ROGUE RIVER

The Red Cross program and auction sale was a great success. After some singing and remarks by the mayor a forceful patriotic address was given by Hon. C. M. Thomas, the hall being filled. The sale was then proceeded with, Mr. Earhardt acting as auctioneer. A large variety of all kinds of farm produce, canned fruit, fancy work, chickens, rabbits, a mare given by Mr. Woodvorton, and a six weeks old pig donated by Master F. Ellmann brought $445.50 to the cause being turned back for sale repeatedly.

the ultimate owner being Master Linden Hatch. A sum of $220 was raised which will be used by the local Red Cross to buy material.

AN ORDINANCE submitting to the legal voters of the City of Medford a special election to be held in said city on Tuesday, the 15th day of October, 1918, a proposed act of municipal legislation amending the charter of the said city with respect to the holding of elections therein.

The City of Medford doth ordain as follows: Section 1. That there be and hereby is submitted and proposed to the legal voters of the City of Medford the following proposed act of municipal legislation relating to the holding of elections in the said city:

Section 2. That Section 17 of the charter of the City of Medford be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: "Section 17. At the first regular meeting of the council in January following the City election, or as soon thereafter as practical, the council shall choose by ballot one of its members as chairman, who shall preside in the absence of the mayor, and in the absence or inability of the mayor to act, such chairman shall perform all the duties of mayor; but during the time that he is so acting he shall also perform the duties of councilman, including the right to vote."

Section 3. That Section 53 of the charter of the City of Medford be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: "Section 53. Not less than fifteen days prior to the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each even numbered year, the City Council shall order a biennial election for city elective officers, of which election notice shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in the city, or by notice signed by the city recorder and posted by the chief of police in three conspicuous places in said city, one notice to be posted in each ward, not less than ten days prior to the election, which notice shall specify the officers to be elected, and the time and places of holding said election."

Section 4. That Section 54 of the charter of the City of Medford be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: "Section 54. The City election shall be held at the same time and place that the general biennial election for State and County officers is held in said City, and the election precincts and officers for said election shall be those selected according to law for said general biennial elections."

Section 5. That Section 56 of the charter of the City of Medford be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: "Section 56. All persons to be voted for at any city election shall, not less than seven days before such election, file with the recorder of said city a certificate of nomination made by some political or mass convention, or a nomination signed by not less than twenty-five legal voters of said city, together with the candidates' written acceptance of said nomination; and thereupon the recorder shall enter the name of all such candidates upon the ticket to be voted for at the next following election, and not otherwise; and the recorder shall cause a sufficient number of proper tickets to be printed and delivered to the election officers prior to the opening of the polls on the day of election; the expense of printing such tickets shall be paid by the city."

Section 6. That Section 62 of the charter of the City of Medford be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: "Section 62. The council shall hold their first meeting and organize on the first Tuesday in January following their election, and in case said first Tuesday in January be a holiday the council shall hold their first meeting and organize on the following day."

Section 7. That Section 64 of the charter of the City of Medford be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: "Section 64. The terms of all officers elected shall begin on the first Tuesday in January following their election, or as soon thereafter as they shall duly qualify; but if they fail to qualify within ten days from and after said day, then said officers shall be sworn in and the council shall at its first meeting thereafter fill said vacancy by appointment; and all vacancies occurring from any cause in any elective office shall be filled by the council by appointment of some qualified elector or the city to said vacancy, who shall hold said office until the next election, and until his successor is elected and qualified. The terms of all officers of the City of Medford shall be, and are hereby extended and continued until the first Tuesday in January, 1919, and until such successors shall duly qualify. The term of office of all officers of said city whose term would by the charter of said city continue beyond the first Tuesday in January, 1919 are hereby so limited that they shall expire on said day, or as soon thereafter as their successors shall qualify, and there shall be elected at said biennial election in the year 1918, and at each biennial election thereafter, officers to fill all elective offices of said city."

Section 8. That the charter of the City of Medford be, and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 64-A, to read as follows: "Section 64-A. Special elections may be called by the city council at any time by ordinance or resolution, and in such ordinance or resolution the council shall provide the time and place for holding such election, the manner of giving notice thereof, the hours during which the polls shall be open, and shall appoint three judges of election for each ward, two of whom shall act as clerks, and whose compensation shall be fixed by the council. Special elections shall be conducted as far as practicable according to the laws of the State of Oregon."

