

FIRST STEPS IN DEMOBILIZATION AT CAMP LEWIS

CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 26.—First demobilization steps of any proportion were taken this morning when approximately 300 enlisted men from the depot brigade began taking their physical examinations preparatory to discharge.

Following orders received from Washington the men selected for today's examination represent the men in the brigade who are in the army thru volunteering for service in the regular army for the period of the emergency or who were formerly members of the National Guard brought in by federalization.

Names and home addresses of these men were not available at the mustering office, where the examination is taking place and it was stated that an estimated period of five days would elapse from the time of that examination until the soldier would finally leave for home as a civilian.

The physical test will be strict, it is stated, as the record of this examination will directly influence any future claims which discharged men may make upon their war insurance policies.

Any men found to be in a lower physical class than at the time of induction, will be placed under medical care and a complete cure effected, if possible, before discharge is allowed.

As soon as men of the above class have been examined, orders are expected at the mustering office stipulating what class of men in the depot brigade will next be called and prepared for discharge.

ITALIANS PLAN U.S. MONUMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—A project has been outlined and a subscription by the Italian newspaper, Il Progresso Italo-Americano, among the Italians in this country, for the erection of a monument, which will be placed either in New York or in Washington, will be a mark of the gratitude which the Italians feel toward America for her participation in the war for the cause of freedom and democracy, and especially for the help we have given Italy in the realization of her national aspirations. A plan is also being discussed to build a similar monument in Rome. Both monuments are to be the work of one of the greatest Italian sculptors and will be of such size and artistic importance as to be worthy of the sentiment they are intended to express.

GERMAN FLEET MAY BE DIVIDED AMONG ALLIES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The suggestion from London that naval vessels surrendered by Germany under the armistice may be sunk to avoid possible disagreement among the associated nations as to their disposition was received by naval officials here with evident surprise. Secretary Daniels said today the proposition had never been mentioned to him and he was certain American naval representatives had suggested no such plan.

No intimation has been given as to the policy of the United States in this regard. Admiral Benson, the ranking officer among the American delegates, received full instructions before his departure, however.

If the Versailles conference decrees that the German warships are to be divided among the allies according to naval losses, the United States would obtain only one destroyer and one armored cruiser, the major ships going to England, France and Italy.

CANCEL WAR DEBTS SAYS CHAMBERLAIN

PORTLAND, Ore. Nov. 26.—A suggestion that the United States government cancel the war debts of the allies because the money lent by this country to its fellow belligerents was to buy bread and bullets to help defend our homes, is made by United States Senator George E. Chamberlain of Oregon, chairman of the military affairs committee of the senate. The suggestion appears in an article written by Senator Chamberlain for the current issue of the Monthly Bulletin of the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen and the spruce production division of the army.

Senator Chamberlain says: "The war is not yet over; nor indeed are our obligations ended when formal peace is declared. America has a colossal debt still to pay to the British army that has fought so doggedly through these bitter four years; to Italy, that has broken Austria with only one regiment of American troops to aid her; to pitiful, sublime, Serbia and Belgium, that have endured martyrdom and devastation for a holy cause; and last, but not least, France, that was the chief target of all Hunnish hate."

WITHDRAWING ALL TROOPS FROM BRITAIN

LONDON Monday, Nov. 25.—In planning the withdrawal of the American troops from England as soon as possible, American officers have decided that the only units which will remain are a few of the medical service and the staffs of the rest camps.

When the Mauretania sailed today she took between 5,000 and 6,000 from the living coasts. It is planned to dispatch a steamer to America every day this week.

AMERICA SAVES MADERIA ISLANDERS FROM STARVATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—America, destined to become the greatest food reservoir of the world, has already saved the several hundred thousand inhabitants of the Maderia islands from actual starvation. Some time ago, word was received by the American Red Cross that the islands were in dire need of food supplies. They had money enough to buy what was needed, but countries with available surpluses had no ships in which to ship the needed provisions.

About the same time, the navy department, also learning of the situation, made arrangements with the governor of Morocco to let the unfortunate colony have 500 tons of corn, with the understanding that the amount would be replaced by the American Red Cross from the United States to France. For the time being, the danger was averted. Further arrangements were made by the navy department and the Red Cross, whereby 1,300 more tons were put on a United States transport and sent to Maderia. Plans are now being perfected for the shipment of an equal amount each month as long as need for assistance is evident.

The government of Portugal has formally expressed its appreciation of the services rendered in preventing apparently unavoidable famine in its colonial territory.

SERB REGENT OF JUGO-SLAV STATE

SALONIKI, Nov. 26.—Crown Prince Alexander of Serbia has been appointed regent of the Jugo-Slav state by the national council at Agram, according to a Lathach dispatch. A state council, comprising all the members of the Agram council, with delegates from Serbia and Montenegro, has been summoned to meet at Sarajevo. This council will appoint a cabinet for the Jugo-Slav state. As soon as the situation is settled, elections will be held for a constituent assembly, which will definitely decide upon the form of state that will be set up and adopt the constitution.
