

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Harry B. Mills, manager of the Butte Falls Lumber company at Butte Falls, is in the city today on business. They are getting ready to operate the mill all winter and are building a plank road so that they can haul the logs in with trucks. The diet during and after influenza, Horlick's Malted Milk, nourishing, digestible. S. B. Holmes of Eagle Point, was in the city yesterday on business. Edgar Wright, for useful gifts, Jeweler, 17 N. Central. A Lundgren who has been over in the chrome district in California for some time with Dr. Reddy, was in the city yesterday. A store full of beautiful and appropriate Christmas suggestions at Johnson's, the Jeweler, 214* J. C. Pendleton came in from Table Rock yesterday to attend to some business matters. He did not forget that Thanksgiving day was near and brought some fine squash to some of his friends. Hemstitching, perching. All work guaranteed. Vanity Hat Shop, 11* Frank Nickey and wife who are living near Butte Falls, were visiting friends in the city yesterday. The Liberty theatre will open Saturday, November 30th, instead of Thanksgiving day as planned. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gillilan of Tacoma, Wash., are in the city with friends for a few days. Present quarters leased. We must move. Now is the time to purchase the furs you have wanted at right prices. F. W. Bartlett, 126 East Main, 214* T. S. Johnson and S. E. Ivackott of Portland were in the city yesterday on business. Experienced hemstitching and perching. Mrs. B. E. Haney, Garnett-Corey Bldg. Bernice Warren came over from Hill yesterday for a few days visit in the city with friends. Five course turkey dinner Thanksgiving day, $1.00, at the Shasta, 212* All hats greatly reduced at Lottie Howard's, 214* Harry L. Neborgall and M. O. Dahl of Portland, are in the city today on business. See the wonderful assortment, ladies wrist watches at Johnson's, from $10.00 to the diamond set beauties at $100, 214* Piano tuning—Geo. W. Cross. Endorsed by the leading musical people of southern Oregon. Leave your order today. Phone 209, 212 F. Pratt of Baker City, is in the city for a few days on business. The war is over and the flu is gone. Buy Christmas presents at Japanese Art Store, 215* L. E. Ireland of Hood River and L. T. Ireland of Minneapolis, were visitors in the city yesterday. For the best insurance see Holmes, the Insurance Man. F. C. Jobs of St. Louis, Mo., arrived in the city yesterday to spend a few days looking over the country. You can drink a pint of cider for a nickel at DeVoe's. T. G. Bradley of Prospect is in the city for a few days on business. Nash Hotel, Special rates, week or month. Steam heat, 215* W. C. Boettwick and wife arrived in Medford yesterday from Portland for a few days visit with friends in the country. Wanted to rent, good piano, 228 North Central, 214 A. S. Knouling came in from Applegate yesterday to visit a short time in the city. We are allowed .60 per cent sugar for December. Anticipating this two months ago we engaged one of the best vandy makers on the coast. Eat more, give more of Shasta candy. Try our new line. Make "business as usual" a reality, 216* D. L. Abbott and wife and A. E. Mathew left on the morning train to visit in Weed, Cal., for a few days. Hemstitching and perching at 10c per yard at Handicraft Shop. Caleb Showers and son, O. J. Showers left this morning to spend Thanksgiving day with John Hotel in Poe Valley, Klamath county, and have a goose hunt. A better place to do your Xmas shopping, Johnson's, the Jeweler, 214* J. W. Fish and family left for Chico, Cal., on the morning train. They will probably spend the winter there. N. S. Bennett brought in a ten pound winter radish for the exhibit building yesterday. Nine-course turkey dinner Thanksgiving day $1.00, at the Shasta 212* Fred Butler and wife left this morning for Copco, Cal., where he is employed at the Cal-Ore Power Co. plant. The Red Cross ladies have the invitations and tickets for the big Like Red Cross Victory ball, Thanksgiving night. See them and get yours. Agnes Bennett and Mrs. Elmer Wilson, daughters of N. S. Bennett, who have been packing fruit in Hood River, returned home this morning. F. J. McPherson and wife of Eagle Point, who have been on a visit to Portland, came in on the morning train. Removal sale now going on at Miss Lounsbury's Millinery store, 126 East Main. Everything at cost, 216*

