TRANS-SIBERIAN ROAD MANAGED BY AMERICANS

TOKIO, Nov. 18.—(By Associated Press.) Negotiations are proceeding between the powers concerning the handling of the Russian question. Believing that the smooth operation of the trans-Siberian and Chinese Eastern railroads is of prime necessity, it is understood that the United States has suggested the appointment of a managing directorate composed of representatives of the powers.

Russians are willing to co-operate and France and Great Britain have agreed to the plan, but Japan's attitude is still the subject of negotiations. The Japanese viewpoint, as given to the Associated Press, is that she does not consider the question important because the arrangement would continue only until the end of the war.

PRESIDENT VAN HISE OF U. OF W. DEAD

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 19.—President Charles E. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin, died in Milwaukee this morning at 9 o'clock, according to information received here this morning by Dean Birge of the university.

6-Foot Lawyer Looked Like Pumpkin

"I was often doubled up with pains in my stomach and was yellow as a pumpkin before taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which 10 years ago saved my life. My friends had given up all hopes of my recovery, as the best doctors did not help me. Am enjoying the best of health now."

DEPORT BERGER

VICTOR BERGER, of Milwaukee, who was elected to congress by the pro-German socialists, should not be allowed to take his seat as a representative in congress because of his disloyalty to the government, which he seeks to destroy.

Berger has been four times indicted for seditious utterances made during the war for the purpose of giving aid and comfort to the nation's enemy. He actively opposed measures necessary to win the war and did his utmost for the success of the kaiser's cause.

Now that victory has been won, Berger has resumed his German propaganda and is openly flaunting his disloyalty. In a speech Sunday at Chicago before 10,000 socialists he uttered the following:

"All socialists are pro-Bolshevik. Stand by your colors—your flag—your ideas, and by your flag I mean the international flag (the red flag). I am in no way opposed to the Stars and Stripes. At the same time, the international flag is the bigger of the two."

In other words, between the American flag, and the red flag of anarchy, Berger is against the American flag and all it symbolizes. He seeks the destruction of the government in which he was elected to represent the disloyal community of Milwaukee and the installation of the red terror that has destroyed Russia.

There should be no room for traitors in the United States congress. Berger should be barred. There should be no room in the country for imported foreigners out of sympathy with the ideals of western democracy, who seek the destruction of the nation that shelters and protects them.

Berger should have his American citizenship cancelled and be deported as an undesirable alien—to make trouble for his native land. The nation needs a house-cleaning of anarchists who seek its demoralization and ruin.

GERMANS TRADING IRON CROSSES FOR SMOKING TOBACCO

WITH AMERICAN TROOPS NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 29.—(Correspondence of Associated Press.) The German Iron Cross is the prize souvenir and to obtain one the American soldier will gladly give several bags of tobacco and even money in the bargain.

It is an interesting commentary on the esteem, or lack of esteem, in which the cross is held by Fritz that he parts with it in a great number of cases and generally with only expressions of contempt for it and its significance. Even German officers give up their crosses occasionally.

Automatic Guns Also Here and there is to be found an American soldier who has a German machine or automatic gun as a souvenir, but only rarely because they generally have a military value and are too bulky to be used or carried. German carbines and rifles are more popular than they too are almost impossibly heavy and in the way.

Greatly coveted the seldom found are the revolvers that German officers carry. Unlike the American soldier, the German seldom if ever carries such a weapon. Even the numerous "non-coms" of the German army have them only rarely. Consequently they are scarce and all the more popular because they are easily carried, useful and handy. They are good weapons, too.

Every German soldier carries as a rule a mass of documents on his person, ranging from written and unwritten postcards to sentimental, illustrated saws and sayings, colored pictures and the like. At the start they were in demand as souvenirs but are now far too common. Even the inevitable diary is no longer popular. It is invariably written in illegible German script and contains little if anything of interest.

Wrist Watches Also Wrist watches have been considered since the beginning of the war as the legitimate booty of the conqueror, and many and many a watch of enemy make now runs well or badly upon the arm of some victor. Ninety-nine of every hundred watches of course, are virtually worthless but the hundredth, originally the property of some officer or aviator, is valuable and a thing of beauty.

The list thus far comprises chiefly the pure souvenir or remembrance of the battle. In every retreat, however, the Germans have left behind a whole host of utensils—tool boxes, cartridge cases and general utensils—that are eagerly picked up by those who want some additional facility for carrying their possessions with safety and ease.

WALSH RESIGNS FROM WAR LABOR BOARD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Frank W. Walsh, joint chairman with William H. Taft on the national war labor board, today sent his resignation to President Wilson, with the explanation that professional engagements required his return to law practice at the earliest possible moment now that hostilities have ceased.

William Herman Black, at present attorney for Mr. Walsh, automatically becomes joint chairman of the board if Mr. Walsh's resignation is accepted. Mr. Black is former assistant district attorney of New York City.

Score One For Medford Flour I recently purchased some of the VILMO BRAND of flour, made by the Rogue Valley Milling Co., of Medford, and I found it the best flour I have used in Oregon and I cheerfully recommend it to all users of flour. I am not in the habit of lauding out bouquets to millers, politicians, etc., but if a Medford mill can place such a good brand of flour on the market they shall have my patronage and should have yours, too.
