

GERMANY FEARS TO PUT HER CARDS UPON THE TABLE

CHRISTIANIA, Oct. 1.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—"It is my conviction that the war will not end quickly and that Germany is so deeply sunk in debt of all kinds that she does not venture to put her cards on the table."

TEUTONS TOLD TURKEY QUILTS

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 15.—The first step taken by the new Turkish cabinet headed by Tewfik Pasha, was a dispatch from Vienna under date of Sunday, to the Weser Zeitung, was to dispatch a note to Austria-Hungary to the effect that owing to the military situation, Turkey was obliged to conclude a separate peace with the entente.

LENINE AND TROTSKY AT SWORD'S POINTS

LONDON, Oct. 15.—News emanating from Berlin says a great conflict has arisen between the Russian premier, Lenin, and Foreign Minister Trotsky, according to a dispatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph company, Premier Lenin is accusing Trotsky of supporting a counter revolution. No direct news has been received from Moscow in two days.

GREEK KING MARY MARRY NATIVE GIRL

ATHENS, Oct. 15.—When the jubilant Greeks are not rejoicing over the victories of their armies in Macedonia, they are discussing King Alexander's matrimonial quandaries. It is known that the king's affections have been centered on a native Greek girl, but the government fears such a marriage. The fact that the public has learned of these facts through the press shows that the government is desirous of obtaining the public's expression.

HARDEN DEMANDING APOLOGY TO BELGIUM

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 15.—In a recent article in the Zakenfit, Maximilian Harden has dared to demand that Belgium's pardon be sought. He stated in part: "If, as has been admitted by a chancellor, a secretary of state, and an ambassador, Belgium has been the innocent victim of the necessities of the German defense, then it is for us to beg her pardon, and certainly not to impose on her demands to satisfy our own interests."

DEARTH OF HUN OILS CAUSES RAIL WRECKS

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 15.—Dearth of fats and oils is noticeable throughout Germany, and frequent railway accidents are due to hot bearings caused in insufficient lubrication. Locomotive repair shops are unable to keep up with the repair work. Coal, iron and timber are disappearing, and while money is plenty, financiers realize that without large indemnities, Germany will be insolvent when the war is ended.

Coughed So He Couldn't Sleep

Bronchial coughs, tickling in throat and asthmatic spasms break one's rest and weaken one so that the system is run-down and serious sickness may result. Enos Halbert, Paoli, Ind., writes: "I had a severe cold this fall and coughed continually at night; could hardly sleep. The first bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me, entirely curing my cough."

DOOR TO PEACE COMPROMISE CLOSED BY THE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—President Wilson's reply to Germany, ending talk of an armistice until the Germans are ready to surrender and finally closing the door to peace negotiations with kaiserism, was on the cables today, if it actually did not arrive at Bern. Only a few hours should be required for its delivery at Berlin thru the Swiss foreign office. The feeling is apparent in Washington that the atmosphere is clearer than before Prince Maximilian came forward with his peace drive; that the purposes of the United States and the allies are more than ever clearly stated and that the powers in Berlin and the German people now must see the futility of further attempts to avert defeat by compromise.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett
The battle in this area has been most savage. The Germans are using every effort to hold their positions. They are pouring fresh troops into the struggle in the hope that American onslaught may be averted before it reaches the coast.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She mixed Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness.
Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.
