

BOCHE FLEET IS FORMALLY GIVEN TO ALLIED NAVY

al Hugh Rodman, who said to the correspondent before sailing: "There is not the slightest probability of any trouble, but we are overlooking no chances against making the wind-up of this show a big success."

The main allied fleet extending over a line 14 miles long in the Pirith of Ooth began to weigh anchor at one o'clock this morning. The Scotch mist which for days had obscured the harbor, was swept away by a stiff breeze, and the moon shone brilliantly out of a clear sky. The ships quickly took their stations in the long double line they held throughout the day. The British battle cruisers led the way, followed by dreadnaughts. Admiral Beatty's flagship, the Queen Elizabeth, led the squadron in the northern column. The American warships fell into line behind Admiral Beatty's craft, balancing a British squadron similar in power in opposite file.

At the Rendezvous.

The rendezvous was approximately 50 miles distant and the ships gauged their speed to arrive at the appointed place at eight o'clock. At five o'clock a signal summoned the men into battle stations. Except for the officers on the bridges, the ships' companies were hidden behind bulwarks of steel. When dawn broke the sea was again covered with mist, which reduced the visibility to less than 8000 yards.

Inspection parties from the grand fleet boarded the Germans to make sure that all conditions of the armistice were observed. The enemy vessels will be interned in Scapa Flow. Part of the crews will remain for maintenance work and the remainder will be returned to Germany soon.

King George's visit to the American flagship New York yesterday was a notable occasion throughout. British destroyers were streaming out of the harbor to take up advanced positions to act as a screen for the grand fleet today and the portentousness of their mission gave a note of solemnity to the gala scene on the New York. As soon as the royal party stepped aboard, the royal ensign was hoisted to the masthead. This was the first time since the United States entered the war that any ceremonial punctilio has been observed. King George was touched by the sight of his standard snapping in the breeze above the Stars and Stripes and expressed his appreciation.

Witnessed by King.

King George, the Prince of Wales, Admiral Beatty and other members of the visiting party were received by Admirals Rodman and Sims and other officers of the fleet. They made a quick tour back between long lines of marines standing stiffly at attention and sailors manning the rails. The party then went below to the admiral's cabin, where it visited for half an hour. The king appeared to have a fine time. Formalities were abandoned. Admirals Beatty, Sims and Rodman were in high spirits and their good natured bantering kept the whole party laughing. It was an interesting manifestation of the extremely cordial and intimate relations cementing Great Britain and America. King George voiced the brotherly feelings of the two navies with the suggestion that arrangements might well be made for joint maneuvers every year by the American and British fleets. His proposal was heartily seconded by the American officers.

King Is Cheered.

As the king entered the royal barge, the order came from the officers on the bridge to the sailors and marines: "Three cheers for the king of England." Cheers were given with such a will they brought an answering cheer from the men on the distant ships of the American squadron.

Admiral Beatty's historic signal after the German fleet had been moored at the appointed place was: "The German flag is to be hauled down at 3:57 and is not to be hoisted again without permission."

RYAN RESIGNS AS AIR SERVICE CHIEF

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The resignation of John D. Ryan as director of air service and second assistant secretary of war was announced today by Secretary Baker. Mr. Ryan will return at once to his private business.

The resignation is to take effect at his convenience. Secretary Baker expressing only the hope that it will be after plans for contract cancellation and demobilization have matured.

HOHENZOLLERN TO LEAVE PRUSSIA IN NEAR FUTURE

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 22.—All the members of the Hohenzollern dynasty will leave Germany in the near future, according to a Frankfort dispatch to the Rotterdam Courant. The destination, it adds, is not yet known.

So far as is known the only members of the Hohenzollern dynasty who already have left Germany are William Hohenzollern, the former emperor, and his eldest son, Frederick William, the former crown prince. Both are in Holland. There have been conflicting reports regarding the former German empress, who has been in poor health for some time, but the probabilities point to her not having left German territory.

The ex-emperor has five other sons. His only daughter, Victoria-Louise, married the Duke of Brunswick in 1913. A recent dispatch reported the abdication of the duke.

The former emperor's only brother, Prince Henry of Prussia, is not known to have quit German soil. There are several male children among the former ruler's grandchildren.

