

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

Beginning with Tuesday, Oct. 16, the Tidings of this city, now a semi-weekly, will be issued once a week. The high cost of materials is the alleged cause, the management being faced with the alternative of either raising prices of subscription, advertising and job work, or of publishing once a week instead of twice, the latter plan being decided upon on Tuesday. According to the management by adopting this change "will enable the majority owners, Messrs. Greer and Reynolds, to do all the work without employing additional labor in the mechanical department."

Troy Phipps, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Phipps, is a member of Provisional Co. F, attached to the Eighth division, located at Camp Fremont, Cal.

At a meeting of the parent-teacher association of the Bellevue district, to be held on Friday evening this week, Fred Homes will speak on the normal school question. Methodists will tender a reception to Rev. C. A. Edwards, at the church parlors, on Thursday evening, Oct. 10, on which occasion the genial pastor and family will be the recipients of a friendly greeting, all the more cordial due to a knowledge of the fact that Mr. Edwards has been returned to the local church for another period, to which announcement might be added the further statement that the past year under his ministrations has been the most successful one in the church's history. Pastor and people work in harmony, consequently the best results are attainable.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Beaver left for Klamath county on Tuesday to pass the winter with the family of their son-in-law Orville Glick.

Jack Patterson, government employe in the entomological bureau of the department of the interior, has moved into the Kirschbaum residence on Nob Hill heights.

A recapitulation of the status of the Ashland patriotic fund, which is to afford war chest appropriations for various major activities, places the total amount of pledges, most of which are paid monthly at city hall, at approximately $26,000. Amount paid up, Oct. 1, $8736, of which $4375 has been paid on the second quota of the Red Cross fund, and $3965 on sundry expense account, leaving a balance in the war chest of $4,315.35. Stated payments are due between the 15th and 20th of each month, and are very conveniently made payable at the recorder's office in the city hall.

W. J. Carpenter, orchardist who was located on Terrace street, and who at one time was a member of the local police force, has removed to California to reside permanently.

Saturday, Oct. 12, the 126th anniversary of the discovery of America, will be observed nationally as Liberty day, and municipalities are urged to follow suit in the observance.

Boys and girls about town are reminded in an official bulletin prominently displayed in the postoffice, that loafing is not permitted in the lobby of that building.

Fine grapes seem to be plentiful this season. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Davenport, of Twin Oaks ranch in the Valleyview district, have been remembering their city friends generously with mammoth clusters of several varieties of this luscious fruit from their own vineyards, which are cultivated under most approved methods.

Mrs. Pearl Hinton is moving her millinery stock to rooms in the Kinsman block right in the heart of the Sidersville business district on East Main street.

Mrs. Julia McQuilkin is the owner of a fine new Chevrolet car which bears the Oregon number of 62263. She is her own chauffeur, and successfully negotiates all the crooks and turns and heavy grades which prevail on the route between the Plaza and her home on Ashland street.

J. J. Murphy arrived home early in the week from a business trip to San Francisco.

Officers of the several military organizations, classified as state militia, home guards, etc., have been not only invited but semi-officially notified to attend a gathering in Portland and participate in a sort of training meet for the good of the service. The dates are from Oct. 17 to 21. Capt. Ed Thornton and Rev. D. D. Edwards head quite a list of those eligible to go from here.

Mrs. S. S. Davenport, mother of Mrs. Murray Murphy, left on Monday for her home in Lester, northwestern Iowa, after a visit of two months here with her son-in-law's family.

C. E. Ruckle, a former resident here whose home is now at Lone Beach, Cal., left for the south last Sunday, after a visit in Ashland which was extended up north as far as Umatilla county, where he passed the vacation in pitching hay and harvesting grain in that section.

Catherin, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hanson, whose home is on Pine street, celebrated her 15th birthday anniversary on Oct. 6. She is among the bright pupils of 8th A grade, Junior high school, and a favorite with instructors and scholars.

Miss Lucille Barber, employed by the Southern Pacific as operator and assistant in station work, is home from Cottonwood for a brief vacation pending a further assignment on the Shasta division.

