

HUNGARIAN DIET SCENE OF RIOT OVER AUTONOMY

Tumult so Great That Sitting is Adjourned as Deputies Call Each Other Names—Federal State Urged by Premier—Allied Adherents Demand Peace and Independence.

BASEL, Switzerland, Oct. 18.—Scenes of tumult prevailed at the meeting of the Hungarian diet yesterday during which demands for peace were made and it was announced that Austria was being organized on a federal basis. So great was the uproar that the presiding officer was obliged to adjourn the sitting. The disorder continued, however, the deputies calling each other "blackguard, liar, traitor, slave," etc.

Dr. Alexander Wekerle, the Hungarian premier, said that the federal states which will be formed in Austria will organize their economic and military policies on an autonomous and independent basis. He made an appeal for united action by all parties.

"Friends of Entente" Count Michael Karolyi, president of the Hungarian independent party, who followed Dr. Wekerle, demanded that immediate peace negotiations be begun without regard to the community of interest arising from the policy which has heretofore been followed.

Count Stephen Tisza, the former Hungarian premier, who on Wednesday had a narrow escape from a would-be assassin, attacked Count Karolyi, yelling: "You are entente agents."

Martin Kovassy, one of the members of the diet, answered "we are friends of the entente." Great disorder ensued. When the sitting was resumed after a brief postponement a draft of the address to the king was read. It said the result of the war had been such as to place the throne in danger. It stated that Hungary must have full autonomy.

Want Liberation "Hungary feels herself to be in full accord with the ideas spreading throughout the world along the lines of the noble principles of President Wilson's. Hungary must be completely independent, must have general electoral suffrage and the relations between nationalities in the country must be governed by the principles enunciated by President Wilson."

Dr. Wekerle said: "The protection of our integrity as a state and the maintenance of our unity are tasks we must accomplish at all costs. We desire to grant individual rights to the different nationalities who have lived among us for a thousand years. We are not contradicting our traditional point of view in accepting President Wilson's principles. As far as absolute equality of rights to individuals and the defense of our integrity and the unity of the state will permit, we will willingly satisfy the claims of different nationalities."

Karolyi for Allies BASEL, Thursday, Oct. 17.—(Byvas.)—At a sitting of the foreign committee of the Hungarian lower house, Count Michael Karolyi, opposition leader, sharply criticized the foreign policy of the monarchy, according to Budapest dispatches. He said that when the Austrian government rejected the British proposal to submit the Balkan problem to arbitration the monarchy proved that it wished to begin the war.

GERMAN OFFICERS ARRESTED FOR ORDERING THEFTS

PARIS, Oct. 18.—(Byvas.)—Five German officers have been arrested at Roulers by the French and held for court martial on a charge of ordering their soldiers to steal the goods of the inhabitants of Roulers, says the Matin. Numerous prisoners captured at Roulers had stolen goods of various kinds in their possession. They declared they acted under orders and designated the officers now under arrest.

LILLE DELIRIOUS WITH JOY OVER HUNS EJECTION

Touching Scene Witnessed by First Arrivals—Entire Population Wild With Enthusiasm Over Allies Arrival—Hear First News of War Since German Occupation.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—"I have just witnessed the most touching spectacle of my life. The whole city, in a delirium of joy, was ready to throw itself upon us, the first to enter Lille," telegraphs the war correspondent of the Petit Journal.

"Tonight at 9 o'clock, near Armentieres, an officer shouted to us 'Lille is taken.' We speeded our automobile on the road of victory. Two miles from Lille two young girls ran out in front of our automobile, crying amid sobs of joy, 'they have gone, they have gone. Vivent les Anglais, viva la France!'"

"We went a little further and then a huge shell hole obliged us to abandon our machine and proceed on foot."

Cheered by Crowd "A hunk appeared and we got in, but a crowd, every member of which was weeping, seized us. One man climbed on our shoulders."