Section 9. That Sections 57 and 58 of the charter of the City of Medford be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Section 56. All persons to be voted for at any city election shall, not less than seven days before such election, file with the recorder of said city a certificate of nomination made by some political or mass convention, or a nomination signed by not less than twenty-five legal voters of said city, together with the candidates' written acceptance of said nomination; and thereupon the recorder shall enter the name of all such candidates upon the ticket to be voted for at the next following election, and not otherwise; and the recorder shall cause a sufficient number of proper tickets to be printed and delivered to the election officers prior to the opening of the polls on the day of election; the expense of printing such tickets shall be paid by the city."

Section 62. The council shall hold their first meeting and organize on the first Tuesday in January following their election, and in case said first Tuesday in January be a holiday the council shall hold their first meeting and organize on the following day."

Section 64. The terms of all officers elected shall begin on the first Tuesday in January following their election, or as soon thereafter as they shall duly qualify; but if they fail to qualify within ten days from and after said day, then said officers shall be sworn in and the council shall at its first meeting thereafter fill said vacancy by appointment; and all vacancies occurring from any cause in any elective office shall be filled by the council by appointment of some qualified elector or the city to said vacancy, who shall hold said office until the next election, and until his successor is elected and qualified. The terms of all officers of the City of Medford shall be, and are hereby extended and continued until the first Tuesday in January, 1919, and until such successors shall duly qualify.

Section 64-A. Special elections may be called by the city council at any time by ordinance or resolution, and in such ordinance or resolution the council shall provide the time and place for holding such election, the manner of giving notice thereof, the hours during which the polls shall be open, and shall appoint three judges of election for each ward, two of whom shall act as clerks, and whose compensation shall be fixed by the council. Special elections shall be conducted as far as practicable according to the laws of the State of Oregon."

Section 9. That Sections 57 and 58 of the charter of the City of Medford be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Section 11. The ballot title for such measure, provided and returned to the city recorder by the city attorney is hereby adopted as follows: "The following is the form in which the foregoing measure will appear on the ballot: Special City Election, Tuesday, October 15, 1918.

Charter amendments submitted to the voters by the City Council by Ordinance No. 952.

Mark E. Cross (X) by the number and answer voters for.

BALLOT TITLE. An act relating to elections in the City of Medford and amending the charter of said City by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 64-A, and amending Sections 14, 17, 53, 54, 56, 62 and 64 of said charter and repealing Sections 57 and 58 of said charter.

WHEREAS, The voters of the State of Oregon, at an election duly held in this State on the 4th day of June, 1917, adopted Section 14-a of Article II of the constitution as a part of the constitution of said State, and the same is now in full force and effect, and

WHEREAS, It is necessary that the charter of the City of Medford be amended to conform to Section 14-a of Article II of the said constitution of Oregon,

NOW, THEREFORE, The people of Medford do ordain as follows: Section 1. That Section 14 of the charter of the City of Medford be, and the same hereby is amended to read as follows: "Section 14. The Mayor shall be the executive officer of the city and shall supervise its affairs and all its officers and employees, but not the council. He shall be the presiding officer of the city council, but shall not vote upon any question, except in case of a tie, and then he shall cast the deciding vote. He shall have power to call special meetings of the council whenever he deems it necessary. At the last regular meeting of the council before the biennial election he shall make a written statement of the condition of all the affairs of the city, and recommend such measures for the governmental and improvement thereof as he may deem expedient. He shall at the first regular meeting of the council in January, following the biennial election, appoint three members of the council on each of the following committees, to-wit: (1) Finance; (2) Streets, sewers and drains; (3) water and light; (4) health, which shall consist of the mayor and two councilmen, which committee shall be standing committees for his term, and shall have general supervision over the different subjects pertaining to their Judge, T. W. Miles, who shall also act as clerk.

Judge John L. Demmer, who shall also act as clerk.

Section VI. The recorder of the City of Medford, Oregon is hereby directed to give notice of said election in the manner provided by the charter of said City.

Passed by the city council this 17th day of September, 1918 and signed by me in open session in authentication of its passage this 17th day of September, 1918.

(Signed) C. E. GATES, Mayor.

Approved by me this 17th day of September, 1918.

(Signed) C. E. GATES, Mayor.

(SEAL) Attest: (Signed) M. L. AUFORD, City Recorder.