Mrs. Geo. V. Gillette, residing on High street, was hostess to the Monday club, Oct. 7, which organization as its name implies meets early in the week. Guests included Messdames Hal McNair, Torbert Sanford, Jack Dunn, Clifford Jenkins, Amos Nininger, Homer Barron, Gyester and Paulsen. Mrs. Wilcox, of Dunsmuir, was a visitor. Chas. Hahn, plumber's helper in Ashland railroad yards, has been taken to the S. P. hospital at San Francisco. He has been a pneumonia sufferer. A local nurse accompanied him. Irwin Bateman, Southern Pacific engineer, recently scalded severely about the face, has gone to a city hospital for treatment. The Wednesday Afternoon club will entertain teachers of the public schools at the Presbyterian church parlors, on Thursday evening, Oct. 10, a reception to which the congregation of the church in general is invited, as well as those who are interested in meeting the teachers.

The Rippey family, occupying the Frank Jordan residence on High street, will soon vacate the premises, inasmuch as Mr. Rippey is employed by the Southern Pacific and will seek quarters nearer the railroad yards. The property on Seventh street owned by Mr. Pearl Whittemore, now a resident of Burbank, Cal., has been sold to J. L. Love, who will materially improve the residence. This sale was made by the Beaver Realty Co.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Our school closed during the first three days of the week and our teachers all attended the Teachers Institute. Among the business callers Wednesday was W. C. Daley, Mike Sidley Jr., F. J. Ayres, John Foster, Miss Hogan, the lady who is teaching school in the Crater Lake district. Mrs. Joseph Goppert and son. The last four took supper with us and Thursday night Mr. W. C. Daley of Lake Creek spent the night with us. Mrs. Dollie Graham spent Wednesday night at the Sunnyside and started Friday for Medford. Joe Moonaw, the mail contractor on the Eagle Point-Derby route was also a guest at the Sunnyside.

Gus Nichols and wife, Roy Stanley and wife were among the prominent business callers Thursday. John W. Smith, wife and daughter were here visiting old time friends. They up to within the past year or so have been residents of our town. They sold their property and have been spending the summer at Marshfield.

Mrs. A. E. Strang spent Thursday night at the Sunnyside.

J. V. McIntyre, our banker, has been taking his dinner at the Sunnyside for several days. Mrs. R. Gardner and Mrs. M. D. Bowles were business callers and while here each renewed their subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune. They took passage home on the Eagle Point-Lake Creek stage.

Thursday night W. C. Daley who had been over to Jacksonville on legal business came out on the Lewis Jitney, spent the night with us and took passage on the Eagle Point-Lake Creek stage for home. Emanuel Leldman and wife, his brother George W. Leldman and C. Putnam came out from Medford Thursday evening and took rooms with us. Messrs. Putnam and the two Leldmans have contracted to pack the apples on the Tronson orchard and went to work Friday morning.

Thomas Stauber, one of our prominent stockmen, and wife spent the night with Mrs. Stanley's mother. Mrs. M. E. Pruettt Thursday. They are moving onto their farm and stock ranch in the country northeast of Butte Falls.

There has been another change in mail service. It seemed as tho the P. & E. railway company had so much trouble getting the mail from Medford out here and from here to Medford on time on their cars that a change has been made and now S. H. Harnish, the veteran mail carrier, has taken the job of carrying it for three days out of the week, twice a day and three days one a day. Mr. Harnish will leave here on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 8:15 a. m. and return leaving Medford at 9 a. m. and in the afternoon will leave Eagle Point at 2:30 for Medford and return leaving Medford at 4:45 p. m., arriving at Eagle Point about 5:45. By that plan we will get our mail regularly on time and on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays the P. and E. Co. will bring the mail out in the morning and Mr. Harnish will leave here in the afternoon of train days the same as on the other days. As it has been we would often have to wait at the post office for from 30 minutes to two hours depending on how much of a breakdown they had on the P. & E. Mr. Harnish has had a great deal of experience in the mail carrying business and was always on time.

Miss Fina Bonadies, our primary teacher has moved from the home where she has been living—the Ritter house—into the Wamsley house. Mrs. Wamsley expects to start the first of the week for San Francisco with her daughter, Mrs. Stella Jughis and remain there until the first of the year and return to her home here and she and Miss Bonadies will live together at least until the close of the school year.

C. B. Holloway and family came in Saturday morning and among other things they brought in was a large basket and suit case filled with clothing to be sent to the suffering citizens of Belgium. They deserve a great deal of credit for the part they are taking in the Red Cross and other patriotic work for the suffering in Europe.