P. O. Crawford of San Francisco, is spending a few days in the city on business. Get your milk, cream, butter and buttermilk at DeVoe's. Rod Wagoner and E. A. Aldice of Portland, are in the city on business. Daily's Taxi, phone 15. H. A. Conslus of Portland, was in the city yesterday on business. Free storage. Power Auto Co. 11* R. E. Rogers, Joe Martin, R. Miller, M. Munson, K. Ball and O. Gramstead, members of the Sunset company, arrived in the city by auto yesterday from Portland. Pleasant, safe, quick, sure. Dr. Hallett, 227 South Central, 213 Allen Anderson and Fred Williams of Grants Pass, are doing business in the city today. Nine-course turkey dinner Thanksgiving day $1.00, at the Shasta, 212* J. Schockley of Roseburg, arrived in Medford yesterday to spend a few days looking over the country. Ask any Elk for an invitation to the Victory ball Thanksgiving night. We will see that you get one. Tickets are one dollar. Alex Anderson and wife of Central Point, were visiting in the city yesterday. Order your Xmas cards or folders at the Medford Printing Co. Ted Lewis and daughter Ina and M. O. Wallace of Grants Pass, were visitors in the city yesterday. Good line of fox and wolves, the most popular furs this season. Bargains before removal, at Bartlett's, 214* E. L. Terrill who used to be night editor for the Sun and who has been spending a few days in the city recuperating from an attack of the influenza, left for a trip through the southern states this morning. Forty styles of engraved Xmas cards and folders. Medford Printing Co. J. G. Davies, mining engineer of Sacramento and Gold Hill, was in the city yesterday on business. Buy what you wish with that Liberty bond, same as cash at Johnson's, the Jeweler, 214* The success of the Medford Business college seems assured as there are reported to be more than sufficient members enrolled to put the undertaking upon a paying basis. We buy and sell everything. Highest cash prices paid for furniture, carpets, tools, mattresses. Geo. W. Douglas, 24 North Front street, phone 162-J, 220* Orres, high grades tailoring for men and women. Ashland, Oregon. Medford and vicinity's share of the large shipment of mail from France which landed the first of the week in New York is expected to arrive tomorrow to help along the Thanksgiving of those who have boys and friends over there. Orres, the ladies' tailor, will be at Hotel Holland every Thursday afternoon. High-class work only. Circuit court convened next Monday and will hold session during the greater part of the week. Genuine Coca Cola at DeVoe's. Sam Sandry in town today buying supplies for the Blue Lodge mine. Another opportunity to buy shoes at very reasonable prices during the month of November. I am going to give a 10 per cent discount on all men's and boys' shoes. Come and get them. L. F. Stroud, No. 10 South Central avenue, 212* Henry Myers of Lake Crook, spent the day in town yesterday. A child's yarn cap and roller skate was left at the Sun office some time ago. Owner can get same at Sun. Order your Xmas cards or folders at the Medford Printing Co. Herman Offenbacher of Applegate was in town today buying supplies. Free storage. Power Auto Co. 11* Mr. Mats of the forest service, in charge of timber sale at Pelican bay, returned this morning. He will remain in Medford for the winter. Engraved Xmas cards and folders. Medford Printing Co. Forty styles of engraved cards and folders. Medford Printing Co. Both—To Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Green, Sams Valley, Tuesday, November 26, a son. Dr. Heine, Garnett-Corey Bldg. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Joe. Arono of Gold Hill, Saturday, November 23, a son. Liberty bonds accepted same as cash at Johnson's, the Jeweler, 214* Hemstitching and perching at Handicraft Shop, 216* J. A. Robie of Grants Pass, was in Medford on business Tuesday. 20 per cent discount on women's button shoes. Schmidt's "Good Shoes," 21 North Central avenue. TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Fay Kiser, chief yeoman, U. S. N., of Berkeley, Cal. is visiting his grandfather, V. Wallace, and many friends. Most of his old school friends, however, are elsewhere, many of them in the service. He will remain over Thanksgiving.—Grants Pass Courier. If its toys you want go to Japanese Art Store, 215* There will be a reception Monday evening at the M. E. church for the new Dr. Carlos. All members and friends of the church are invited. Wanted—A bargain in a small house and lot. Box D, care Mail Tribune. A learned of Applegate was a Medford visitor Wednesday. Furniture upholstering, mattress making, staining and packing. Douglas, 201 S. Riverside, phone 162-J. Art Boggs of Beagle, was a business caller in Medford Wednesday. Now is your opportunity to learn stenography. Either day or night classes. Expert stenographers and high salaries go together. Become an expert at Medford Business College, 12* Names of contributors to the war workers fund, omitted in the published list of contributors include G. M. Roberts, $20; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crews $5. For fire insurance phone 64, corner Eleventh street and S. P. Track, D. R. Wood & Co. Wm. Biege of Rural Route 2, spent Wednesday in Medford. A stock, all new and up to date. Do your shopping there. Johnson's, the Jeweler, 214* Bankers of this district held their quarterly meeting in Medford Tuesday. Wanted—Girl to tend to children during afternoons. Phone Mrs. Robert Ruhl, Hotel Medford. Fred Williams and F. C. Bramwell of Grants Pass, were in Medford on business Wednesday. Come to day or night school and learn stenography as taught by experts. Medford Business College now open, 12* W. A. Folger who has been in Portland attending a convention of the county food administrators of the state, returned home this morning. Royal and Pullman bread at DeVoe's.

