ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Malta Commandery, Knights Templar, has voted to remit, during the war period, any financial obligations due from such of its members as are serving either in the military or naval service of the United States. Seven of its members are affected by this action, four being from Medford, including H. S. Dyer, E. T. Foss, Treve B. Lundsen, and W. J. Burbridge. Dene and Lundsen are in France, the former writing interesting letters to his home papers. He is connected with the quartermaster's department, with prospect of transfer to active military service. Burbridge is in the navy at Bremerton. Ashland representatives are Dr. J. P. Johnson, A. J. McCallen and Vern V. Mills. Dr. Johnson is located at the torpedo station, Keyport, Wash. McCallen is in France as captain of Co. 1, 36th Infantry. Mills is a lieutenant of artillery, and had started for the overseas trip, but was taken ill and at last accounts was convalescing at a base hospital in the vicinity of New York City.

Miss Frances McWilliams leaves on Tuesday of this week to resume her school duties at Calexico, Cal., where she has been for several years past, filling an important position which has proved to be mutually agreeable to both instructor and pupils. She will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. J. E. Deek, who with her two children is also returning to Southern California after a summer vacation. The sisters will visit at San Francisco and Los Angeles on their way to the Imperial Valley, in which Mr. Deek, who is a graduate of the officers training school at San Francisco and is under waiting orders, has extensive ranch interests.

Uncle Job Tozer will delay a contemplated visit here to the old home surroundings, due to the circumstances that his son Bert, with whom he is living at Petaluma, Cal., is confined to hospital on account of accidental injury, consequently Job will have to remain there and look after several thousand chickens.

Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of the federal department of labor, was a visitor in Ashland on Saturday, en route to San Francisco, investigating labor conditions throughout Pacific coast territory.

Mrs. Huffman, wife of the pastor of the Christian church at Medford, occupies the pulpit of the local Christian church on Sunday. Mr. Huffman is in the army V. M. C. A. service.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beaver and Walter Herndon and family are camping for a week or two somewhere on the banks of the Rogue, the exact location being camouflaged by dense forest surroundings.

The remains of Herbert Kelly, Barnum showman, who died in hospital here, have been forwarded east, having been identified by relatives. Albany, N. Y., is the destination as reported by the Dodge undertaking firm. A post mortem conducted by Drs. Swedberg and Wood revealed the fact that the man died of abscess on the brain. Lander Neil, who has gone east on a visit to his daughters now in New York City, accompanied the remains as far as Albany. The expense of forwarding the body is considerable under present rates, approximately $250.

Miss Nellie Beaver will teach in Gold Hill as assistant in the high school.

Co. E, Ashland contingent state militia, has Henry Frame for captain; Peter Spencer, 1st lieutenant, and D. D. Edwards, 2d lieutenant; H. G. Eastman, John Riggs, Elmer Morrison, sergeants; B. B. McNair, supply sergeant; B. H. Hinthorne, H. T. Elmore, Paul Guiley, George Ross, H. L. Moore, corporals; bugler, Henry Carter. The roster contains 50 privates. Drill every Monday evening at Armory, 7:30 o'clock.

Mothers' Day in war calendar activities will be observed generally on Saturday, Sept. 21. Especially will the mothers of soldiers be remembered on this occasion, and their presence at the loyal gatherings is invited to participate in expressions of mutual sympathy and helpfulness.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Saworth and son of Challis, Idaho, are visitors with relatives in the family of August Schumann, preliminary to a trip to the Sacramento valley, where Mr. Haworth will investigate business propositions which may imply a permanent change of residence.

The Eastern Star thimble club will resume its business and social sessions, after the summer vacation, on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 10, at Masonic hall. The stated meetings in the club's calendar are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month at 2 p. m.

George Robinson, chief of the fire department, has gone to San Francisco, accompanied by his wife, to visit his son's family. The specific vacation granted extends over 15 days.