While I was in Medford Friday I met, among others, Mr. T. D. Sierston, and while we were together he gave me his check for four dollars and changed his subscription from the Weekly Mail Tribune to the Daily Mail Tribune. He had coming to him one dollar subscription on the Weekly and placed that on his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune, thus paying for a year's subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune. Mrs. Carl Johnson moved from the J. H. Jackson home to Butte Falls Saturday. Since my last report in addition to those already mentioned, Mrs. Lottie Van Sey and P. C. Larson have renewed their subscriptions to the Daily Mail Tribune and G. J. Ester of Brookings, has renewed his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune. W. W. Taylor who has been out in the Klamath country, returned to his home. Cookson, a safe man, J. V. McIntyre, Wilbur Jack and W. W. Conner the latter of Trail, were here for dinner. The fine rain that we had Saturday night is making the farmers and millers rejoice as by the first of the week the ground will likely be wet enough to plow.

and Mrs. Fred Dutton of Eagle Point visited with W. C. Chapman's family Sunday. Mr. Ira Vincent and his wife returned home this week on a visit to local folks.

Mr. J. E. Foss is improving nicely. Rev. Raymond of Doris was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will High over Sunday. Mr. Standard has been so critically ill at his home in Ashland that it was believed necessary for Mrs. Standard to request Prof. Baughman to allow a substitute for the primary department. Mr. Standard was improved so much Monday morning that it was safe for Mrs. Standard to be at her post, which we were very glad to know and hope that Mr. Standard will soon be well again. Rev. Van Fossen and Mrs. M. C. Reed were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerdike Sunday.

"German military brains," declares the Dutch Viewwe von den Dag, "are no longer superior to those of the allies."

There will be an auction sale at R. E. Wilson's Saturday, Oct. 19. Red Cross will serve dinner. Come all. W. T. Houston finished sorghum hulling for the season, Saturday. Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart were Medford visitors Monday.

Yvonne Huxton left last Sunday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C. Mrs. You was shopping in Ashland Thursday. Mrs. Vogell spent Friday in Ashland attending to business matters. The school was closed a part of last week, the teachers attending the institute which met in Medford. Mrs. H. B. Fryer, who has been spending the past six weeks as a guest at the home of her son, Harrison Fryer, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek, returned to her home in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Josh Patterson spent last week in Salem attending the State Fair and reported a fine display in all lines. A Red Cross hall will be given at the Old Cross hall Saturday, Oct. 12. On that evening the party winning the fine Jersey calf offered by Ed Robinson to the Red Cross will be made known. Remember the date, Saturday, October 12. Sunday, October 20, will be rally day at the Methodist Sunday school. All members are urgently requested to be present. Quarterly communion was celebrated at the Methodist church Sunday morning by district superintendent, Rev. Van Fossen, who outlined the work done by the conference to a very interesting congregation. Rev. Van Fossen was assisted by Rev. Raymond of Doris, who gave a most interesting talk on a portion of the Book of Esther. Services as usual next Sunday.

Mr. Standard has been so critically ill at his home in Ashland that it was believed necessary for Mrs. Standard to request Prof. Baughman to allow a substitute for the primary department. Mr. Standard was improved so much Monday morning that it was safe for Mrs. Standard to be at her post, which we were very glad to know and hope that Mr. Standard will soon be well again.

Rev. Van Fossen and Mrs. M. C. Reed were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerdike Sunday.

"German military brains," declares the Dutch Viewwe von den Dag, "are no longer superior to those of the allies."

There will be an auction sale at R. E. Wilson's Saturday, Oct. 19. Red Cross will serve dinner. Come all. W. T. Houston finished sorghum hulling for the season, Saturday. Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart were Medford visitors Monday.

Yvonne Huxton left last Sunday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C. Mrs. You was shopping in Ashland Thursday. Mrs. Vogell spent Friday in Ashland attending to business matters. The school was closed a part of last week, the teachers attending the institute which met in Medford. Mrs. H. B. Fryer, who has been spending the past six weeks as a guest at the home of her son, Harrison Fryer, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek, returned to her home in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Josh Patterson spent last week in Salem attending the State Fair and reported a fine display in all lines. A Red Cross hall will be given at the Old Cross hall Saturday, Oct. 12. On that evening the party winning the fine Jersey calf offered by Ed Robinson to the Red Cross will be made known. Remember the date, Saturday, October 12. Sunday, October 20, will be rally day at the Methodist Sunday school. All members are urgently requested to be present. Quarterly communion was celebrated at the Methodist church Sunday morning by district superintendent, Rev. Van Fossen, who outlined the work done by the conference to a very interesting congregation. Rev. Van Fossen was assisted by Rev. Raymond of Doris, who gave a most interesting talk on a portion of the Book of Esther. Services as usual next Sunday.

