COURT HOUSE REPORT

Reported by Jackson County Abstract Co., Sixth and Central Aves.
District Court
William T. Grieve vs. Belle Nickell et al. Answer of Belle Nickell.

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

The ladies of the Table Rock Red Cross auxiliary have resumed their labors, meeting last Wednesday at the regular place.

M. B. Chase and R. E. Nealon have joined the Medford unit of the University of Oregon officers' training school.

Post cards from Verner Lynch and Mel Atkins announce their safe arrival overseas.

Henry Gregory, Jim Penland, A. L. Seabrook and William Gregory have returned from a week's deer hunt in the Unqua country where they bagged three fine deer.

The Glass Bros. threshing machine, which is working in this district, is shut down for a few days while the owners are filling their silos.

The yield of grain threshed on two of our largest ranches has been slightly better than anticipated.

Mrs. O. T. Wilson and children of Sams Valley spent Saturday here with relatives.

Judge Harvey and wife of Minot, Minn., old friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lydiard, are visitors at the Lydiard home.

Mrs. Susan Penland has returned from a month's visit with relatives at Oakland, Cal.

Henry Maury and sister and Sanford Richardson and family and Miss Marie Neulson spent Sunday at Bybee Springs, in the Evans creek district.

The filling of silos will be in order this week in this district.

The Deford family, who have suffered a long siege of scarlet fever, were just recovering from this when Byron, the oldest son, became afflicted with inflammation—rheumatism and is in a serious condition.

A Maxwell car has taken up headquarters at the Pendleton ranch.

Mrs. E. Persons, who has been on the sick list for several days is somewhat improved at this writing.

Miss Verda Lynch and Miss Katharina Nealon will begin their first term of school in the Trail and Givans district on September 16. The young ladies have many friends in this vicinity who feel confident they will make good in their chosen work.

Orley Persons holds the record for pop corn growing in this district, having a patch the stalks of which are more than 10 feet high with ears as large as ordinary field corn.

Tim Duggan of Astoria, was a business visitor in this district one day this week.

The venerable brothers and Ray Offenbacher of Applegate were visitors at the Bynum ranch Tuesday of last week.

The Wolf hay baling outfit that has been working in this district during the past week returned to Medford.

The wheat situation at present does not look very encouraging to the farmer, who has put everything into wheat, even sacrificing his hay crop in order to do his bit for the cause.

Although beef prices are soaring at Portland, a Table Rock rancher reports that five cents a pound is all he is offered locally for fat cows.

With Miss Eva Heaton attending school at Agate this will be the first term in 34 years that the Nealon family has not been represented in the Table Rock schools.

Miss Mary Collins, Miss Eva Nealon, Lloyd Nordwick and the Seabrook children will attend school in other districts leaving the attendance in our school the smallest on record.

We understand that several in this district have failed to meet their Red Cross pledges and as we know that this is only carelessness on the part of the pledgers we are going to ask you to please attend to this matter at once. Your pledge is no earthly good to your country unless backed up by cash. The war cannot be won with mere pledges.

Mr. Schively and a man from The Paul's Electric Store, of Medford, sent out to make some connection in the electric pump at the school house, were also here for dinner Friday.

There were also two traveling salesmen here for dinner Friday. They were representing a San Francisco grocery firm.

Charles Humphrey of Derby is hauling out stove wood to Eagle Point. He and his wife were diners at the Sunnyside Thursday and while here he renewed his subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune.

John Howard and Pete Betts were doing business with our merchants Friday.

Mrs. M. J. Hawk and her son, S. H. Harol, were among the passengers on the P. & E. on their way to Butte Falls Saturday.

Mrs. G. M. Steidhem and her son Louis, who have been up in the Lake creek country visiting her mother and family took dinner at the Sunnyside Saturday, and so did Mr. and Mrs. Seiler and their four children.

Since my last report Roy Ashland, J. M. Willey, Mrs. Lottie Van Sway, and Henry Knighton have renewed their subscriptions to the Daily Mail Tribune.

Mr. C. Hopp of New York was a passenger on the P. & E. Thursday on his way up to the L. C. near nine o'clock. He seems to be considerably interested in that enterprise and is greatly encouraged over the prospect.

E. C. Everson and Goldie Brown were among our guests Thursday.

E. E. Powell, who is traveling in the interests of the Tobacco company of California, was here for dinner Thursday, and so was Frank Miller and wife, recently from Burns, and Mr. Davis, the court reporter of Jacksonville. Mr. Davis and Mr. Miller had been up Rogue river fishing and caught a few fine fish.

Wm. Beale of Butte Falls was brought in Thursday afternoon by Dr. Holt from his home to remain a while at the Sunnyside on account of his having a rusty nail puncture his foot. He has been acting as night watchman in the Butte Falls mill and while on duty he jumped off a platform and landed on a rusty spike nail and it penetrated almost through the foot, about two inches back of the toes. He is being treated by Dr. Holt and seems to be getting along as well as could be expected.

Prof. R. E. Morris, one of our school supervisors and Miss Rosetta McGinn, public health nurse spent Thursday night at the Sunnyside.

Prof. E. A. Dierdorff, who is to act as principal of our school this fall and winter, and family came in Thursday on the P. & E. and went direct to the Sunnyside and after dinner moved into the P. H. Daley home.

Miss Pina Benedict, who taught our primary department last season, and is engaged to teach in the same department this season, moved into the same house she lived in last season; the Ringer house.

John W. Smith, one of our old boarders, who has been at Marshfield working in one of the ship yards this summer called Friday for dinner.

Mr. Schively and a man from The Paul's Electric Store, of Medford, sent out to make some connection in the electric pump at the school house, were also here for dinner Friday.

There were also two traveling salesmen here for dinner Friday. They were representing a San Francisco grocery firm.
