of ten years. Plans and specifications can be obtained at the office of the State Highway Engineer, 303 State House, Salem, Oregon, on the payment of a deposit of five dollars. (Signed) S. BENSON, R. A. BOOTH, W. L. THOMPSON, Commissioners. Attest: HERBERT NUNN, State Highway Engineer.

WILLOW SPRINGS

The L. E. Smith family have moved to Butte Falls where Mr. Smith has employment in the sawmill. Mrs. Robert C. Brophy went to Grants Pass Tuesday evening to spend a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. H. B. Alverson. M. M. Robinson, who has been visiting at the J. W. Eldens, left for Bend, Oregon by way of Crater Lake, Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Birkholz entertained the Sam Anderson family at dinner Sunday. Mrs. Earl Heft left last week for Sweet Home, Oregon, to be with her mother, Mrs. Grisham, who has been seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hanna, of Jacksonville, were supper guests at the R. W. Elden home Sunday. Irving Joseph Anthony McKnight, the young colored man who has lived so many years with the D. W. Stone family, left for Camp Lewis, July 29. Nathan Grisham arrived from the Willamette valley this week, to visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Roy Nichols.

REESE CREEK RIPLETS

Mrs. Frank Johnson who underwent an operation in the Medford hospital was able to be brought home last week; she is getting along very well. Miss Delbias Minter with Mrs. Amy Ayres visited Mrs. Ayres' parents last week. The Sunday school group gathering which met at Reese creek last Sunday was well attended, with ten or eleven Sunday schools represented. Sunday school in the forenoon, at noon most all put their dinners together and enjoyed a social hour. In the afternoon Mrs. Griffin conducted the service, there were exercises from some of the different schools. Mrs. Earl Brittan sang a couple of songs which were well received. Dr. Rollins of Medford talked on "The Master cometh and calleth for thee." Missionary Griffin expects to hold an all day service at Trail this coming Sunday. The little threshing machine is in the neighborhood and doing good work.