Mr. Standard has been so critically ill at his home in Ashland that it was believed necessary for Mrs. Standard to request Prof. Baughman to allow a substitute for the primary department. Mr. Standard was improved so much Monday morning that it was safe for Mrs. Standard to be at her post, which we were very glad to know and hope that Mr. Standard will soon be well again.

Rev. Van Fossen and Mrs. M. C. Reed were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerdike Sunday.

"German military brains," declares the Dutch Viewwe von den Dag, "are no longer superior to those of the allies."

There will be an auction sale at R. E. Wilson's Saturday, Oct. 19. Red Cross will serve dinner. Come all. W. T. Houston finished sorghum hulling for the season, Saturday. Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart were Medford visitors Monday.

Yvonne Huxton left last Sunday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C. Mrs. You was shopping in Ashland Thursday. Mrs. Vogell spent Friday in Ashland attending to business matters. The school was closed a part of last week, the teachers attending the institute which met in Medford. Mrs. H. B. Fryer, who has been spending the past six weeks as a guest at the home of her son, Harrison Fryer, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek, returned to her home in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Josh Patterson spent last week in Salem attending the State Fair and reported a fine display in all lines. A Red Cross hall will be given at the Old Cross hall Saturday, Oct. 12. On that evening the party winning the fine Jersey calf offered by Ed Robinson to the Red Cross will be made known. Remember the date, Saturday, October 12. Sunday, October 20, will be rally day at the Methodist Sunday school. All members are urgently requested to be present. Quarterly communion was celebrated at the Methodist church Sunday morning by district superintendent, Rev. Van Fossen, who outlined the work done by the conference to a very interesting congregation. Rev. Van Fossen was assisted by Rev. Raymond of Doris, who gave a most interesting talk on a portion of the Book of Esther. Services as usual next Sunday.

Mr. Standard has been so critically ill at his home in Ashland that it was believed necessary for Mrs. Standard to request Prof. Baughman to allow a substitute for the primary department. Mr. Standard was improved so much Monday morning that it was safe for Mrs. Standard to be at her post, which we were very glad to know and hope that Mr. Standard will soon be well again.

Rev. Van Fossen and Mrs. M. C. Reed were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerdike Sunday.

"German military brains," declares the Dutch Viewwe von den Dag, "are no longer superior to those of the allies."

There will be an auction sale at R. E. Wilson's Saturday, Oct. 19. Red Cross will serve dinner. Come all. W. T. Houston finished sorghum hulling for the season, Saturday. Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart were Medford visitors Monday.

Yvonne Huxton left last Sunday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C. Mrs. You was shopping in Ashland Thursday. Mrs. Vogell spent Friday in Ashland attending to business matters. The school was closed a part of last week, the teachers attending the institute which met in Medford. Mrs. H. B. Fryer, who has been spending the past six weeks as a guest at the home of her son, Harrison Fryer, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek, returned to her home in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Josh Patterson spent last week in Salem attending the State Fair and reported a fine display in all lines. A Red Cross hall will be given at the Old Cross hall Saturday, Oct. 12. On that evening the party winning the fine Jersey calf offered by Ed Robinson to the Red Cross will be made known. Remember the date, Saturday, October 12. Sunday, October 20, will be rally day at the Methodist Sunday school. All members are urgently requested to be present. Quarterly communion was celebrated at the Methodist church Sunday morning by district superintendent, Rev. Van Fossen, who outlined the work done by the conference to a very interesting congregation. Rev. Van Fossen was assisted by Rev. Raymond of Doris, who gave a most interesting talk on a portion of the Book of Esther. Services as usual next Sunday.

Mr. Standard has been so critically ill at his home in Ashland that it was believed necessary for Mrs. Standard to request Prof. Baughman to allow a substitute for the primary department. Mr. Standard was improved so much Monday morning that it was safe for Mrs. Standard to be at her post, which we were very glad to know and hope that Mr. Standard will soon be well again.

