PHOENIX PARAGRAPHS

The schools opened Sept. 2, with a very good attendance in grades, but not so good in the high school; this was expected because the pupils are at work; however, many pupils may make up their work in studies, if they do not stay out of school too long. Several new pupils will enter next Monday.

The schools start off in excellent shape, teacher and pupils are happy and getting down to real work as the weather gets cooler.

Parents in district No. 4 must get their pupils in school soon, if they come in bounds of the compulsory education law.

Classes are formed in English I, II, and III; algebra, U. S. history.

ROGUE RIVER

Mrs. Spence of Portland, left for her home Monday morning after a visit with her old friend, Mrs. Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gorham left on Saturday for a business and pleasure visit in Klamath county.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Parent of Gold Hill were Sunday guests at the Minthorn home on Evans creek.

E. Stevens returned on Saturday from the G. A. R. convention at Portland and reports a very fine time.

School reopens Sept. 9th, with Mr. Narrogan as principal, Miss Sylvia Hurd, assistant principal, and Mrs. Minthorn, Mrs. S. T. Gallagher, Miss M. Gagerie and Miss Scott, grade teachers with the ever popular janitor, Mr. C. Horton.

The public library was favored on Saturday with a visit from Miss Marvin, state librarian. She was very much pleased with the steady progress of our library and urged its further development. Miss Marvin is visiting the libraries of the state in the interests of county librarians. If, for instance, Jackson county could establish a central county library a very small county tax would maintain it, and the newest books could be borrowed by the other libraries, thus saving expense in the buying of books. Miss Marvin intends to visit Crater Lake while in southern Oregon.

Archie Hatch, Carl Magerie and Roy Myers left to meet the draft board at Jacksonville on Aug. 26th. Ten good wishes of all their friends follow them. No boys over twenty-one are now here, but our younger lads are doing their best to fill the gaps and carry on the work in field and orchard.

Mrs. Baer of Evans creek, left on Monday evening for a visit to Vancouver, Wash.
