BREAD BROUGHT IN TRAINLOADS TO YANKS AT FRONT

AMERICAN REGULATION BASE, France, Nov. 5.—Bread for the American soldiers is brought here by trainloads from the great army field bakery a few miles distant—one train of thirty cars a day all loaded with white bread from the best wheat flour.

One such train was arriving as the Associated Press correspondent visited the base. Another trainload of refrigerated beef arrived soon afterward from the great refrigerating plant at Gievre.

It was the same with other classes of supplies, rations, forage, fuel and oil, all come in huge bulk to this concentrating and distributing point, for this is one of the great nerve centers of supplies for the fighting men.

Here the trainloads are broken into fifteen parts, two cars to a part and each part goes toward making up a new "automatic train" carrying supplies of all kinds to the soldiers—fifteen trains a day automatically leaving for the front loaded with food or fighting material.

Puffing yard engines were doing the work of spitting up the trains and reforming new ones. Gradually the confined mass of cars, the bread and meat trains melted away and the 15 automatic trains took definite form. As they were completed they moved off to sidings to take their turn in the steady stream of trains moving out to the fighting front.

Women in War Work

Nearly 200 of the pluckiest to the local A. R. C. recently made remain unpaid. Many for both September and October. Call any afternoon at Sports building, between 2 and 4 p. m. and some one will be there to receive these checks. Pay for the three months here and save us the trouble of collecting it.

Sometimes Mrs. Red Cross. From November 5 to 10 inclusive, the Christmas boxes will be given out at Red Cross headquarters in the Sparta building. All those who have received their labels from the soldiers in France may receive a box by presenting the label.

Walking Under Difficulties

"Believe me, I suffered from stomach and bowel trouble since. This weakened me so that I could scarcely walk. I could do no work. This was my condition when I started taking May's Wonderful Remedy on the advice of a friend. Now I am working every day and feel better than I ever did in my life. It is the only medicine that ever touched me." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allows the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by druggists everywhere. Adv.

GERMAN DISASTER NEEDED.

FOR the sake of an enduring peace, it is hoped that the Germans will reject the allied terms for an armistice. For this reason, they have been purposely made most drastic.

Until the German army sustains an overwhelming defeat, such as that suffered in Italy by Austria, the military tradition of Germany will not be broken and the people will look upon the army as having saved the country from annihilation.

Although the German army has lost heavily in men and materials, the German line has not been broken any worse than the allied line was last spring. The Germans are executing a skillful retreat and still fighting upon foreign territory. The morale is good, as shown by stern resistance all along the 200 mile front.

Until the morale of the army is actually broken by defeat, until the army is overwhelmed by disaster, militarism will retain its hold on the German imagination and no matter what conditions are imposed by the allies, as long as this is the case, the recuperative powers of eighty millions of people is so great that ere long German militarism will again threaten the world.

The extent of the reverses suffered by the German army are kept secret from the population. The German official report daily converts defeat into victory. As evidence the German report of today, recording the American advance of 15 miles is as follows:

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—Strong attacks by American troops on the heights east of the Meuse broke down, says today's German army headquarters report. Tentative thrusts by the Americans west of the Moselle had a similar result, it is declared.

While the military chiefs know the real facts, the German people do not and will always believe that peace was forced by internal and external conditions and not through actual defeat—that despite a world in arms against them and the collapse of their allies, the German army remained invincible and unconquered.

To get this notion out of the German head a military disaster of magnitude is essential as well as invasion of German territory—else in a generation or two, we will have the megadomania of the Germans again asserting the right of the "supermen" to rule the earth.

FEW SOLDIERS AT CAMP LEWIS CAST BALLOTS

CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 5.—Soldiers here from states that had made provision for the collection of their ballots were voting today in various numbers which had been arranged. It was estimated, however that the total number would not exceed 1600.

Two states, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin, had voting commissioners present to take the vote of their men. Pennsylvania was represented by S. J. McMalina of Leechburg, Penn. and Wisconsin by W. B. Naylor, assistant secretary of state.

