ing to the mutual convenience of employes and patrons.

Fire calls via with draft requisitions, and of late bulletins are placarded appealing for men to fight the flames in several neighboring forest fireplaces, notably at Siskiyou.

The Bogley cannery at Talent, has begun operations to such an extent that outside help is needed, and to workers who can be secured from this vicinity free transportation is offered as an inducement.

Butter at 60 cents per pound in the local market is driving many to the use of eggs at 50 cents per dozen, 10 cents this being saved, to invest in thrift stamps, the latter coming already stamped.

H. L. Gilkey, at one time mayor of Medford, later mayor of Grants Pass and cashier of the First National bank in that city, is to supplement the service of three sons in the army by a voluntary enlistment as an active worker under Y. M. C. A. auspices in France, where two of his boys are already with the American expeditionary forces.

The third son is in camp at Fort McDowell, Cal. This patriotic circumstance is a reminder that in coming to Southern Oregon years ago from Montezuma, Wash., L. H. Simpson of this city was accompanied by Mr. Gilkey. Mr. Simpson has two soldier boys in France.

Robert Newman, manager of the Mira Vista orchards in the Medford district, has resigned and accompanied by his wife, who was formerly Miss Beulah Caldwell of this city, will go to Portland this week on a prospecting tour as to future lines of employment.

A. F. Abbott, roundhouse machinist in Southern Pacific local yards, leaves this week, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Etha, for a visit in Portland with his son Leith, and numerous other relatives, including his brother-in-law, Gust Edlund, locomotive engineer on the northern division, who has promised to take the Ashland family on a joyride over the long extent of the Columbia highway.

G. M. Grainger is supervising the construction of extensive repair work on the bridge which spans Ashland creek in the rear of the Peil warehouses on Park avenue. This bridge is used by all the business firms on the west side of the Plaza from Park avenue to North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vining of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Myer of Seattle, and Frank Vining of Southern California, are visitors with others in the family of G. M. Grainger. This incursion of old time residents into familiar Ashland territory is interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanson have returned from a trip to Portland.

Representatives of the Simon and Parish families of Monique were among numerous friends who attended the funeral of the late T. J. Nolton, held in this city last Saturday.

Rumors are current that H. G. Enders will take over a lease of the former Payne block, located between his big department store and the Citizens bank, have notable improvements to the frontage installed, and add several other distinctive features to his colossal merchandising establishment located in the heart of the Endersville addition. The Payne block is now owned by the Pendleton estate of Santa Ana, Cal. It formerly housed a bakery and realty office, the latter of which still does business at the old stand. There are also various suits of offices on the second floor. In order to further consolidate the department store branches, it is also reported that the jewelry store will be moved to the new leased surroundings.