OBITUARY SMITH—Mrs. Josephine Smith, a pioneer of Oregon and Jackson county, died at Ashland, Nov. 25, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Davis, aged 75 years, 16 months and 23 days. For the past 20 years she had been a resident of Red Bluff, only recently joining her daughter. She came across the plains with her parents by ox-team, locating at McMinnville, was married in 1862 to Stephen Hussey who died in 1868. In 1870 she married George W. Smith. She came to Jackson county in 1865, taking up a homestead at $100 Reward, $100 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Catarrh being generally influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative power of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, etc.

Sims Promoted to Be Admiral WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Vice Admiral William S. Sims, commander of American naval forces in Europe since the United States entered the war has been selected for promotion to the rank of admiral when a vacancy in the list occurs next month thru the retirement of Admiral Austin M. Knight, commanding the Asiatic fleet. Rear Admiral Albert Gleaves, chief of the convoy service which has guarded transports going overseas without losing an east-bound ship, will be made vice-admiral to fill the vacancy caused by the advance of Admiral Sims. Rear Admiral Thomas S. Rodgers succeeds to the command of the Asiatic fleet, relieving Admiral Knight, who already has started for home.

LYONS—Oscar Lyons, aged 36, died Nov. 25 at Walla Walla, Wash., from influenza. He was a son of the late J. A. Lyons and a native of Medford, residing here until four years ago. He was well known as an architect and builder. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Weizell of Portland and Mrs. Van Heidenburg of Wellen and one brother, N. M. Lyons of Medford, two children and his former wife. Interment will be held at Weeks & McGowan's chapel, Friday morning, Nov. 29, at 10 o'clock, interment in I. O. O. F. cemetery.

How a Salesman Suffered R. J. Porter, Sterling, Col., writes: "For six months I suffered with a painful weak back. As a traveling salesman I had to stoop frequently to pick up my grips, which I grew to dread as the pain when I straightened up was awful. Numerous remedies failed to reach my case. I was induced to try Foley Kidney Pills. Relief was immediate. Say, they are great! Any one afflicted as I was should try a bottle or two of Foley Kidney Pills." Good for pain in the back, rheumatic pains, aching joints, sore muscles. For sale by Medford Pharmacy.

ARROW COLLARS MARLEY 2 1/2 IN. DEVON 2 1/4 IN. ARROW COLLARS CLETT, BRADDOY & CO. INC. MAKERS

A Timely Suggestion See our display of Pottery, a reproduction of the Art of the Aztec Indians. A Vase or Jardiniere selected from this line, will give an increased beauty to your Thanksgiving plants and flowers. Heath's Drug Store Phone 884. The San Tox Store

Thanksgiving PEACE AND PLENTY Even our efforts in this great war have not depleted the inexhaustible resources of this country to the point where Thanksgiving feasts are no longer held. In this, as in other years, the dining tables of the nation will groan with the weight of good things to eat, and all over the country, we still have Plenty. More than that, the boys will soon be home, and through a kind Providence, this year will be a real Thanksgiving.

The Jackson County Bank Established 1888

Again Here's indisputable evidence That you are face to face with some mighty values A lot of Men's Work and Dress Shoes while they last - $3.00 Men's Heavy Rough Neck Sweaters - $1.25 A few Levi Strawss Overalls - $1.50 Khaki Pants going at $1.50 Boys' Underwear Heavy - 35c Men's Suspenders a snap - 25c Men's Work Shirts - 75c Men's Dress Shirts going at - 75c Men's Heavy Work Socks at - 10c Men's Extra Heavy Work Socks - 15c Men's Dress Socks going at - 15c Flannel Shirts Shirts that we have been selling at $2.50 and worth $3 going at while they last $2.00 Men's Suits, Men's Overcoats, Trunks, Suitcases and Bags, Blankets, Men's Hats, Caps and Gloves You can save money on any old thing you want THE CHEAPEST STORE IN THE WEST WILL H. WILSON Push the money under the door

WEEKS & MCGOWAN CO UNDERTAKER Day Phone: Pacific 227. Night Phone: F. W. Weeks, 193-J2. Lady Assistant.

FOR SALE—1915 Ford touring car, new motor, top and seat covers. Looks and runs like new. $450.00, some terms. Auto Exchange, 18 North Grape street, 213*