Approximately fifty Pennsylvanians will cast their ballots at an estimated cost of $15 each, according to Mr. McMalina. He is allowed ten cents a mile traveling expenses both ways from Pennsylvania, he said. He is only one of 195 commissioners from the state of Pennsylvania sent to various army and navy posts or bases in the United States. Four come to this state. Wisconsin men numbered about the same as those from Pennsylvania.

North Dakota men are voting by mail direct, having applied to the auditors of the various counties from which they came for ballots. A few men from New Jersey followed the same course. State officials of Montana looked for the names and addresses of residents of that state. There were 866 whose names were returned, but no means of taking the vote of these men had been arranged this morning.

WOMAN SEEKS TOGA IN SAGEBRUSH STATE

RENO, Nev., Nov. 5.—Miss Ann Maria of Reno, whose supporters credit her with carrying the state of Nevada for suffrage, is an independent candidate for the United States senate at the election today. She is opposed by Charles Helman Henderson, democrat, who succeeded the late Senator Francis D. Newlands by appointment. E. K. Roberts, republican representative in congress, and Martin J. Semmler, socialist.

Democrats were said to have used the fact that Roberts voted against a declaration of war with Germany, as an argument against his election. To Mrs. L. Odell, republican, and James D. Boyle, democrat, are candidates for governor, and Sylvester S. Deane, republican, and Charles H. Deane, democrat, are seeking election by the national house of representatives.

HEAVY VOTE EXPECTED IN SOUTH DAKOTA

SD'X FALLS, S. D., Nov. 5.—With chief interest in the senatorial and gubernatorial contests, a heavy vote was expected in today's election in South Dakota. A complete state ticket will also be elected. The campaign in this state was featured by activity of the non-partisan league.

NON-PARTISAN BATTLE BITTER IN NORTH DAKOTA

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 5.—The political battle between the Non-partisan league and its opponents to be decided at the election today, increased in bitterness as the time drew near for the voters to name full congressional and state tickets in North Dakota.

In the gubernatorial contest, Governor Lynn J. Frazier seeks re-election on the republican ticket and is opposed by S. A. Doyle on the democratic ticket. The republican ticket was nominated at the primaries by the non-partisan league. Independent republicans opposed to the league had a hand in framing the democratic ticket.

The candidates for congress on the republican ticket are John M. Dyer in the First district, who was sent to congress by the league, George N. Young in the second district and John B. Sinclair in the third. On the democratic side, Fred Bartholomew is candidate in the first district, I. N. Torsion in the second and Halvor Halvorsen in the third.

Amendments urged by the league include a single tax; increase of the state bonded debt limit from $200,000 to $10,000,000 in the institution of any single bond issue; a smaller number of signatures required on initiative and referendum petitions, and the investment of state funds and the operation by the state of any industries not denied a private individual or corporation.

FIVE CONGRESSMEN UP IN WASHINGTON

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 5.—Five congressmen, three state supreme court judges and a majority of the members of the 1919 legislature are to be elected by Washington voters. The electorate will pass upon a measure providing for the calling of a convention to revise the state constitution.

The congressional candidates are: First district—John F. Miller, republican, incumbent; J. M. Hawthorne, democrat; Second district—Lindley H. Hadley, republican, incumbent; J. A. Shouse, democrat. Third district—Captain Albert Johnson, republican, incumbent; Theodore Hoss, democrat. Fourth district—John W. Sumner, republican; William W. McCroskey, democrat. Fifth district, C. C. Will, democrat; J. Stanley Webster, republican.

How a Salesman Suffered. R. J. Porter, Sterling, Col., writes: "For six months I suffered with a painful weak back. As a traveling salesman I had to stoop frequently to pick up my grips, which I grew to dread as the pain when I straightened up was awful. Numerous remedies failed to reach my case. I was induced to try Foley Kidney Pills. Relief was immediate. Said they are great! Any one afflicted as I was should try a bottle or two of Foley Kidney Pills." Good for pain in the back, rheumatic pains, aching joints, sore muscles. For sale by Medford Pharmacy.

