ASHLAND AND VICINITY
The local district of the fourth Liberty loan executive committee, having arranged a campaign for raising of its quota thru the voluntary subscription registration method, active work in this direction was begun on Monday morning and will be continued until Friday night, with the hope and expectation that announcement can be promptly made at the formal opening of the campaign on Saturday morning, Sept. 28, of Ashland's full quota being pledged. Six subscription registration booths have been provided at convenient points, and all citizens are requested to go to these booths as early in the week as possible and have their pledges entered, in order that they may receive the authorized "I am pledged" tag and button of the fourth loan series, which they are requested to wear until the final official announcement of the raising of Ashland's quota has been proclaimed. The Liberty loan special passed thru here Sunday on the way to Klamath Falls, and upon its appearance here Monday morning, a campaign for bond pledges was made on the spot, booths being installed in the exhibit building, with G. W. Curry, W. A. Turner, C. W. Banta and F. E. Watson in charge.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Ed Babotham of Derby, was a business leader Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Hoeller and daughter Miss Sadie, of here, were doing business with merchants Saturday afternoon. Miss Gertrude Engle, formerly principal of the Junior high school, leaves for Berkeley early this week for the purpose of taking a course of advanced study in the University of California. For years Miss Engle has been one of the leading and most active teachers in the city schools, filling various responsible positions with tact and credit, and the wish is father to the thought that her career in the channels of higher education may be one of such unqualified success as her progressive ideas and talents merit.

Current information reports that, upon representations from Congressman Hawley that the Willamette chautauqua association is an educational institution, a ruling of the treasury department exempted it from income tax. By way of contrast, the Ashland chautauqua, which most assuredly fills the role of an educational institution, paid a federal tax on its 1918 assembly receipts of $243 notwithstanding that representations were made of its status along educational lines.

On Saturday evening last at 8:30, the wives of members of the school board were hostesses to the teachers of the city schools, including the entire corps and also the wives of such teachers as are benefactors. Of course the personnel of the school board was represented at the gathering by virtue of their exalted positions ex-officio. Nearly fifty participated in the dining event which took place at the high school building, and was a charming affair, affording the means of mutual acquaintance and good fellowship, in addition to enlarging the scope of public educational influences and social privileges for the benefit of all concerned. Of the school board officials G. G. Eubanks is chairman.

the other members being T. H. Simpson, Fred S. Enzle, Dr. G. W. Gregg, and G. C. McAllister. Jim Vee, of the Plaza barber shop, was in Dunsmuir last week on a business matter which may lead to a change in his present vocation.

Miss Irma Phillips, whose home is in Oakland, and who visited friends in this city recently in the family of H. P. Holmes, is teaching school in the vicinity of Corvallis. During the vacation season Miss Phillips attended the summer school of the University of California, at Berkeley. At the expiration of her present school work she plans to attend the Oregon normal at Monmouth.

Harley Brower, in the railroad service as fireman, with headquarters on the Portland division at Roseburg has lately been placed in the government rating in second class D by the district board representing federal control of the Southern Pacific. Harley is son of Dr. and Mrs. Brower.

More rain in the form of brisk showers started in on Saturday afternoon, and within the past week the growth of both war and civil gardens in the autumn classification has been phenomenal.

Miss Eunice Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Smith, is filling the position of principal of the school at Lakeside, Lake county, the fall term of which began Sept. 16.

Local parties who have visited the various army cantonments in all of which appointments and accommodations are on a colossal scale, quote Camp Funston, Kansas, as having a banter shop equipped with forty chairs, a pool hall containing 200 tables, and the largest laundry in the world. It would be interesting also to vary the extent of commissary supplies as daily requisitioned for its 50,000 soldier inhabitants. The government keeps exhaustive and detailed financial records, from which it is deduced that the average expense of one individual soldier in the ranks is $90 per annum.

Greene Lane is now employed by the inland Vulcanizing works, corner of North Main and Granite streets.

Henbrook whiskey is not the basest of all mischief either in this or other localities. Several young men in local neighborhoods have been evading the recent draft registration requirements, and it's only a question of time when they will be called upon to produce the required card in the eye of credentials. From this there is no escape, and the sooner they make amends for this delinquency the better, the penalty for deliberate neglect being a severe one.

