NO ARMISTICE IS DEMAND OF ENGLISH PRESS

Unconditional Surrender Insisted Upon—Germany Playing Old Tricks to Divide Allies—Seek to Accomplish Retreat Unhindered to Shorter Line—Armistice Up to Foch.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—No armistice unless accompanied by Germany's unconditional surrender is the dominant note in the comment on the peace situation in this morning's newspapers.

"The allies will take nothing less than unconditional surrender in the field," says the Post. "Otherwise the war has been fought in vain."

The paper sees in Germany's endeavor to open peace negotiations merely an attempt to avoid disaster and adds: "It is not the first time the Germans have erroneously assumed that President Wilson does not understand the people with whom he is dealing. But President Wilson knows the enemy as well as do the allies. Germany's design is to first create disension between the United States and the allies. If Dr. Solf can get the allies and America to talking he will have achieved the purpose for which he and Prince Maximilian were appointed."

The Chronicle contends that no peace discussion is possible without a final cessation of fighting. Under the caption "Temporary armistice inadmissible," the paper says: "Disarm Germany."

"We must insist upon such terms as will virtually disarm the central powers. We cannot contemplate Germany withdrawing her armies intact, reconstituting them on shorter lines and then rattling the sword again at the peace conference."

"The German reply is not an acceptance of President Wilson's terms," says the Mail. "The statement that they have been accepted is not the only untruth in the German reply. * * * The present German government was formed by the same powers and minions as those which have directed every fool act that has disgraced the nation of Germany from tearing up 'scrap of paper' to sinking of the Lusitania."

The Daily News says that the German note implies that Germany accepts defeat as the verdict of the war but expresses some doubt as to Dr. Solf's reply relative to the elimination of military rulers. The newspaper continues:

"Germany's Objections. "Germany may hope that by approaching President Wilson alone she will be able to sow seed of jealousy among the allies. This is of great importance. We must be careful that no shadow of distrust or jealousy comes between the allies at this critical time."

The paper shows anxiety over the question whether the allies are really in accord with President Wilson's peace principles and whether they agree with the terms he fixed for an armistice. It continues:

"We wish a formal declaration as to an armistice by Great Britain, France and Italy, existed to place this matter beyond doubt."

Armistice Up to Foch. The Telegraph points out the fact that the German emperor appoints the chancellor, who names his own ministry. The paper is emphatic that the question of an armistice must be in the hands of Marshal Foch, but insists that one could not possibly be granted without adequate guarantees, for instance, the surrender of certain strategic points in Germany. Moreover, it says: *

"The British nation has a right to speak on this question by virtue of its having borne the chief burdens of the war and played a preponderant part in it."

The Times regards Germany's answer as neither candid nor straightforward and says that Germany evades and attempts to confuse plain issues, adding:

Unconditional Surrender. "The associated governments have not the slightest intention of accepting mixed commissions to make arrangements concerning an evacuation of allied territories. An armistice with the central powers can be reached only on the conditions analogous to those accepted by Bulgaria. The lesson for the associated peoples and governments is plain. It is to hold firmly together and support their armies on the field by keeping a united front at home while President Wilson prepares that candid straightforward reply which it is his avowed intention to make. We may rest assured that the government of the United States is as fully determined as the people of this country that Germany in her present humiliation shall abide by that abandonment of force to which four years ago she applied in her presumptuous pride. The sword must decide. There is no other road to peace."

CENTRAL POINT OVER THE TOP IN BOND SALES

Central Point is the latest of Jackson county towns to go over the top in the Fourth Liberty loan drive, subscribing $20,350 on a quota of $19,864. All Jackson county towns are now over the top except Medford, Ashland and Eagle Point. Jacksonville continues to exceed its quota, reporting an additional $1900 today, subscribed by H. Clay Walker.

This is the last week of the Liberty bond campaign and the Medford district rounded the turn on the home stretch Saturday night with a total of subscriptions amounting to $222,000 to meet its quota of $298,158. This means that $76,158 must be taken in by the close of the campaign next Saturday night, else the city district will have to be recorded in the slacker class.

Heroic efforts will be made by the committee to raise this sum before Saturday, and a general appeal is made to the patriotic people of the city and vicinity to shoot the district not only to the top but far over it.

This forenoon a request was received from Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sheldon for application blanks to be sent them at Portland, where they are sojourning. They wrote that they were each going to subscribe for $500 worth of bonds in addition to the $100 subscribed by each earlier in the campaign.

ROOT INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

M. E. Root, the well known fruit man of Medford who is the representative of Denny & Company, was injured in an auto accident at Roseburg Sunday evening, a telegram to that effect having been received by Mrs. Root last night. She left for Roseburg this morning to be at her husband's bedside.

It is not known here how serious are Mr. Root's injuries, nor are the details of the accident known. The telegram merely stated that Mr. Root while driving his automobile, presumably between 6 and 7 p. m., was run into by another car, and that he was thrown out and the other car had passed over him. It was also stated that he suffered no external injuries and that his injuries are internal. He was not taken to a hospital after the accident but was attended by physicians at his hotel. Mr. Root left here Sunday morning in his car for Roseburg.

MEETINGS FORBID UNTIL DANGER OF EPIDEMIC PAST

There were no indications today as to how long the ban on public gatherings would be in force but it was thought that it would not be lifted for a week yet. Mayor Gates says the closing order will be in force until it is certain that all danger of the Spanish influenza getting a foothold in Medford is past.

The mayor said this forenoon that one physician had informed him that he had six patients ill with the disease, only one of which could be regarded as serious. The closing orders of the mayor and City Health Officer Picket were just a day ahead of orders issued by the national board of health. The following telegram was received Sunday afternoon by Mayor Gates from the state board of health:

"By order of the surgeon general of the United States Public Health service you are directed to discontinue all public meetings and places of public amusement on the appearance of the present world wide epidemic of Spanish influenza in your city. You are directed to urge upon everyone the necessity of avoiding crowds, unnecessary street car traffic and shopping until the present epidemic has subsided."

The mayor's prohibiting of public gatherings does not apply to the public library, he stated today, as patrons only walk in, get what books they want and then depart. Therefore there would be no crowd congregating there at any time. Many church, society and lodge meetings set for the early part of the week have been called off.

Altho there are a number of cases or suspected cases of influenza in the city the disease may be said to have gained no foothold here as yet.

to virtual impotency. The power which has hitherto controlled the German nation is of the sort here described. It is within the choice of the German nation to alter it. The president's words just quoted naturally constitute a condition precedent to peace, if peace is to come by the action of the German people themselves. The president feels bound to say that the whole process of peace will, in his judgment, depend upon the definiteness and the satisfactory character of the guarantees which can be given in this fundamental matter. It is indispensable that the governments associated against Germany should know beyond a peradventure with whom they are dealing.

"The president will make a separate reply to the royal and imperial government of Austria-Hungary."

Instead of taking the note directly to the White House as he did Prince Maximilian's notes, Frederick Oederlin, Swiss charge, communicated with the state department. He was asked to present it to Secretary Lansing at 11:15 o'clock.

It is assumed that at least informal exchanges have taken place between Washington and the capitals of the co-belligerents.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Any cessation of hostilities will be through the commanding generals in the field, Senator Ashurst of Arizona, told the senate today after a conference with President Wilson at the White House. "Woodrow Wilson is not going to have any armistice of his own making," said the senator.