OCTOBER BUSY MONTH FOR PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE

Report of Jackson County Public Health Nurse association for month of October, 1918.

Nursing visits, 48; instructive visits, 55; other visits, seven. Total number visits, 112.

Visits to general cases, 71; visits to school buildings, 30; welfare visits to homes, two; infant welfare visits, two.

Towns or districts visited, 27. Bedside nursing care given to cases, 16.

Physical examination of children, 312; class talks given, 40; sanitary inspection of school buildings, 39.

Rules and regulations governing the public health nurse.

The nurse should have had at least two years' training in a general hospital of at least 50 beds, including obstetrical training, and have had training or experience in public health nursing.

The nurse is to be given one month's vacation, on full pay, after a year's service, and is expected to use this time for rest and recuperation.

The working hours of the nurse will be from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily, except Sunday. The nurse is not expected to make night or Sunday visits except in extreme cases.

Nurses are expected not only to give bedside care but to teach cleanliness, hygiene, to instruct the family in the proper care of the sick, and to prevent the spread of disease.

The nurse must not continue treatment which are not under the care of a reputable physician. Strict adherence to the etiquette of the profession is required.

There shall be no interference with the religious or political opinions of the patient, or with the choice of a doctor.

Nursing service is furnished free to those unable to pay for it. From all other patients remuneration to the extent of from 10 cents to 75 cents a visit is expected. These patients should be told that the money thus received enables help to be given others.

The nurse shall receive no money consideration from patients for her services, but is authorized to accept such contributions as patients may wish to make to the association. Any money so obtained will be used for equipment, drugs and supplies.

The nurse shall give no money to patients and shall give no relief except in cases of emergency when patients are suffering for food and fuel.

The nurse may give care in all cases, as her other duties permit.

MISS RANKIN SEEKS JOB AS SENATOR

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 5.—Presence of Miss Jennette Rankin, congresswoman, in the race for United States senator, complicates Montana's senatorial contest to be decided at the general election today. Miss Rankin was defeated for the republican nomination by Dr. D. M. Lamstrum, physician and newspaper publisher of Helena, United States Senator Thomas J. Walsh is the democratic nominee. Miss Rankin is the national party nominee.

A recently enacted absent voters law is available for the 40,000 men now in the military service, but not more than half this number are expected to avail themselves of the right.

Besides a senator the voters will choose two congressmen, an associate justice of the state supreme court, state auditor, railroad commissioner and members of the state senate and house of representatives, besides full county tickets in each county, and state district judges in four districts. The national party has nominees for senator, congressmen in both districts, state auditor and district judge in one district.

UNUSUALLY HEAVY VOTE IN MICHIGAN

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 5.—Predictions that an unusually heavy vote would be cast in Michigan today seemed to be borne out by the early balloting.

Interest in the senatorial battle between Lieut. Commander Truman H. Newberry, republican, and Henry Ford, democrat, continued at a high pitch. Suffrage leaders are active for the suffrage amendments. Complete congressional and state tickets also are being voted on.

KANSAS VOTING UPON A COMPLETE TICKET

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 5.—Kansas voters today will elect a United States senator, eight United States representatives and a complete state ticket. Governor Arthur Capper, republican, and Senator Wm. H. Thompson, democrat, are the contestants for the senatorial seat.

JACOBS KILLED BY BOMB DROPPED BY HUN AIRPLANE

Mrs. J. W. Jacobs has received the following from officers in command of the marine corps concerning the death of her son in battle:

"Private Lester Henry Jacobs was killed at about 4 p. m. while in action against the enemy by shell fire on July 19, 1918, southeast of the town of Viery, in the Soissons sector, France."

