ONLY CANDLED AND GOOD EGGS SOLD IN OREGON

The following regulations govern the sale of eggs in Oregon, being promulgated by the state food administrator and the Oregon Poultry Producers' association:

All eggs must be candled. Only good eggs offered for shipment.

1. The first buyer of eggs (the huckster, the local retail merchant, or others who buy direct from the producer) must candle carefully every lot of eggs that he buys. A candling certificate, properly filled out, must accompany each case or carton of eggs sold, offered or exposed for sale, or offered for inter-state shipment.

2. The first buyer shall discard all eggs known as "yolks stuck to the shell," "Blood rings," "partially hatched," "moldy eggs," "black spots," "black or mixed rots," and any other eggs of an unwholesome nature.

3. He shall pay only for good, edible eggs.

4. He shall return to the producers, if possible, the "rejects" for the producers' own examination.

5. The good eggs shall be kept in a cool, dry place in a temperature not above 55 degrees F. until shipped.

6. Eggs shall be handled promptly upon receipt, and shipment made as soon thereafter as is possible.

7. Eggs known as "large hatch spots," "heavily shrunken eggs," "settled yolks," and "leaking eggs," and eggs with loose air cells, are fit for consumption, but will not stand transportation. They should be used by the home community.

8. All "checks" and "cracks" shell eggs should be shipped in cases stenciled that they contain cracks or check shell eggs.

9. All subsequent receivers of eggs shall use care and intelligence in the handling of these eggs. During the months of June, July and August, when the date on the egg candling certificate shows that 48 hours have elapsed since the eggs were first candled and proper notation made on the candling certificate, During the remainder of the year, when the egg candling certificate shows seven days have elapsed since the first candling, the eggs should be recandled and proper notation made on the candling certificate.

The above regulations are made in an effort to stop traffic in bad eggs, and to prevent loss of good eggs. Your hearty co-operation is requested in carrying out these regulations.

In handling eggs the following rules should be observed:

1. A fresh egg should be one of good size, clean, full, with "fixed air cell" of not more than 3-16 inch in depth, sweet and strong body. (The albumen should not appear watery.) A larger air cell with a movable lower line indicates a stale egg, or one that is becoming weak or watery. Such eggs should not be shipped.

2. Eggs should be bought or sold on merit. The price received or paid should be strictly in accordance with the quality of the product. To allow as much for inferior eggs as for eggs of the highest quality is practically the same as placing a premium on carelessness or dilatory methods.

For detailed instructions regarding the methods of candling and grades of eggs, see U. S. Department of Agriculture Bulletin No. 565—How to Candle Eggs, and Bulletin No. 664.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Businessmen will close their stores on Labor day, Sept. 2, the event being observed as a general holiday. This action is in line with a recommendation of the Businessmens' association.

A local branch of the University of Oregon officers' training school was organized at the Armory on Wednesday. About 50 were present and signed up the "articles of war." An executive board of seven members was chosen, of which Frank J. Shinn is chairman, and Clark Bark, secretary-treasurer. This board will choose a captain, other officers to be appointed later.

The rock crusher which will furnish material for paving operations on Billings Hill, is in operation near Jackson hot springs. The roadway on the Eagle Mill unit will be 400 feet long, 16 feet wide, the grade to be three per cent or a trifle over. The paving dope will be cement, its various layers being six inches thick.

Active surveying on the roads east of town develop the fact that the operations are under state highway commission auspices in connection with improving the old Ashland-Klamath Falls road, and reducing the grade to one not exceeding seven percent. The engineer and six assistants on the job are camping temporarily at Wagner Soda springs, working both ways.

Mrs. Elva Hobart has been elected president of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Sarah Cochran is vice president; Mrs. Cora Slingerland, financial secretary; Mrs. Stella Leavitt, corresponding secretary; Mr. James Spindler, treasurer. The union will send a large representation to the county convention to be held at Medford, September 13.

Harry Hosler, of the old reliable cigar and sporting goods headquarters on the Plaza, contemplates going out of business within a few weeks, and entering mining operations in connection with minerals for which the government is requisitioning specific demands.

Railroad men are wondering after reading accounts of the late railroad wreck on the Siskiyou, whether it is the Southern Pacific or the Associated Press which has suspended the immutable laws of gravitation. The query is prompted by an account in the daily papers which states that the freight train parted at Steinman, the wreck cars running wild to destruction under their own momentum, the mad career being halted at Gregory, a climb which is scheduled as uphill in the grade classification, reversing the nominal order of things. Ayer's Spar should be substituted for Gregory.

The regular order of services begins in the churches on Sunday September 1, after the period of summer gathering Sunday evenings in the Chautauqua auditorium. On the date indicated, Rev. H. W. Hayne, of Quray, Col., will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church. The exception as this resumption is made in connection with the Nazarine following, who will worship in the big tent where their campmeeting is now in progress.

Among the out-of-town people who have arrived here lately and have taken rooms at the Allen apartments are J. S. Latham, of Long Beach, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Chester and son of Independence; F. E. Gilley and two companions, working on the highway in this vicinity, are also located at these roming headquarters.

The Eastern Star chapter will resume its meetings on the autumn and winter schedule, Tuesday evening, September 3.