Rev. Van Fossen and Mrs. M. C. Reed were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerdike Sunday.

"German military brains," declares the Dutch Viewwe von den Dag, "are no longer superior to those of the allies."

There will be an auction sale at R. E. Wilson's Saturday, Oct. 19. Red Cross will serve dinner. Come all. W. T. Houston finished sorghum hulling for the season, Saturday. Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart were Medford visitors Monday.

Yvonne Huxton left last Sunday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C. Mrs. You was shopping in Ashland Thursday. Mrs. Vogell spent Friday in Ashland attending to business matters. The school was closed a part of last week, the teachers attending the institute which met in Medford. Mrs. H. B. Fryer, who has been spending the past six weeks as a guest at the home of her son, Harrison Fryer, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek, returned to her home in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Josh Patterson spent last week in Salem attending the State Fair and reported a fine display in all lines. A Red Cross hall will be given at the Old Cross hall Saturday, Oct. 12. On that evening the party winning the fine Jersey calf offered by Ed Robinson to the Red Cross will be made known. Remember the date, Saturday, October 12. Sunday, October 20, will be rally day at the Methodist Sunday school. All members are urgently requested to be present. Quarterly communion was celebrated at the Methodist church Sunday morning by district superintendent, Rev. Van Fossen, who outlined the work done by the conference to a very interesting congregation. Rev. Van Fossen was assisted by Rev. Raymond of Doris, who gave a most interesting talk on a portion of the Book of Esther. Services as usual next Sunday.

Mr. Standard has been so critically ill at his home in Ashland that it was believed necessary for Mrs. Standard to request Prof. Baughman to allow a substitute for the primary department. Mr. Standard was improved so much Monday morning that it was safe for Mrs. Standard to be at her post, which we were very glad to know and hope that Mr. Standard will soon be well again.

Rev. Van Fossen and Mrs. M. C. Reed were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerdike Sunday.

"German military brains," declares the Dutch Viewwe von den Dag, "are no longer superior to those of the allies."

There will be an auction sale at R. E. Wilson's Saturday, Oct. 19. Red Cross will serve dinner. Come all. W. T. Houston finished sorghum hulling for the season, Saturday. Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart were Medford visitors Monday.

Yvonne Huxton left last Sunday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C. Mrs. You was shopping in Ashland Thursday. Mrs. Vogell spent Friday in Ashland attending to business matters. The school was closed a part of last week, the teachers attending the institute which met in Medford. Mrs. H. B. Fryer, who has been spending the past six weeks as a guest at the home of her son, Harrison Fryer, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek, returned to her home in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Josh Patterson spent last week in Salem attending the State Fair and reported a fine display in all lines. A Red Cross hall will be given at the Old Cross hall Saturday, Oct. 12. On that evening the party winning the fine Jersey calf offered by Ed Robinson to the Red Cross will be made known. Remember the date, Saturday, October 12. Sunday, October 20, will be rally day at the Methodist Sunday school. All members are urgently requested to be present. Quarterly communion was celebrated at the Methodist church Sunday morning by district superintendent, Rev. Van Fossen, who outlined the work done by the conference to a very interesting congregation. Rev. Van Fossen was assisted by Rev. Raymond of Doris, who gave a most interesting talk on a portion of the Book of Esther. Services as usual next Sunday.

Mr. Standard has been so critically ill at his home in Ashland that it was believed necessary for Mrs. Standard to request Prof. Baughman to allow a substitute for the primary department. Mr. Standard was improved so much Monday morning that it was safe for Mrs. Standard to be at her post, which we were very glad to know and hope that Mr. Standard will soon be well again.

Rev. Van Fossen and Mrs. M. C. Reed were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerdike Sunday.

"German military brains," declares the Dutch Viewwe von den Dag, "are no longer superior to those of the allies."

There will be an auction sale at R. E. Wilson's Saturday, Oct. 19. Red Cross will serve dinner. Come all. W. T. Houston finished sorghum hulling for the season, Saturday. Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart were Medford visitors Monday.

