Women in War Work

The Red Cross will resume work next week and the women of Medford will continue the activities of each department Monday, Wednesday and Friday until further orders.

NOTICE SENT TO CHROME MINERS

H. M. Parks, director of the Oregon bureau of mines and geology, has sent out the following notice, dated November 20:

AWAIT DELIVERY OF ALL WARSHIPS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Until every German warship covered by the armistice actually is in the hands of the allies, Secretary Daniels said today, the navy department will continue to operate under war regulations.

RESTORE INDUSTRIES IS AIM OF ALLIES

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The aim of reconstruction in France and Belgium will be to restore the means of production, says Dr. Christopher Addison, British minister of reconstruction.

A BROKEN REED

SENATOR REED of Missouri, mouthpiece of the food trust in the senate, whose contribution to winning the war was holding up the food control bill for three months and unremitting attacks upon Hoover, is much outraged over the proposed league of nations, declaring that any arrangement that would cause the United States to be embroiled in European troubles "the most monstrous doctrine ever proposed in this republic."

Mr. Reed that the same about America's participation in the European war—yet if America had not participated in European affairs, Europe in the form of Germany, would have participated in American affairs in most sinister manner.

The period of America's isolation has forever passed. The world has become one vast community and what affects one nation, directly or indirectly affects all. America is responsible for the creation of new republics out of hitherto enslaved European nations. America, as a result of the war, is embroiled in European troubles, which are now world troubles and America must share the responsibilities that have fallen upon her in restoring order and stable government.

To prevent the recurrence of a world war, the league of allied nations will be enlarged to become a league of all nations, an international court to adjust national grievances and enforce international law and order just as our own courts and police enforce national order.

The old order of individual nationalism running riot has passed away and a new order of internationalism is being born. Blind, indeed, is the "statesman" who cannot read the writing on the wall, that the nation, like the individual, will be measured by the service rendered others, rather than that rendered itself from motives of greed, avarice and selfishness.

Senator Reed is indeed a "broken reed" for a nation to lean upon.

A BRIEF RESPITE

ADJOURNMENT of congress for two weeks will give a much wearied public a rest from the never ending flow of gab that has continued uninterruptedly for many months in an effort to discredit the president. Whatever the executive has done was wrong and whatever he may do will be attacked by the small calibre "statesman" serving as lackeys for predatory interests, and wantonly distorted to manufacture political capital.

The control of congress by republicans is evidently the signal for the revival of the petty politics and narrow partisanship that have so often made congress ridiculous. A lively sense of humor enables the American public to tolerate these self-important jackasses braying incessantly at the capitol and estimate them at their real value—pests taken seriously only by themselves and those hungering for the pie-counter.

The latest exhibition of peanut partisanship is the effort by reactionaries to make political capital out of the president's proposed attendance at the peace congress, which will solve the problems of political and economic reconstruction. We are gravely informed that calamity impends if the executive leaves the country—nobody left here but congress, the supreme court, office holders and the people.

All this element of congress wants of the president is to abuse him—and there is no closed reason, even if he is out of the country. The flow of demagoguery can continue uninterruptedly—and that ought to satisfy the unconstructive reconstructionists.

Perhaps during the course of another year, the new revenue bill passed by the house last summer, will be passed by the senate—perhaps. The senate is long on delay and short on action, but never failing in its flow of words.

lets of the world. The burden of the restoration of the machinery must fall upon those who destroyed it.

It would be within the power of the allies, said Dr. Addison, to withhold from Germany cotton or other goods until the Germans had made good the machines they had destroyed. In the economic recession, he pointed out, civilization had a great

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can be usually and successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is in trouble with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parment (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it one fourth pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar, stir until dissolved. Take one (tablespoonful) four times a day. Parment is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct and excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the result is given as nearly always quick and effective.

BUTTE FALLS

Miss Rosetta McGrail, the county school nurse, came on Wednesday to examine cases of sickness in Butte Falls. The influenza has got a little headway, but it is to be hoped it will be checked.

The Trotter family has been sick with influenza, but all the members are improving as well as is expected.

Butte Falls school was in session Monday, but because of the extent of the appearance of the epidemic in town, it was again closed.

Milton Hammerly, nephew and ward of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Ahlstrom, has been in the hospital in Ashland the past week. He cut his arm on a wood saw, and after the wound was thought to have been almost healed, blood poison set in. Butte Falls friends extend their sympathy and hope for a speedy recovery.

The Butte Falls school went over 100 per cent over the top in the Victory boy and girl drive last week. The captains and selectors worked hard and faithfully in spite of difficulties, the school being closed and the epidemic prevailing. The boys and girls of Butte Falls are always eager to do their share and the above result proves it.

Suffers Serious Break Down

Two years ago I spent three months in hospital under stomach and bowel ailments for mucus colitis, auto intoxication, etc., which caused awful bloating and colic attacks. My friends gave me up. I returned home and on the advice of Mrs. Wright, a friend, tried May's Wonderful Remedy with wonderful results. Am now in best of health. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and stays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One does well convince or money refunded. Sold by druggists everywhere. Adv.

"BEST INVESTMENT I HAVE EVER MADE"

Contractor Wouldn't Take Five Hundred Dollars For Good Tanlac Did Him

"I just want to say right now that I wouldn't take five hundred dollars for the good that first bottle of Tanlac did me, for I feel like it has given me a new lease on life," said C. E. Nelson, a contracting carpenter at 7728 63rd Ave., Southeast Portland, Oregon, recently.

"Following a serious accident four months ago," he continued, "which laid me up for eight or nine weeks, I lost my appetite, and my stomach got all out of order. What little I did manage to eat would sour and form gas, which would cramp and pain me until I could hardly stand it. Then my kidneys went back on me, and my back hurt so bad I couldn't find a comfortable position. They said I had rheumatism or 'lumbago', then my right leg, below the knee, got to hurting me, and at times I couldn't stand on my feet or to get up when down. I was constipated all the time and suffered a great deal with headache. Nobody knows how I really did suffer, because I just can't describe it and as nothing seemed to do me any good I had become discouraged about my condition.

"I finally sent down and got a bottle of Tanlac, as I read so much about it, and it was about the best investment I ever made. My appetite came bounding back after my first few doses, and by the time my second bottle was gone, my stomach trouble was almost gone, too. I am now eating any and everything I want and it don't hurt me the least bit, and my kidneys and back are greatly improved. At the time I started on Tanlac I had to use crutches to get about. I have gained several pounds in weight, and can just feel myself getting stronger every day. I have gone back to work already, and I never lose an opportunity to speak a good word for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Medford by West Side Pharmacy, in Gold Hill by M. D. Bowers, in Central Point by Miss M. A. Mee, in Ashland by J. J. McNair.