Quinnaires are beginning to put on appearance here, as issued from county draft board headquarters, in papers are formidable ones of 15 pages, and embrace a scope of catching which covers the whole range of individual history, including data as to vital statistics and family relationships.

Mr. Soder's cigar store is closed and with this relinquishment of business by the proprietor has gone to the way of mine development.

The P. & E. had a car of concrete culverts on the route to be used between here and Butte Falls.

Miss Olga Heberstadt was a passenger from here to Butte Falls.

Word came over the phone to Dr. Holt that Wm. Chambers Jr., of Butte Falls, had his leg broken and for him to come right away. It appears that Mr. Chambers was working at a log getting it into the mill pond when a large boulder came down the steep hillside above and came rushing down and just then someone yelled "Look out, Bill!" and just as he tried to climb onto the log the rock caught his leg just above the foot breaking the small bone and the kneecap on the larger bone but the next morning he was going around on his crutches. And a day or so afterward Mr. Lomas Doome who was also working for the same company, the Butte Falls Lumber company, got caught among the same logs and I understand had three of his ribs broken.

Mrs. Ed Murphy of Wellen was trading with our merchants the first of the week.

W. E. Hammel made a hurried trip thru our town Tuesday.

he also he is enabled to keep a nice herd of fine dairy cows that are bringing him a handsome return for his labor and investment. While I was there he renewed his subscription to the Medford Mail Tribune and Medford Sun combined.

I also visited the fine farm of Mrs. Susan Hart and found that she had just recovered from a severe spell of sickness but she renewed her subscription to the Mail Tribune and in addition to the two subscribers just mentioned Alex Vestal has given me his subscription to the Mail Tribune. D. S. Nichols has paid up a small balance and ordered his Daily Mail Tribune stopped for the time being as he and his family have gone to visit their son Artie in Siskiyou county, Cal. Lucy Conover also renewed her subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune and L. L. Brennan, the foreman of the J. H. Cooley orchard gave me his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune. Miss Ruth Grover renewed her subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune and had it changed to 596 Beatty street, Medford.

W. A. Higgenbotham on the Prospect route was here on his way up to Wagner creek to bring out some cows and calves he had purchased, and to buy more and while here had his Weekly Mail Tribune stopped and took the Daily Mail Tribune in its place. And R. G. Brown, one of the firm of Geo. Brown and sons paid up a subscription to the Medford Sun to go with his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune. Thus the readers will see that the people are waking up to the fact that in order to keep posted as to what is going on in this busy world they must have a real live newspaper to read.

The nice shower of rain that we had the last of last week made it look as though we would not have the usual number of guests here on Sunday but we had quite a number and among them were B. E. Haney and wife, M. A. Smith and Mr. Haney's niece, Miss Margaret Haney of Medford, Nick Young, one of our bachelor friends who owns and operates a fine farm just below town, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Barnum, Miss Marian Barnum, Miss Mildred Heine and W. B. Barnum of Medford.

Mrs. John Perl, Frank Perl, Frederick Perl, Robert Rollins, Howard Gault, Willis Stockman and Jimmie Webb also were here. Mrs. Perl came out in her car to bring the above named six boys for an outing and while they were here they took advantage of the warm season and indulged in an old fashioned swimming treat and after taking their bath they strolled over the hill and took in all of the sights to be seen. They surely did enjoy themselves and after satisfying their ravenous appetites at the Sunnyside started for their homes in Medford feeling that they had not spent the afternoon in vain.

Among other callers were J. P. Hart and Mr. and Mrs. Speck of Medford, W. A. Higgenbotham and Nick Young.

A MEDFORD MAN'S EXPERIENCE

Can you doubt the evidence of this Medford citizen? You can verify Medford endorsement.

Read this: Edwin J. White, former dairyman at 322 East Main street, says: "I was nearly laid up with an attack of lumbago. It came on without any warning and I thought my back was broken. I couldn't straighten up and went about all bent over. A friend advised me to take Doan's Kidney Pills, which I did, and soon I was able to get about. It required only one box to fix me up in fine shape and since then I have never had any trouble with my back and kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. White had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