Yvonne Huxton left last Sunday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C. Mrs. You was shopping in Ashland Thursday. Mrs. Vogell spent Friday in Ashland attending to business matters. The school was closed a part of last week, the teachers attending the institute which met in Medford. Mrs. H. B. Fryer, who has been spending the past six weeks as a guest at the home of her son, Harrison Fryer, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek, returned to her home in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Josh Patterson spent last week in Salem attending the State Fair and reported a fine display in all lines. A Red Cross hall will be given at the Old Cross hall Saturday, Oct. 12. On that evening the party winning the fine Jersey calf offered by Ed Robinson to the Red Cross will be made known. Remember the date, Saturday, October 12. Sunday, October 20, will be rally day at the Methodist Sunday school. All members are urgently requested to be present. Quarterly communion was celebrated at the Methodist church Sunday morning by district superintendent, Rev. Van Fossen, who outlined the work done by the conference to a very interesting congregation. Rev. Van Fossen was assisted by Rev. Raymond of Doris, who gave a most interesting talk on a portion of the Book of Esther. Services as usual next Sunday.

Mr. Standard has been so critically ill at his home in Ashland that it was believed necessary for Mrs. Standard to request Prof. Baughman to allow a substitute for the primary department. Mr. Standard was improved so much Monday morning that it was safe for Mrs. Standard to be at her post, which we were very glad to know and hope that Mr. Standard will soon be well again.

Rev. Van Fossen and Mrs. M. C. Reed were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerdike Sunday.

"German military brains," declares the Dutch Viewwe von den Dag, "are no longer superior to those of the allies."

There will be an auction sale at R. E. Wilson's Saturday, Oct. 19. Red Cross will serve dinner. Come all. W. T. Houston finished sorghum hulling for the season, Saturday. Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart were Medford visitors Monday.

Yvonne Huxton left last Sunday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C. Mrs. You was shopping in Ashland Thursday. Mrs. Vogell spent Friday in Ashland attending to business matters. The school was closed a part of last week, the teachers attending the institute which met in Medford. Mrs. H. B. Fryer, who has been spending the past six weeks as a guest at the home of her son, Harrison Fryer, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek, returned to her home in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Josh Patterson spent last week in Salem attending the State Fair and reported a fine display in all lines. A Red Cross hall will be given at the Old Cross hall Saturday, Oct. 12. On that evening the party winning the fine Jersey calf offered by Ed Robinson to the Red Cross will be made known. Remember the date, Saturday, October 12. Sunday, October 20, will be rally day at the Methodist Sunday school. All members are urgently requested to be present. Quarterly communion was celebrated at the Methodist church Sunday morning by district superintendent, Rev. Van Fossen, who outlined the work done by the conference to a very interesting congregation. Rev. Van Fossen was assisted by Rev. Raymond of Doris, who gave a most

TRAIL ITEMS

E. E. Ash and Fred Middlemayer are making supplies for winter from Medford.

B. W. Pease has resumed road work, near Dr. Kirshganser's.

Central school started Monday, the 7th, with Treas. Pines as teacher.

Mr. Carlton, Fred Sturris and I. H. Howe weighed beef cattle at Trail Monday and drove on to the valley Tuesday.

There will be an auction sale at R. E. Wilson's Saturday, Oct. 19. Red Cross will serve dinner. Come all.

W. T. Houston finished sorghum hulling for the season, Saturday.

Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart were Medford visitors Monday.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. George Steacy and daughter, Mrs. Morgan of Beagle motored to town Tuesday.

Mrs. Tollaro of Beagle was in town Tuesday.

W. C. Chapman went to the Brown Cabin range to drive down cattle this week.

Mr. John Bigham hauled a load of grain to market Friday.

Ruth and Irene Strathern returned to their home Friday from West, Cal.

Mr. Clayton Thresher is helping Mr. Bigham build his house and barn.

Rev. Centers and wife are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Vincent this week and looking to make over.

A new scholar, Mabel Sauer, has entered the Commercial school and boarding with Mrs. Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Thiesman moved this week from the Ben Terry ranch to Sams Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shoof of Roseburg were up this week on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abbott of Chapman.

Quite a serious accident happened in front of the Chapman ranch Sunday. A man and his son, did not learn their names) was out from Medford to get syrup at Jim Vincent's. The shafts of their heavy derrick and the horse ran away, threw the man out and broke his wrist.

Mrs. Percy Chapman spent Sunday with her folks at Beagle. Ed Dutton has his mother and Mr.

