

PRINCE PUNISHED FOR MARRIAGE WITH COMMONER

AMSTERDAM, Tuesday, Sept. 24.—Crown Prince Charles of Rumania has been punished by his father, as commander in chief of the army, with close confinement for 75 days for "transgression of military regulations," according to an official telegram from Jussy by way of Berlin.

The validity of the actions which led to his arrest will be investigated and such measures as are required by the interest of the country and the dynasty will be taken, the dispatch adds.

LONDON, Tuesday, Sept. 24.—Reports have been received here of the arrest of Crown Prince Charles of Rumania. It is believed here that the crown prince is being disciplined because, according to a report, he went to Odessa about September 15, and without the sanction of the king, married Miss Zylis Lambino, a Rumanian who has no claims of royal blood.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The management of the Red Cross canteen service, representing the Ashland unit of the Jackson county organization, writes to cordially thank the people of Medford, Phoenix and Talent for the generous manner in which they have responded to the request for fruits for the soldier boys who are daily passing thru this division terminal. Many baskets of peaches, plums and pears have gladdened the hearts of hundreds of travel-weary soldier lads during the past few days.

Win Whillips, for awhile on furlough here with the home folks, hopes of an assignment soon in active service. He was one of the original boys who went to Fort Stevens and is now at Camp Lewis as "top center" in a machine gun squad. There are rumors that something may be doing in his behalf along the lines of November.

E. Davidson is a newcomer who has lately occupied the premises at 128 Nob Hill with his family. He is a shipwright by occupation, has traveled extensively in seeking an ideal locality on account of health considerations, consequently comes to southern Oregon.

The naval recruiting office is rather quiet these bond registration days, but the good old battleship Pennsylvania, in replica, is still anchored in the offing of the enlistment headquarters, the headquarters of Master Russell Frost, 11 years old.

Mrs. Mary Woods, residing on Laurel street, is receiving a visit from her daughter, Mrs. Beattie Woods Hurke, of Alameda, Cal., who is accompanied by her young son, W. A. Turner returned home from the postoffice force, returned home early in the week from a three weeks visit at Klamath Falls and vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Straug of Medford, also Olivia Peterson and Amelia Christoffersen of San Rafael, were among other visitors at the meeting of the Eastern Star chapter on Monday evening. The particular guest of honor was Mrs. Mabel Settlemier, grand worthy matron of the order, who is visiting the several chapters in Jackson county. At these visitations routine work is combined with social routine features in just the right proportion to make the event a notably pleasant one. Medford, Jacksonville and Central Point will also be visited by Mrs. Settlemier this week.

The Yellow Demon car, now headed this way on a tour boasting the Liberty bond sales, fourth series, will be met on Thursday, in the vicinity of Kingsbury Springs, by a line of local autos which will escort the visiting machine into town from Klamath Falls. Music and speeches will be the order of the afternoon and evening here, the Demon itself will proceed to Medford, after a scheduled stop here, to whom up things in that locality. The auto escort will be an imposing one, and many cars are needed to augment the motor procession. The publicity committee of the bond sales movement will call upon car owners to fall in line, and let there be a hearty response. In the meantime Homer Elhart, chairman of the committee, will furnish details as to plan and scope of the big demonstration. See him early.

The Wednesday afternoon club held its initial meeting of the fall and winter series on Sept. 25. Tho the gatherings are of an eminently social nature, industrial activities are not overlooked, and a schedule of work in behalf of the war's demands has been systematically arranged for the autumn and winter period.

Mrs. Janet Williamson, wife of H. W. Williamson, died on Monday, at the family home on church street, aged 83 years. The deceased was a native of the Shetland Isles, off the coast of Scotland, and had been a resident of this vicinity for nearly ten years. Besides her husband she leaves several children, one of whom is the wife of William Lindsay. Funeral services will be held on Thursday, presumably at the Presbyterian church of which she was a devout member.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. McClure of Bend, are visiting Mrs. McClure's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Holmes. Sam McNair, of McNair Bros. well known pharmacy, leaves within a few days for a month's vacation at Kansas City, whither his wife went sometime since.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Engle, after an extended visit with relatives in the family of A. L. Irwin, leave this week for their home at Soquel, Cal.

District Superintendent Van Fossen and Rev. C. A. Edwards, local pastor, have gone to Portland to attend the Oregon Methodist conference. At a recent meeting of the local official board that body, in response to a general desire, set the wheels in motion for the return of Mr. Edwards to this locality, a movement which will be "carried by an overwhelming majority. His "recall" will be on the grounds of merit, and the financial recompense will be in the neighborhood of $1600 for the forthcoming year, with a comfortable paragonage found.

The first arrest in this vicinity for sedition talk was in the case of Charles Klein, of Swiss-German antecedents, who claims to be naturalized. County authorities are investigating phases of this case preliminarily to referring the matter to federal jurisdiction officials.

In addition to six "polling places" to accommodate Liberty loan purchasers, three others have been designated in the depot section to facilitate the registration of railroad employees investors.

John A. McCall, deputy postmaster at Klamath Falls, is passing a portion of his vacation visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Win Whillips, for awhile on furlough here with the home folks, hopes of an assignment soon in active service. He was one of the original boys who went to Fort Stevens and is now at Camp Lewis as "top center" in a machine gun squad. There are rumors that something may be doing in his behalf along the lines of November.

E. Davidson is a newcomer who has lately occupied the premises at 128 Nob Hill with his family. He is a shipwright by occupation, has traveled extensively in seeking an ideal locality on account of health considerations, consequently comes to southern Oregon.

The naval recruiting office is rather quiet these bond registration days, but the good old battleship Pennsylvania, in replica, is still anchored in the offing of the enlistment headquarters, the headquarters of Master Russell Frost, 11 years old.