It seems unfortunate to deny the park plot on the plaza sufficient water to keep the minature oasis green, but the city authorities claim they cannot make any discrimination in the bone dry law as applying to sprinkling regulations. Hence the desert appearance surrounding the Carter fountain.

A recent grass fire on John Maxedon's premises threatened a barn, and did some damage to the sleeping porch of his chicken bungalow.

The Kellogg family, from Dunsmuir, have rented the Swingle house on Gresham street, Mr. Kellogg being in the employ of the Southern Pacific.

Mrs. R. C. Wiley has returned from attendance upon a training class held under Christian Science auspices at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Rose, formerly of Riverside, Cal., after a visit here with relatives, have gone to Monterey, where Mr. Rose will assume the direction of the high school commercial department.

Ralph Billings and J. R. McCracken have returned from their joint family outing at Newport.

Rev. C. A. Edwards and family, accompanied by Miss Jean Anderson have completed the summer vacation at Long's Lodge. Homer Billings, loaded for bear, still remains in that vicinity for the week end to expire on or about Sept. 1.

District Superintendent Van Fossen and wife have returned from Crescent City and the former has gone to Portland on church business.

The Park garage has again changed hands, J. H. Graves having sold out to E. M. Boothby. Cars may come and cars may go, but Sid Morris remains as expert mechanician at the old headquarters.

Dr. C. M. Anderson, veterinarian, recently located here under county auspices, has been summoned to Portland to fill an appointment as government meat inspector.

Further Ashland teachers filling appointments in outside territory include Miss Armeda Kaiser, at Oakland, Cal.; Miss Marion Hodgson, graduate of home economics, at Corvallis, teacher of sewing at Lewiston, Idaho. Miss Minnie Poley, heretofore employed at Stayton, will take a commercial course at Corvallis, where her sister Evangeline is also pursuing advanced studies.

Mrs. Susie Allen, on Saturday, August 31, will open a store for the sale of bakery goods and the serving of lunches, in her block next door to the gas office.

Catarrh is a Real Enemy and Requires Vigorous Treatment

Do Not Neglect It.

When you use medicated sprays, atomizers and douches for your Catarrh, you may succeed in unstopping the choked-up air passages for the time being, but this annoying condition returns, and you have to do the same thing over and over again.

Catarrh has never yet been cured by these local applications. Have you ever experienced any real benefit from such treatment?

Throw these makeshift remedies to the winds, and get on the right treatment. Go to your drug store today, get a bottle of S. S. S., and commence a treatment that has been praised by sufferers for nearly half a century.

S. S. S. gets right at the source of Catarrh, and forces from the blood the germs which cause the disease. You can obtain special medical advice regarding your own case without charge by writing to Medical Director, 22 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

FORMER MAYOR OF BIRMINGHAM, ALA., ENDORSES TANLAC

"You Will Hardly Know Me When We Meet Again; for I am Getting Well," He Writes Friend

One of the latest additions to the list of leaders of thought and action who have come forward with their unqualified endorsement of Tanlac is the name of Hon. Frank V. Evans, former Mayor of Birmingham, Ala., ex-State Examiner of Public Accounts of Alabama, and at one time editor of one of the South's greatest newspapers—The Birmingham Age-Herald.

Writing to a personal friend in Atlanta, Mr. Evans says:

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 2.

"..... By the way, you will hardly know me when we meet again, because I am getting well and strong again. As I told you while in Atlanta last month, I have been suffering a long time with gastritis, as the doctors call it—really a disordered stomach with consequent constipation, pains in the shoulders, headache, belching, heartburn, loss of appetite, loss of sleep, and fainting spells. For weeks I could not sleep on my back.

"One week ago, upon recommendation of friends, who had tried the medicine, I purchased one bottle of Tanlac and began taking it. Since my second dose I have suffered none of these troubles to which I refer, and really believe I am going to get perfectly well and strong again. Won't that be wonderful at my age? Well, certain it is that Tanlac is a wonderful medicine, and you know I am not given to 'puffing' mere experiments and am rather orthodox as to materia medica.

"I shall continue the treatment with perfect confidence in the final results."

Signed
"Frank V. Evans."

Commenting on this splendid endorsement of Tanlac G. F. Willis, International Distributor of Tanlac said:

"Although the list of prominent endorsers is a long one I recall a few leading names that lend both dignity and credit to the entire array. Some of them are:

"Hon. C. W. Mangum, of Atlanta, Ga., for three terms Sheriff of Fulton County, Hon. McKenzie Moss, Judge of the Eighth District of Kentucky, Hon. Moses R. Glenn, Superintendent of Printing for the state of Kentucky; Col. John B. Gains, Editor and Publisher, Bowling Green, Ky.; Mr. C. C. Cooper, President of the Georgia Cotton Oil Company; Mr. H. W. Hill, Bank President of South Pittsburg, Tenn.; Mr. J. F. Carroll, Cotton Mill Superintendent of Chattahoochee, Ga.; Hon. A. E. Anderson, of Houston, Tex., for seven terms sheriff of Harris County; Hon. S. S. Shepardex, city Councilman of Atlanta, and many others whose names have heretofore been given to the public.

Tanlac is sold in Medford by West Side Pharmacy; in Gold Hill by M. D. Bowers, in Central Point by Miss M. A. Mee, and in Ashland by J. J. McNair. Adv.
