

FERDINAND PARDONS FRIENDS OF ALLIES

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 30.—King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, at the suggestion of the cabinet, has issued an ukase pardoning M. Stambuliski, leader of the Bulgarian Agrarian party and former Minister Ghenecheff, leader of the Stamboulist party, says a dispatch from Sofia. All British political friends who were sent to prison with their leaders when Bulgaria entered the war, also have been pardoned.

In October, 1915, M. Stambuliski was sentenced to imprisonment for life after conviction on a charge of anti-militarism.

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

J. C. Eubanks, brother of George, and who used to live here, as a member of the board of directors of the Pacific Coast Commercial Travelers association, which issues a breezy publication devoted to the interests of that organization. "Cal" is a wholesale hatter in San Francisco, but resides over in Alameda, outside the sphere of influence of quake disturbances.

David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford university, passed thru here Saturday evening, northbound on a special mission of importance. The noted educator has gotten over his leanings towards pacifism, notwithstanding one of his earlier works, in addition to the books of several other authors, is still taboo among the circulating literature at army cantonments. He has a son in the service, and in an interview with Ed Farlow at the depot was outspoken in advocating protection of the war to the uttermost.

A. S. Payne has recently bossed a construction job for the Barron brothers, the building being a big barn, 58x60 feet, located on Barron hay and grating lands in the lower section of High Prairie, about 25 miles east of town. The structure will store over 100 tons of hay—bales housing a lot of stock and miscellaneous equipment. Payne is one of the pioneer builders and contractors of this section, and contemplates going to San Francisco to work in the shipyards, his family already being residents of that vicinity.

Geo. P. Damon, who lately seriously injured his right hand in a planing mill accident, is recovering in good shape. "To Hell with the Kaiser," as a legend on the war campaign button, is all right on observation confirms the belief that a majority of those who display the emblem consigning the German emperor to "Hell," have but little conception of what constitutes perdition, and take no stock whatever in "Hell."

Marion Young came over from Warner valley in western Oregon, making the trip on a school. Mr. Young will leave soon for the Soldiers' Home at Sisseton, Calif., where he usually spends the winter. Joe Kirby left for Bray Sunday. Charlie Hinchman left Wednesday with his family for Sacramento; Mr. Hinchman will seek employment in that city. The trip was made in his bus. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hinchman and daughter Catherine, left Thursday for Klamath Falls with a load of Puget Sound navy yard, where he will be employed as master shipfitter. Miss Nellie Beaver was a home visitor over Sunday, accompanied by her friend, Miss Evelyn Reigelman, a co-worker in the schools at Gold Hill.

The good-natured, rollicking Bud Shamrock, a frequent visitor here in former days, jack of all trades and semi-professional boxer who staged several lively bouts in Ashland antedating the post-bellum period, was recognized among the jovial soldier boys who marched up town on Saturday, the bunch being on their way from Camp Lewis to California.

The Eastern Star chapter meets Tuesday evening, Oct. 1. In addition to assistance rendered the needy in Europe, a local merchant evidently believes that "charity begins at home," inasmuch as there still appears over the entrance to his place of business on the plaza the following legend conspicuously displayed: "Free to any orphan boy in Jackson county, without means of support, a suit of clothes, including coat, vest and pants. Application must be presented by responsible party or thru aid society."

The families of D. C. and E. J. Kay of Gandon were lately registered at the Ashland hotel, incident to an extended tour which they were making through southern Oregon. The public schools will be closed on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, due to the teachers institute which is in session at Medford on those dates.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mathes are home from summer vacation at the Lindsay ranch. Denton & Humphreys, proprietors of the Ashland mills, have announced a dissolution of partnership.

Mrs. Silva Brown, teacher of Klamath Falls, has been appointed executrix of the estate of her father, the late Freeman A. Brown, formerly residing on Granite street.

Miss Harriet Trask succeeds Miss Glendora Roberts as bookkeeper at the Ashland creamery, the latter having accepted a position in Portland. A host of friends, irrespective of denominational affiliations, will be pleased to learn that Rev. Charles A. Edwards, Methodist pastor, has been returned to the Ashland church by the Oregon conference. Rev. J. C. Rolling of Medford, has been transferred elsewhere.