TALENT TALK

Yvonne Huxton left last Sunday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C.

Mrs. You was shopping in Ashland Thursday.

Mrs. Vogell spent Friday in Ashland attending to business matters.

The school was closed a part of last week, the teachers attending the institute which met in Medford.

Mrs. H. B. Fryer, who has been spending the past six weeks as a guest at the home of her son, Harrison Fryer, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek, returned to her home in Medford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Josh Patterson spent last week in Salem attending the State Fair and reported a fine display in all lines.

A Red Cross hall will be given at the Old Cross hall Saturday, Oct. 12. On that evening the party winning the fine Jersey calf offered by Ed Robinson to the Red Cross will be made known. Remember the date, Saturday, October 12.

Sunday, October 20, will be rally day at the Methodist Sunday school. All members are urgently requested to be present.

Quarterly communion was celebrated at the Methodist church Sunday morning by district superintendent, Rev. Van Fossen, who outlined the work done by the conference to a very interesting congregation. Rev. Van Fossen was assisted by Rev. Raymond of Doris, who gave a most interesting talk on a portion of the Book of Esther. Services as usual next Sunday.

Mr. Standard has been so critically ill at his home in Ashland that it was believed necessary for Mrs. Standard to request Prof. Baughman to allow a substitute for the primary department. Mr. Standard was improved so much Monday morning that it was safe for Mrs. Standard to be at her post, which we were very glad to know and hope that Mr. Standard will soon be well again.

Rev. Van Fossen and Mrs. M. C. Reed were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerdike Sunday.

"German military brains," declares the Dutch Viewwe von den Dag, "are no longer superior to those of the allies."

There will be an auction sale at R. E. Wilson's Saturday, Oct. 19. Red Cross will serve dinner. Come all. W. T. Houston finished sorghum hulling for the season, Saturday. Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart were Medford visitors Monday.

Yvonne Huxton left last Sunday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C. Mrs. You was shopping in Ashland Thursday. Mrs. Vogell spent Friday in Ashland attending to business matters. The school was closed a part of last week, the teachers attending the institute which met in Medford. Mrs. H. B. Fryer, who has been spending the past six weeks as a guest at the home of her son, Harrison Fryer, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek, returned to her home in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Josh Patterson spent last week in Salem attending the State Fair and reported a fine display in all lines. A Red Cross hall will be given at the Old Cross hall Saturday, Oct. 12. On that evening the party winning the fine Jersey calf offered by Ed Robinson to the Red Cross will be made known. Remember the date, Saturday, October 12. Sunday, October 20, will be rally day at the Methodist Sunday school. All members are urgently requested to be present. Quarterly communion was celebrated at the Methodist church Sunday morning by district superintendent, Rev. Van Fossen, who outlined the work done by the conference to a very interesting congregation. Rev. Van Fossen was assisted by Rev. Raymond of Doris, who gave a most interesting talk on a portion of the Book of Esther. Services as usual next Sunday.

Mr. Standard has been so critically ill at his home in Ashland that it was believed necessary for Mrs. Standard to request Prof. Baughman to allow a substitute for the primary department. Mr. Standard was improved so much Monday morning that it was safe for Mrs. Standard to be at her post, which we were very glad to know and hope that Mr. Standard will soon be well again.

Rev. Van Fossen and Mrs. M. C. Reed were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dickerdike Sunday.

"German military brains," declares the Dutch Viewwe von den Dag, "are no longer superior to those of the allies."

There will be an auction sale at R. E. Wilson's Saturday, Oct. 19. Red Cross will serve dinner. Come all. W. T. Houston finished sorghum hulling for the season, Saturday. Mrs. M. E. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart were Medford visitors Monday.

Yvonne Huxton left last Sunday for Corvallis to enter the O. A. C. Mrs. You was shopping in Ashland Thursday. Mrs. Vogell spent Friday in Ashland attending to business matters. The school was closed a part of last week, the teachers attending the institute which met in Medford. Mrs. H. B. Fryer, who has been spending the past six weeks as a guest at the home of her son, Harrison Fryer, and her sister, Mrs. Jesse Adams, on Wagner creek, returned to her home in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Josh Patterson spent last week in Salem attending the State Fair and reported a fine display in all lines. A Red Cross hall will be given at the Old Cross hall Saturday, Oct. 12. On that