A letter from the sergeant of the company reads as follows: 23rd Company, 6th Machine Gun Battalion U. S. Marine Corps, France, Oct. 8, 1918.

Dear Mrs. Jacobs: I received your letter today, thru the captain, requesting information on the death of your son.

On the 17th of July we advanced and went into the attack on the 18th and 19th at the time of the allied drive on Soissons and during all the trying moments your son pressed on valiantly with the rest, being at all times cheerful and full of the vigor, enthusiasm and disregard of self. That is part of the make-up of a marine. He was exceedingly well liked by all and always performed his duties promptly and well.

He was wounded by an aerial bomb dropped by an airplane, the same bomb injuring and killing other of our brave men. His comrades at once took him to a dressing station but he was not suffering any pain as he was given a drug that allayed any pain that otherwise would have ensued. A piece had entered his body and he died in less than an hour sending his love to you and all at home, saying that he wanted you all to be brave as he did not fear death.

Such was the noble spirit of your son who, with other men like him, are giving their lives daily in this great struggle for the right and we are justly proud of him.

Trusting that this information will be a comfort to you in your days of sadness and with the sympathy of the officers and men of this company I remain,

Yours in sympathy, ARTHUR CLIFFORD, First Sergeant.

FULL TICKET IN COLORADO AT ISSUE

DENVER, Col., Nov. 5.—Interest in the Colorado election today centers chiefly about the United States senatorial contest, in which John F. Shafroth, democrat, incumbent, is opposed by Lawrence C. Plapp, republican, and the gubernatorial race between Thomas J. Tynan, warden of the state penitentiary, democrat and Oliver H. Shoup, republican.

A "bone dry" amendment to replace the present Shoup law, permitting limited importation of liquor is to be voted upon.

Ben C. Hillard, congressman from the first district (Denver), who was read out of the democratic party by the Denver county convention because of his attitude on war measures, is seeking re-election as an independent candidate. He is opposed by William N. Vadie, republican, and John Leo Stack, democrat.

Three other congressmen are to be elected. Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford, democrat, incumbent, Florence M. Stone, republican, and Elizabeth A. Williams are candidates for superintendent of public instruction. Two women seek places in the state legislature and Mary L. Gippis, socialist, is a candidate for governor.

PROHIBITION ISSUE OCCUPIES OHIOANS

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 5.—Ohio electors are voting for congressman, governor, state and county officers today.

Former Governor Frank B. Willis, republican, is opposing Governor James M. Cox, democrat, for the gubernatorial election.

The amendment which would prohibit the sale or manufacture of intoxicating beverages in the state also is attracting major attention.

OREGON HEN WINS EGG LAYING CONTEST

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 5.—Prof. James Drayden's Oregon not only won first place in the 52 week international egg laying contest at Storrs, Conn., but broke the international contest record by 92 eggs, according to a telegram received at the college. The total number of eggs laid by the 10 Oregon 2, was 2,552, or an average of 255.2, as compared with 2,265 eggs, the previous record, held by Obid G. Knight, of Bridgeton, R. I., whose white Wyanotte hens laid an average of 226.5.

This means that the Oregon, originated three or four years ago by Professor Drayden, are world beaters, the record having equaled that of 500 pens of 5,000 hens representing the best layers in the United States and foreign countries.

EARLY VOTE IN MILWAUKEE HEAVY

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 5.—The early vote in Milwaukee was very heavy, the main interest apparently centering in congressional contests. Every voter on leaving his voting booth was handed a badge reading, "I have voted." The idea was planned by the county council of defense, in the hope of bringing out a full vote.

FAIR WEATHER FOR GENERAL ELECTION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Generally fair weather prevails throughout the country today for the election. There was light rain in southern New England and along the New York coast, showers in North Dakota and light snow in the regions of Wyoming and Montana, but elsewhere there were bright skies.

A RAW, SORE THROAT

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Muterole. And Muterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Muterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is for quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds on the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Nothing like Muterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use. 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.