Mrs. Mary Woods, residing on Laurel street, is receiving a visit from her daughter, Mrs. Beattie Woods Hurke, of Alameda, Cal., who is accompanied by her young son, W. A. Turner returned home from lowa just in time to serve as one of the clerks of registration in connection with Liberty bond sales as recalled at the booth in the postoffice precinct.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Robison have returned from San Francisco, firm in the conviction that Ashland beats the bigger cities as a place for permanent residence.

Invitations to attend a chicken supper, given under Red Cross auspices at Phoenix, Wednesday evening this week, are current here. The dining hall will be held in the Woodman hall.

Myra Gunter and Edith Moody are two more of Ashland teachers who have gone to San Jose, Cal., to enter the course of normal school training.

JACKSONVILLE

Mrs. Max Vogt and children left for their home at The Dalles last week after spending the summer months with relatives living here.

Miss Mildred Thompson arrived from Portland Sunday and is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Numan.

Miss Lucile Prim left for Portland last week for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. A. I. Eckelson prior to her return to Tucson, Ariz.

Miss Anne McCormick met with a few Jacksonville ladies at the home of Mrs. G. W. Ager last Monday to arrange for her work here this winter.

Mrs. Kate Cople has been visiting relatives on Applegate.

Miss Mary Bashaw has returned from an extended trip to Hoquiam and other Washington cities.

Miss Louise Jones has resigned her position as chief operator in the telephone office, with which company she has been connected for the past 12 years, and expects to leave for San Francisco.

The Salvation Army drive was conducted here last Wednesday by Lewis Ulrich and the following assistants: Mesdames Lay, Abbott and Gardner, and Misses Britt, Linn and Alice Hoel. The quota was oversubscribed.

The Jacksonville canning team was successful at the district fair held in Medford last week and left for Salem Tuesday morning to attend the state fair. The team was composed of Misses Ruth Ager, Bernice Roter and Ruth Flemming, with Mrs. Oscar Lewis as instructor.

Mrs. M. H. Rountree accompanied by Miss Alta Walsh arrived here from Pacific Beach, Wash., last Thursday.

A number of Jacksonville people went to Medford Monday morning to view the war trophies. Verne Whipp, a former Jacksonville boy, was with the train.

Charles Abbott and Valentine Singler have applied for admission into the O. A. C. student training camp.

School opened last Monday with the following corps of teachers: G. W. Godward, principal; Mr. and Mrs. Terrill, Mrs. Daisy Lewis and Miss Maud Raphael.

Mr. and Mrs. Blain Klum and daughter of Medford, spent Sunday with Jacksonville friends.

EDEN PRECINCT

Mr. and Mrs. William Adison of Independence, Ore., were in the valley last Thursday visiting old friends.

Phoenix will give a chicken dinner Wednesday evening September 25. Everybody is asked to come and bring their family and friends. There will be an abundance of good things to eat, also ice cream. Supper begins at 6 p. m. Price 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Don't forget the chicken supper by the Red Cross ladies at Phoenix Wednesday evening.

Never before has there been such ideal weather for the production of the mushroom and many of the valley people are enjoying this delicacy to the fullest extent. C. Carey is fortunate enough to have a natural bed of unusually large ones, and has been treating some of his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson of North Eden were Medford shoppers on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Firestone of Talent were trading in Medford Saturday.

Miss Meda Doley, a Phoenix last week for Stockton and San Francisco, Calif., where she expects to spend the winter.

Several Phoenix people have returned from their fall hunting trip with varied success, among whom are Fred Furry, Mr. Lockwood, W. S. Stancliff, Lloyd and Louie Colver.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Stephen of North Talent have gone to the Rogue River hatchery for a week's outing, fishing and hunting.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Owen Cottler, September 16, at the home of Mrs. Cottler's sister, Mrs. S. Stephens, in North Talent, a fine boy.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Champlin were Grants Pass visitors on Friday.

W. H. Striker came down from Glendale the latter part of the week, to see about getting his wheat threshed and also that of his brother-in-law, Mr. Brashere, near Rogue river.

Messrs. Boyd and Wright of Rock Point and Davidson of Gold Hill are spending a few days in the hills hunting. They expect to return about the middle of the week. We have not heard how great their expectations for game are.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dickey left Sunday for Minneapolis, after a year's stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Alden.

Miss Juanita Matthews and Mrs. R. W. Engle visited the dentist at Grants Pass on Wednesday.

Miss Eva Osborne, teacher in district No. 32, made a week end visit at her home in Medford.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Jones have received word that they will be back about October 1. After five months sojourn at Stone Canon, Calif., they say they will be very glad indeed to be back in Southern Oregon.

Nearly all the men on Riverside are being employed in some capacity on the irrigation canal now under construction. B. W. Hittle is having hay from Birdseye creek to the mile camp near Gold Hill. Arthur Pratt is working at the intake. I. H. Porter is on the surveying job and G. W. Jacobs and R. W. Engel are clearing the right of way from Rock Point to Miller's Gulch.

All regretted to see Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Porter and family remove from our midst. They will locate on a ranch near Medford.

Interested to be a very instructive and interesting program for the coming year. These are now in the hands of the printers and will be ready for distribution soon.

CHEERFUL WORDS

For Many a Medford Household. To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove helpful to hundreds of Medford readers.

Mrs. Ida Kenworthy, 508 South Grape street, Medford, says: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills when I have noticed my kidneys haven't been acting as they should and they have never failed to do me good. I also give Doan's Kidney Pills to one of my grandchildren who is often bothered with weak kidneys and they are very beneficial."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Kenworthy had. Foster-McBurm Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
