

AUSTRIANS WARNED AGAINST ITALIANS

ZURICH, Aug. 17.—The Neue Freie Presse of recent date says: "Reading the Italian newspapers is the impression that the country has recovered from the disaster of Caporetto. Information gleaned from persons coming from there and from Italians themselves, makes it appear that Giolitti has lost his popularity."

"The socialists of the Avanti are not organized sufficiently to oppose the course of events. Orlando has started a Slavonic policy under the auspices of the United States and is developing a great move to attach the Jugo-Slavs of Austria to the allies. The Italian high command supports this policy."

"The campaign against Austria organized in Italy should not be taken lightly. Mussolini, the most popular man in Italy, is still young and ambitious. Nobody in the countries of the entente has known how to make a propaganda for war like him. He has mobilized the crippled and wounded so that they go about inciting the war spirit from one end of the peninsula to the other."

"The economical condition of the country is not as bad as is generally believed. We should not base any calculations on the factors of want and misery."

TALENT TALK

Mrs. M. C. Reed entertained Thursday in honor of Mrs. Lillian Jeffery, at a luncheon at her home in Ashland. The guests present were Mrs. Jeffery, Mrs. Yoe and daughters Mildred and Juanita, Mrs. Holdridge, Mrs. Way, Mrs. King, and Miss Dalton. Mrs. Jeffery expects to leave soon for Oakland, Calif., to be absent for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Elmore of Ashland, spent several days at Oakmont farm, the home of their son, J. H. Fuller, on Wagner creek last week.

Mrs. H. R. Knig was the guest of Mrs. L. P. Ames in Medford last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook expects to leave for Seattle in the near future.

Mrs. Mills, Mrs. L. J. Luke, Mrs. H. L. King were Ashland shoppers last Wednesday.

A farewell party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hallbaugh Saturday evening in honor of Miss Inez Egan. Quite a number of guests were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Miss Egan will leave soon for Sacramento where she will take a nurses' course in the White hospital in that city.

Miss Boosky left Tuesday for her home in Millionaire Row after spending three or four days as a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Marion Tryer.

E. L. Holdridge and family, Mrs. W. B. Holdridge, Mr. and Mrs. Matteson spent Sunday at Happy Camp on Rogue river.

Dr. and Mrs. Forbes and three children, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Lawton, parents of Mrs. Forbes, and Mrs.

Percy Wood of Medford called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Holdridge Sunday evening.

Dr. Louise Davies Whittier and niece of Los Angeles arrived Sunday and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Williams this week.

Mrs. T. C. Williams received a telegram Sunday stating that her mother, Mrs. D. P. Gillman of Newell, Iowa, had suddenly passed away that morning. Mrs. Gillman leaves a husband, three daughters and a grandson. Miss Verna, her youngest daughter, is well known here and in Medford, having spent two years with her sister, Mrs. T. C. Williams.

Frank Elliott returned Tuesday from California where he has been for several months. Word has been received from Charles Tryer that he has been transferred to Camp Merritt, New Jersey. Quite a crew of men are loading ties and lumber at the depot from the mills on Wagner and Anderson creeks. The ties are to go to Ashland where they will be treated with creosote before being used for railroad purposes.

Church services as usual next Sunday. Sunday school at 10 a. m., preaching at 11, Epworth League 7 p. m., evening service at 8. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Miss Edna Wells accompanied by Miss Delpha Coleman of Jacksonville left Thursday for Portland, to attend the G. A. R. convention.

Three tons of sugar was hauled to the cannery Thursday afternoon for the season's canning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells and daughter, Miss Edna spent the week end at Crater Lake.

The Garvin brothers are sinking a shaft at the town well to see if an increase in the water supply can be obtained.

SAMS VALLEY

The rain of Wednesday was one of the first real rains our valley has had since early April. Altho it did some harm to the unthreshed grain it was of much benefit to the late growing gardens.

Richard Strauss is on the verge of closing a deal for a large farm tractor.

Some of the grain being threshed went over expectations while some fell short, but taking it in general it did fairly well considering the season.

Some of the orchardists have commenced pear picking and have lately been interviewed by several buyers.

Miss Hulah Morrino who has spent most of the summer with her sister, Mrs. H. L. Pelton, returned Tuesday to her home in Kansas.

The Union Sunday school group gathering which met Sunday on the Nealson ranch proved very successful. A large attendance gathered from all over the county, who greatly enjoyed the program and took to heart the splendid address by Rev. Booser of Grants Pass. We are glad that such work as this is undertaken, by the Union missionary for there is nothing during this dark time, that could be more needful or reconciliating than a gathering of this kind where each side by side gives a day's thought to the one power which can sustain when all others fail.

