ENTERTAINED GIRL IN HOME WHILE WIFE WAS AWAY

Roy Sales, automobile salesman, until recently in the employ of the A. W. Walker company, is having his preliminary hearing this afternoon on two serious charges before Judge Taylor. One is a statutory charge, and the other is that of contributing to the delinquency of a child. Both charges were preferred by his wife. A third charge may yet be preferred against Sales.

It appears that Mrs. Sales, who had been visiting for a month or more at Eugene returned to the Sales home on Pennsylvania street unexpectedly Friday afternoon and was astounded to find strange feminine apparel. She at once called Chief of Police Timothy to the house and later they went before County Prosecutor Roberts where affidavits of arrest on the two charges were sworn out by Mrs. Sales.

The two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Sales, aged 15 and 12 years, informed their mother, Chief Timothy and Prosecutor Roberts that every Saturday since their mother was gone their father entertained a women in the house until Monday. The woman in the case is from Jacksonville.

It is claimed that the boys further related that their father and the woman drank gin and had them drink it too, putting it into lemonade for them to make it more palatable. The older boy said he liked his, but the younger brother said he didn't like it.

Following his arrest yesterday and arraignment before Judge Taylor, Sales was held in $500 bail in each charge until this afternoon's hearing.

Coughed Fifteen Years

Coughs that hang on and grow worse in the night and weaken the sufferer are relieved by Foley's Honey and Tar oftener than by any other remedy. R. F. Hall, Mabe, Va., writes: "For 15 years I was afflicted with a troublesome bronchial cough and irritation of the throat. Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me; after taking one bottle the cough ceased and has not returned." No medicine stands higher as a family remedy for colds for children and grown-ups. The good old county of Jackson is waking up in the liberty bond campaign but the Medford district is still very drowsy and lagging far behind the other districts. There are signs tho that Medford will very soon be wide awake and climbing fast to the top.

Every district in the county is over the top or close to the top but Medford, the majority reaching the goal today. But Medford made a clean jump of $30,000 by early Saturday afternoon, bringing the district's total so far during the campaign to $130,000. The quota for the district is $298,158.

The many solicitors of the district early today began working hard to line up the slow and indifferent citizens. Men were put on the streets to stop every rural visitor and stranger in the city and importune him to take subscriptions.

The Liberty loan committee announces that it has just completed a new card index of every citizen of Medford, men and women, with their addresses, and that every individual who does not come forward voluntarily and subscribe will be called upon and urged to do his or her duty.

Splendid work in furtherance of the Liberty loan was done at the high school yesterday afternoon. During the assembly hour Gus Newbury made an effective liberty loan address to the students and teachers following which twenty of the students signed up for subscriptions. Later in the afternoon A. E. Reames and W. F. Isaacs went to the high school building as solicitors and came away with subscriptions from all but two or three of the teachers, these few exceptions desiring a little more time in which to make up their minds as to the amount they would subscribe for.

DRAFTED MEN TO HEAR INSTRUCTIONS AT NAT TONIGHT

The Natatorium will be the mecca tonight for the Jackson county men of all classes subject to the draft, the meeting having been ordered by the war department for the men to receive instructions from Captain R. H. Russell of Camp Lewis, and also hear representatives from the Red Cross, the Army Y. M. C. A. and the Oregon Social Hygiene society. The meeting begins promptly at 8 o'clock.

A very large audience is expected, as 2312 men alone registered on Sept. 12. All patriotic male citizens are urged to attend; learn to co-operate intelligently with the war department and help put millions in France ahead of schedule. By so doing they can save the government thousands in money and weeks in time.

LEWIS HEARING HELD ON TUESDAY

The preliminary hearing of William Lewis, the well known sheepman of the Central Point district, who was arrested Friday by Deputy United States Marshal Tichenor of Portland on the charge of violating the espionage act, will be held next Tuesday before United States Commissioner F. Roy Davis at 9:30 a. m. In the meantime Mr. Lewis is at liberty on his own recognizance.

The accused is charged with making seditious utterances against the government, and the case is regarded as of such importance that United States District Attorney Haney will come here from Portland to personally conduct the government's side of the case.