Sam Potter is home from the chrome deposits in Siskiyou county in territory centering about Fort Jones, where the mineral is mined extensively and in which properties he is interested. It is planned to erect a mill at the fort and thus ship the valuable concentrates instead of the crude ore over the long haul to the railroad. After a brief stay here he will return to active work at the mines, from which he brought several samples of the ore which is now being so much talked about.

W. A. Freshburg, after a period of two months' absence in touring portions of Nevada and California, has returned home to look after property interests. While away he sold his faithful old auto, returning to South Oregon on one of McAdoo's fast freights.

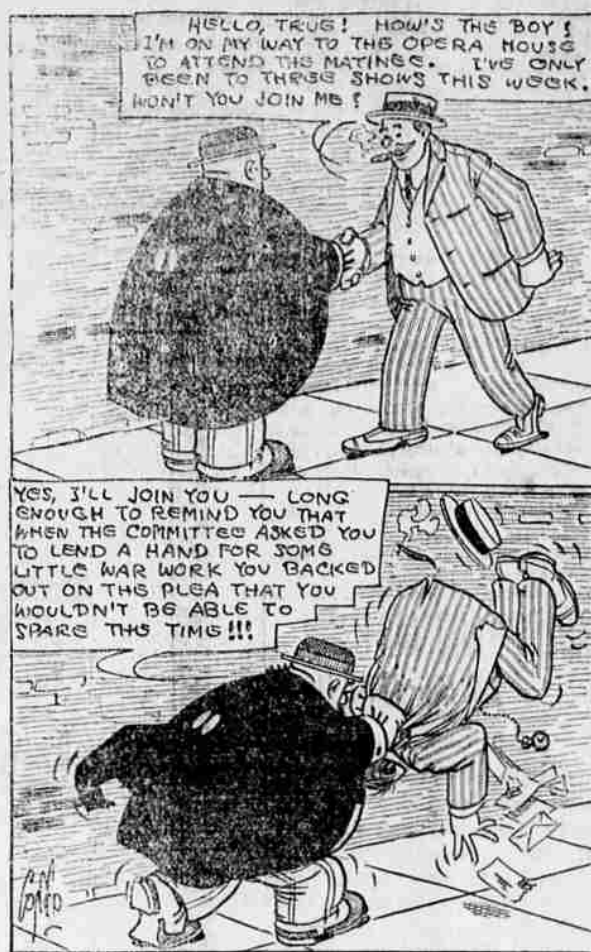

The Chautauque will be moved to Medford. That is, the special assembly, under Radcliffe auspices, which will be held under canvas in that city on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, September 14, 16 and 17, the assembly incorporating three days of high class, instructive and beneficial entertainments. Everybody should go and test the acoustic properties of the big tent. All net proceeds go to the benefit of the Medford Red Cross chapter, a most worthy arrangement. One dollar for a season ticket is the price to adults.

The Pilot Rock school has taken up work for the term, with Miss Amy Leavitt of this city, as teacher.

Grants Pass is fixing up its Riverside park with accommodations for the old soldiers and sailors of Southern Oregon, who will meet there in annual reunion all of this week. Those who can, are urged to take along tents, and it is taken for granted that all who attend will go aban-

GOLD HILL NUGGETS

The public schools here opened Monday Sept. 9, with the following corps of teachers: J. M. Powers, principal; Misses Nellie M. Beaver and Evelyn Reigelman, assistants in the high school, and the Misses Mabel D. Hall, Elsie L. Miller, Fannie E. Wheeler, and Alice L. Harper as assistants in the grades. A large amount of additional territory has been added to the Gold Hill district during the past year including the Rock Hill district. This is the first consolidated district to be organized in the county. Arrangements have been made to transport pupils of the Rock Hill district to and from Gold Hill daily, and it is planned to have hot lunches prepared for all of these pupils during the noon hour. With the increased funds that will come to this district in a short time as a result of these consolidations the board of directors are planning to develop a school system in this community that will be second to none, not excepting the larger cities.