Miss Ora Patrick, home from Honolulu, has been visiting here preliminary to accepting a school assignment at Palo Alto, Cal. Misses Carlene Sweet, Orelia Barnard and Helen Eske, teachers in suburban districts, are students in the University of California at Berkeley, and Miss Lillian Kaler, recently teaching at San Jose, Cal., is also attending that institution. Miss Ella Prettyman, another local teacher, is attending the San Jose normal.

A recent sheriff's sale confirmed Otto Michel's title to Wollen and Glenn street properties thru foreclosure proceedings, F. J. Berger being defendant in the case. Books, games, phonographs, musical instruments, etc., by the score made up a collection here recently as a result of a drive in behalf of the army cantonments. The active canvassing was systematically and successfully done by the young folks of the recreational contingent, who under the leadership of competent officers indulged in some good natured rivalry over the work, several units competing in the movement.

Miss Mary Mathes leaves for Eugene early this week to renew her studies at the state university, she having begun the regular course in the department of English a year since. Mr. and Mrs. George Scannell and daughter of Oakland, Cal., left for home Saturday, after a month's visit here with Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Provost. Mrs. Scannell and Mrs. Provost are sisters.

Miss Ernestine Hicks is stenographer and bookkeeper in a dual capacity, the forenoon being occupied at the Ashland Iron Works, and the afternoon at Billings realty office. O. E. Harst, local carpenter, employed in northern shipbuilding plants, is located temporarily at 4544 Eighth avenue, Northeast Seattle, Wash.

TALENT TALK

Mrs. Bodkins, the state missionary of the Methodist church, spoke at the M. E. church in Talent last Sunday. Mr. Robert Cole of Grants Pass spent Sunday and Monday a guest of his cousin, Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek. "To Hell with the Kaiser," as a legend on the war campaign button, is all right on observation confirms the belief that a majority of those who display the emblem consigning the German emperor to "Hell," have but little conception of what constitutes perdition, and take no stock whatever in "Hell."

The Outbursts of Everett True By CONDO

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS By A. C. Howlett

Wednesday Mr. Simon McCollistin of Lake creek, was here for dinner and while here renewed his father's subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune. And Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bradshaw, Mrs. C. C. Charley, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nichols were among the business callers.

Thursday was one of the quiet days in our little town, but Mr. and Mrs. John Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Hurst and C. W. Scott of the management mine were here for dinner. R. A. Wildeman, who has been living on a farm near Wella, has moved onto the T. E. Nichols farm joining Eagle Point, a part of the J. J. Fryer farm, and will cultivate it the coming season. Mrs. Wildeman is the business manager and assistant in the T. E. Nichols store.

I noticed on the street Thursday that Ted Flores, young son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Flores, was walking on crutches. On an inquiry we learned that he had a badly sprained ankle, but we hope that it will not prove to be as serious as was feared. Mr. and Mrs. M. Cornick who have charge of the place near Lake creek, were business callers in our town Thursday.

Friday Joe Rader and wife, of Phoenix, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell of Lake creek, and Miss Pina Bueddel, our primary teacher, were guests at the Sunnyside at noon. On Friday the remains of one of our highly respected citizens, George H. Wampler, were carried to the Central Point cemetery, and were followed by one of the largest crowds that has ever attended a funeral in Eagle Point. Mr. Wampler has been afflicted for a long time with a disease of the kidneys and on Saturday, the 21st inst., submitted to an operation, but owing to a weakness of the heart sank under the treatment on Tuesday. A notice has already appeared in the Mail Tribune. The funeral services were conducted at the home of the family, by Rev. A. C. Howlett. It was the intention to have the burial services conducted at the grave by the G. A. R. and the I. O. O. F. and Helms but owing to unavoidable contingencies neither of the societies were prepared to do more than show their high respect for his memory by casting an evergreen on the casket at the grave. He only son of Louis Branch, Calif., and his brother, Dr. Lafayette Wampler and his stepdaughter, Mrs. Jensen were in attendance at the funeral. Mr. Wampler has left a host of friends, not only in Eagle Point but throughout the entire community, whose