"Another shouted to us 'my name is Gusein. I am city councillor. The Germans offered me a million to betray my country. The cowardly! The cowards! and then he burst into sobbing."

"Carried by the crowd, we arrived at the city hall. Deputy Mavor Baudou stood at the door. When we entered, everyone rushed to embrace us. An old man with white hair stood with a violin at the top of the grand staircase and played the 'Marschallaise.' Outside the crowd seethed like a sea. We were the first messengers from the Motherland."

"Speak, speak to us," they cried. We opened the windows and told of our victory. A shout went up that filled the city. We told of the Bulgarian capitulation. Again the cheers rang out. We told of the Turkish promise to quit the war and again the crowd cheered. Then we told them that President Wilson had refused to grant an armistice and demanded Emperor William's head. The crowd, in a frenzy, tossed everything it could lay hands on into the air."

Delirium of Joy "At the prefecture the acting prefect, M. Regnier, embraced us and there was a fresh outburst of cheering from the crowd. It was for Mayor Delsalle and for his son, a French officer of the Legion of Honor and wearing the war cross. This officer, an aviator, heard at 11 o'clock that the city had been freed. He leaped into his machine, flew quickly to Lille and landed in the Place De Tenre."

"This was the first French uniform that the liberated citizens had seen and the sight of it increased their delirium of joy. There remains 120,000 inhabitants in Lille. The Germans had carried off all the male population more than 14 years of age. The city is not greatly damaged and the public buildings are intact."

FINAL SPURT TO PUT FOURTH LOAN OVER THE TOP

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The Fourth Liberty loan neared the home stretch of the campaign with $4,250,000,000 subscribed and $1,750,000,000 to be raised in two days remaining.

Despite this tremendous unsubscribed balance, campaigners throughout the country reported they would be satisfied with nothing less than over-subscriptions.

It was apparent from the flood of early morning telegraphic reports to headquarters that a new spirit pervaded loan committees everywhere to go far above the individual marks set for them.

Districts Reporting Scores of messages today told of plans for suspending business in communities tomorrow to minimize interference with the last day's round-up. Several hundred thousand men and women who heretofore have taken only a passive interest in the loan drive have been enrolled as solicitors for the last day.

Michigan reported today it had subscribed its $145,000,000 quota. In the St. Louis district, Kentucky is only four percent below her goal and expected to go over today. Mississippi has 85 per cent; Arkansas 83 per cent and the city of St. Louis 82 per cent.

The Cleveland district before the opening of business today reported official sales of $250,182,000.

A total of $153,325,000 was reported by the Kansas city district. Northern Indiana, in the Chicago district, lacks only $3,000,000 of its quota and southern Indiana is already over-subscribed.

SUBMARINE BASES CAPTURED.

Rains Retard Operations Continued rains have retarded the American advance in the Arzonne sector, but General Pershing's men have gained ground east of the Arzonne forest. Cote Chailion, a dominating height, has been taken and positions near it are solidly held by the Americans.

Germany is expected to send a rejoinder to President Wilson's reply to the peace proposals of Prince Maximilian. It is reported that the note was sent last night. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is said to be in Berlin to participate in the framing of the note to Washington.

RUMORS ABOUT KAISER'S QUITTING NOT CONFIRMED

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Rumors relative to Germany's course in replying to President Wilson's note form the main features of this morning's papers. Some are convinced that Germany's unconditional surrender is coming. Although the statement issued at the foreign office last night shows yesterday's rumors were premature, extraordinary reports concerning conditions in Germany are printed.

Some newspapers take it for granted that Emperor William will abdicate. The Express says that for some time he has been sending his valuables to Holland.

Some editorials assert the disappearance of the emperor is immaterial. The Telegraph says: "Semi-official information of an astonishing kind has reached England indicating a desperate political position in Germany. A great civil upheaval is beginning. The socialists of Germany, fearing that anarchy is about to set in, have prepared a
