STORY OF CAPTURE OF JUVIGNY AS SEEN BY OBSERVER

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE AISNE FRONT, Sept. 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—The capture of Juvigny, north of Soissons by Americans Thursday night was reported to the division headquarters by the observation post chronologically as follows:

"5 p. m.—Four shattered companies of Germans have been seen going to the rear of Juvigny.

"5:40—Just sighted 100 Germans at edge of Juvigny apparently seeking means of leaving village.

"6:00—American patrols at edge of Juvigny.

"6:15—Three German machine gunners started leaving Juvigny carrying their guns. Finally they abandoned their guns in flight.

"6:30—Sighted rifle flashes apparently from snipers in Juvigny. The woods to the south of Juvigny are full of enemy troops.

(It may be assumed the French and American artillery took hints from the observer's report regarding the enemy in the woods, because the report has the Americans near Juvigny.)

"6:40—Americans reported approaching northern outskirts of Juvigny.

"6:45—Infantry on northern flank of Juvigny and infantry on southern flank Juvigny not yet taken.

"6:50—Germans counter attacking; no report as to result.

"7:15—Two companies of infantry have gone forward from the reserve positions to mop up Juvigny. According to reports by gunners we hold north and south of the town. Situation on the left is undecided.

"7:20—Condition on left due to counter attack by Germans debouching from the front.

8:00—Juvigny occupied by our troops who took 30 prisoners. Counter attack by our left wing appears to be progressing.

"8:30—Infantry reports 95 more prisoners on way in. They were captured in mopping up Juvigny."

Men Feel Tired, Too

While much is said about tired women it must be remembered that men also pay the penalty of overwork. When the kidneys are weak, inactive or sluggish, when one feels tired out and miserable, lacks energy and ambition. Foley Kidney Pills are tonic and strengthening. Wm. H. Clark, Springfield, Ohio, writes: "I found no relief from kidney trouble until I discovered Foley Kidney Pills. Now I am in A1 shape. They act quickly and surely. For sale by the Medford Pharmacy. HUNS FACE LOSS OF COAL FIELDS SEIZED IN FRANCE

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The sensational breaking of the famous Drocourt-Queant switch line after a series of important allied advances with great captures of men and material has made an immense impression here. The expectation is general that the enemy will make the most desperate efforts to recover the position since the blow is regarded as one of the worst disasters inflicted upon the Germans during the whole war.

RECOGNIZING A PEOPLE.

RECOGNITION by the United States of the Czech-Slovaks as a co-belligerent nation in the war against the central powers following similar recognition by Great Britain, France and Italy, sounds the doom of the Austria-Hungarian empire, for only by its disintegration can the freedom of the Czech-Slovak peoples be secured, or a Czech-Slovak government be created.

The allied governments are in effect recognizing the nationality of a people without an organized government and without a defined country—but a people with every right to control their own destiny, a people who have inhabited a fixed area for over a thousand years, who in times past had their own government and attained eminence as one of the highly civilized nations of Europe but who for centuries have suffered the blight of German and Austrian oppression.

The action of the allies pledges their active assistance and co-operation to the principle of the recognition of smaller nations and liberty for oppressed peoples and must convince the neutrals that only by allied victory can freedom and democracy survive.

While having no formal government, the Czech-Slovaks have earned recognition by their valient efforts to combat German and Austrian tyranny. Drafted in the Austrian army to fight the battles of their own oppressor, they deserted in numbers to Russia. Organized as a unit of the Russian army, they fought bravely until the collapse of Russia, when they sought to make their way across the world to the French front. Though disarmed and attacked by the Bolsheviks and armed German prisoners, they defeated their assailants and seized the Siberian railroad. Now reinforced by the allies, they are creating a new eastern front to keep Russia from falling into the hands of the Hun.

The Czech-Slovaks comprise the kindred Slav peoples occupying Bohemia, Moravia and a portion of Galicia. They are also closely allied by blood and language to the Jugo-Slavs, comprising Croats, Bosnians, Serbians, Montenegrins and other southern Slavs, who plan the creation of a Jugo-Slav nation when the Austrian-Magyar yoke shall have been cast off and the freedom of peoples becomes an actuality.

These two nations, the Czech-Slovaks and the Jugo-Slavs, occupying the richest part of Austria and with a population far in excess of their oppressors, will forever destroy Germany's dream of Mittel Europa and domination of the east, as they block the way to the Orient.

ON FIRING LINE FOR TEN MONTHS

Under actual fire in the British and French trenches at intervals covering a period of more than eighteen months, was the nerve-racking experience of Lillian and Dorothy Gish, noted motion picture stars, who with their mother accompanied David Wark Griffith to the very front line trenches of France to secure the important scenes for "Hearts of the World," the new Griffith masterpiece to be seen at the Rialto, Saturday next.

The Gish family, with Robert Haron, Josephine Crowell, Kate Bruce, Master Ben Alexander (six years of age), Robert Anderson, George Fawcett, George A. Siegmann and others who appear in "Hearts of the World" were under bombardment on three separate occasions, and in one instance the attack lasted for four hours. It is interesting also to learn that Mr. Griffith was the first American to enter the front line trenches. This was of course before the United States entered the world-war.

For eighteen long months these players were with Mr. Griffith, and their stories of suffering are by all odds the most interesting ever told by players for the motion picture camera. As a result of their experience, the two Gish girls were for a long time almost nervous wrecks, while their mother suffered from hysteria for many weeks after her return to the United States.