RAILROAD OWNERS WANT PROPERTY BACK

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—An imposing array of counsel, headed by Elihu Root, was retained by the National Association of Owners of Railroad Securities to represent it in negotiation with the government looking toward the return of the nation's railroads to private ownership.

In a statement issued by S. Davies Warfield it was declared that the government's present policy is "destructive" of the individual credit of the railroads and that "furthermore, the present conditions cannot continue without the obliteration of railroads as individual concerns."

Catarrh Distorts Facial Expression

Spreads the Nose, Blurs the Eyes, Puffs the Face, Dries the Lips, How to Get Rid of Catarrh.

TRY THIS HOME TREATMENT FREE.

Catarrh not only makes one feel miserable, it shows this effect in the features, and it usually grows worse. But thanks to a remarkable home treatment, there is recovery in store for every sufferer by the remarkable Gauss self home treatment, which you can try free in your own home.

It is Perfectly Wonderful the Way Gauss Treatment Drives Away Catarrh

An excess secretion from the nostrils is an unsightly misery. A breath tainted with the odor of catarrh is an offense against all health and decency. A stomach filled with droppings from diseased nasal cavities may cause untold misery, and ruin the complexion. The bowels clogged with strings ofropy mucus indicate a body literally reeking with catarrh, causing pimples, blotches and other skin eruptions.

The blood, swarming with millions of catarrh germs, entails upon the kidneys a labor that may break them down; the lungs and bronchial tubes, scourged with the destructive influence of systematic catarrh, can lead to anemia and the most serious consequences.

So why continue with all this misery? Send your name and address today for a free trial of Mr. Gauss' famous treatment. Mail it to C. E. Gauss, 6974 Main St., Marshall, Mich. It will not cost you a penny to try it, and it surely will astonish you with its wonderful effect. Fill out coupon and mail it today.

RAILROADS RESTORE MEN IN SERVICE

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A majority of the nation's railroads plan to restore to employees who entered military and naval service the seniority rights which they sacrificed when they left the roads' employment.

Issued over the signature of W. G. McAdoo, director general of railroads, an order says today that the following general principles will govern:

(A).—In the case of an employee having established seniority rights, so far as practicable and where the employee is physically qualified, he will be restored to such seniority rights.

(B).—In the case of employees who do not have seniority rights under existing practices, a consistent effort will be made to provide employment for them when mustered out of military service.

PICTURE THEATERS TO OPEN TOMORROW

After being dark for several weeks the Page and Riatta theaters will be opened tomorrow beginning at 2:10. Both houses have prepared unusually good programs for the openings, and will have excellent music.

The lovers of the movies will be glad to have the opportunity again of seeing their favorite stars and the theaters will no doubt be crowded. The usual Saturday evening crowds will be out on the streets again tomorrow and you are expected to join the happy throng.

The New Liberty theater will be opened Thanksgiving day with a big matinee and under the management of Henry Hareke.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Congress today started on a 10-day vacation, its first complete suspension since the session which adjourned yesterday since die began December 3, 1917.

GODOWSKI LIFTS AMUSEMENT LID HERE WEDNESDAY

Leonold Godowski, the famous Polish pianist, assisted by Miss Marguerite Hughes, will lift the lid on Wednesday evening, November 27, opening the amusement season in Medford. We have for some time been obliged to remain at home and dodge the "flu," but now that the war is over and the quarantine lifted, we can congregate together as of yore, and the above attraction will give up the additional pleasure of listening to one of the world's greatest artists, an exceedingly rare opportunity for the people of the Rogue River valley.

Mr. Godowski brings with him his own grand piano, made especially for him by the Knabe Piano company. He also carries a tuner, sent direct from the factory, who places his piano on the stage and sees that it is in perfect condition for each performance. Miss Marguerite Hughes will use on this occasion her $7,000 Stradivarius violin.

The subscription seat sale is now in charge of Mr. George Andrews.

Phone orders to Andrews' Studios, Phone 323-J. The regular box office sale will open at the Page theater Tuesday morning, 10 o'clock. Prices $1.50, $1.00, 75c and 50c. Seats are going fast, so phone in your order early.