Earl Moore and family of Central Point visited Saturday and Sunday with W. C. Kenney and family. Mr. Moore expects to soon leave for Montana.

E. C. Cooper who has been employed near Prospect, has returned home. O. T. Wilson returned from Prospect Sunday where he has spent several days tending his sheep.

Mrs. V. A. Little of Central Point, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Kenney this week.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett
Last Saturday after I had sent my letter to the Medford Mail Tribune I met quite a number of people in our little town, among whom were Holly Mathews and Ruhe Johnson. Ruhe has bought an automobile, and is enjoying life joyriding. He says that is going to try to enjoy life now as his working days are about over.

Thomas Farlow and family of Lake Creek were also doing business here. Gus Edmondson of Derby and a lady I did not know, passed through town going toward Medford. James Calbertson, who passed through here in the morning on his way to Medford, returned, bringing out a lady by the name of Thompson with him. Mrs. John Rader and her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Stanley were among the business callers Saturday.

Herman Meyer and his son Herman Meyer, Jr., were in town Monday.

There was a meeting of the school board Monday night and among other matters attended to was the employment of a teacher for the intermediate department of our school. They employed a lady by the name of Miss Florence Lansing, an eastern lady went from here and about 3 o'clock Sunday morning William Coy, Millard Robinson and Carl Beysman came in for beds at the Sunnyside.

The Outbursts of Everett True By CONDO

Walter Wood passed through town with 12 or 15 head of cattle, taking them to his ranch.

Harvey Stanley was at work building a large barn on his ranch in the Benehera country.

Among the callers Sunday were Frank Haselton, Alex Betts, Lyle Van Seoy, William Coy of Eagle Point, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Mat Day of Ashland. Mr. Day is one of the interesting contributors to the news columns of the Daily Medford Tribune and from the slight acquaintance made a very favorable impression.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Truaxbridge and their daughter, Miss Florence, and Miss Lucile Watson, all of Medford, Benj. E. Tanner of Koniz, Ind., was with us Sunday night.

Monday J. L. Robinson, one of our progressive farmers came in with one of his boys to see him off to join his comrades in the army. J. H. Tyrrell formerly of Lake Creek, but now of Medford, who sold the site and land adjoining of the Manganese mill on Lost creek, came out from Medford Monday morning for breakfast. He and his family have been camped at the Dead Indian soda springs for the past five or six weeks and he took a run out to Medford to look after his interest there and decided to come out this far before breakfast, so that he could reach camp before it got so warm.

Mr. W. E. Allen and G. E. Stowell called for dinner Monday on their way up to the manganese mine. Mr. Stowell is with the Oregon bureau of mines and geology in the exploitation work at the noted mines of Lake creek. I understand that they have the Dodge drilling outfit up there at work on the development work, and that the results are very satisfactory, that they are discovering almost an unlimited amount of ore on one small tract, about 15 acres, and are still making new and greater discoveries.

Mr. and Mrs. Coger of Clackamas county Oregon, were here to spend the night with us Monday. They were here to look at a tract of land with an eye to buying it, but when they learned that it was nine miles from a high school and four miles to the nearest school they decided that it would not suit them, so left Tuesday to look for another place. They have six children to educate and one of them has passed the second year and another the first year in high school. We would have been glad if they could have found a place to suit them as they seemed to be of that class that will be a help to a community.

Tuesday morning there was quite a number of passengers on the P. & E. train and among them were Mr. and Mrs. Morris of Butte Falls. They had been out to Medford and were returning home.

Herman Meyer and his son Herman Meyer, Jr., were in town Monday.

There was a meeting of the school board Monday night and among other matters attended to was the employment of a teacher for the intermediate department of our school. They employed a lady by the name of Miss Florence Lansing, an eastern lady with seven years' experience. Dr. Holt says that she comes very well recommended.

Mr. Dave Bergon and son Barnas passed through here Tuesday on their way home via Crater Lake and Huckleberry mountain. Mr. Bergon at one time was a resident of this county and is remembered by many of the old stockmen.

Mrs. Mabel Weitz nee Mabel Hanson, formerly of Climax, was a pleasant caller Wednesday. She had come out on her way to Clinax to visit some of her old neighbors. She has been teaching on Applegate and expects to teach the fall and winter term in Gold Hill.

George Phillips and family, one of the section men at the P. & E. R. K., came out and spent Saturday night and Sunday with his mother-in-law, Mrs. N. E. Watkins, and while here paid up his subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune and ordered it stopped as he is taking the Daily Mail Tribune. He is now a resident of Medford.

W. P. Holbrook, one of our prosperous farmers was in town Monday and while here renewed his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune.
