

BRITISH COMPLETE PLANS FOR SENDING BIG ARMY HOME

LONDON, Nov. 5.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The British government has completed its basic plans for demobilization of the army and providing employment for the men whose sole business for four years has been war. It is estimated that 60 per cent of the men in the army will go back to their old jobs or have new ones awaiting them, but taking care of the remainder, even though every ounce of man-power will be needed after the war, presents a most difficult problem.

It will be a long tedious task to transform millions of men from khaki to civil life and must be done by degrees. By the plan agreed upon these degrees have been fixed upon the needs of industry with certain consideration being given to married men or those who may otherwise be needed in the home.

Record of Each Man

The government has a record of what each man is best fitted for in civil life. The ministry of public service which has efficiently compiled this data has, together with other official agencies, prepared a list of necessary industries in the order of what is deemed their importance. The first few are called "key" trades, many of which produce materials needed for use in other trades. The idea is that it would be useless to release a lot of structural steel workers ahead of the men who produce the steel. The list is complete but will not be announced because of controversy it might arouse.

The fact that a man has a job awaiting him will not insure his early release. The government would like to be rid of that class but it cannot handle more than half the army at one time hence a rigid adherence to industrial needs. A soldier may be a diamond setter with a job to go to, while his trenchmate may be a railway brakeman without a job. The brakeman will be taken first and given an opportunity to go to work.

Mines and Railroads

It is reasonable to suppose that railway workmen, if not heading the "key" list, are very close to the top of it and also that miners are well up. It is vitally necessary to demobilization plans to have the railways in running order and the miners are needed to increase the fuel supply for industries and home comfort. And so on down the long list until practically every recognized trade is included.

When a man has been selected for discharge he will be sent to a collecting camp, the most of which of course will be in France. He will then be sent to a distributing camp in England where he will receive his allowance for civilian clothing. He will be given a month's furlough which will mean that he will be on army pay while getting located in new work. From this stage the minister of labor assumes charge. He will have the aid and co-operation of local employers, associates and labor unions. Already long lists of jobs open to soldiers have been prepared. It remains for the government, employers and unions to get the job and the man together.

NO TENDERNESS TO BE SHOWN HUNS

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Walter Hume Long, secretary of state for the colonies, today disclosed the fact that he was a member of the committee mentioned by the premier on November 29, to consider the terms that should be demanded from Germany. Therefore he could emphasize that the empire need have no anxiety on the ground of undue tenderness on the part of Great Britain and the allies. He said that although he did not desire to enlarge the British empire, he saw no alternative to the solution of the problem of the German colonies save by their inclusion in the empire. Where the natives had been consulted, they overwhelmingly favored that course, he said.

GERMAN SOLDIERS OPPOSE ANARCHY

BERLIN, November 30.—(By Associated Press.) Four thousand non-commissioned officers at a mass meeting today adopted a resolution calling upon the government to end the Bolshevik agitation of Dr. Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, and demanding the convocation of a national assembly.

Phillip Scheidemann, the majority socialist leader, was the chief speaker. He pointed out the difficulties that government was having because of the activities of what he characterized as irresponsible elements. He warmly championed the idea of calling a constituent assembly.

The Spartacus group of ultra radicals announced today that it would hold six meetings on Sunday.

Theaters and Movies

CARTER, THE MAGICIAN, PAGE, TONIGHT ONLY

Mr. Carter.

Mrs. Carter.

Carter, the magician, with his entire new company, a special corps of assistants and tons of magical accoutrements and accessories appears at the Page tonight only. Carter is styled the greatest American magician and has many new and startling illusions, several of which were secured during his five years' tour of the world.

In one part of his entertainment he reproduces an entire spiritualistic seance which he learned first hand from the marvelous Yogi during his recent visit to Simla. In his demonstration a cabinet is built up before the eyes of all beholders, and while Carter remains on the outside apparently miraculous manifestations are visible, chief among which Carter materializes the ghost of Katie King, which spirit creature Sir William Crookes saw appear and vanish in his own home under test conditions for three years.

BARGAIN DAY AT LIBERTY THEATER

At the Liberty theatre tomorrow and on every Tuesday will be known as Bargain Day when many famous successes of the Paramount program will be shown. These pictures are being released and are to be known as the "Success Series." The first one will be Mary Pickford in "The Eagle's Mate." This is the mountain story that Mary Pickford scored such a tremendous success in, a few years ago.

Perhaps you remember the story of the girl, born of a turbulent mountain clan but reared in the peaceful valley, who finally heard the call of the blood and became an "Eagle's" mate.

If you remember it, you'll want to see it again!

If you haven't seen it—Goodness! What a treat you've missed!

Last time tonight, Wallace Reid in "The Source."

Supt. H. L. Walther of the California Oregon Power company, returned Monday from a business trip to Portland.

ASHLAND CITY TAX LEVY 1919 TO BE 16.53 MILLS

ASHLAND, Dec. 2.—Approximately $43,000 will be needed to meet the running expenses of the city aside from other revenues, for the ensuing year. The specific schedules of the budget foot up $42,841.13, involving a levy of 16.53 mills to raise that amount on an assessed valuation of $2,591,729, of which $2,313,920 is represented by city property and $278,700 corporation ownership.

The chief item in the budget, calling for a levy of 6.4 mills, is to meet bond payment and interest and to create a general bond sinking fund, this levy yielding $16,587.01. The bonded indebtedness, outside of Bancroft obligations, is $294,500, represented by $18,000 drawing 4 1/2 per cent, $190,000 5 per cent, and $56,500 5 1/2 per cent. Sewer bonds to the extent of $1,000 will be paid off, and interest charges will be $13,012.50, leaving $2,514.51 as the nucleus of a general bond sinking fund which is to provide systematically for a reduction of the city debt. For the general fund 4.025 mills will yield $10,431.67, this being the second important item in the budget. Street fund, 13 mills, $3,369.23. Library fund, 1.25 mills, $3,239.65. Publicity and Chautauqua fund, 5 mills, $1,295.86. Cemetery fund, .04 mill, $103.67. Sewer fund, .075 mill, $194.38. Park fund, 1.54 mills, $3,991.25. Fire department fund, 1.4 mills, $3,628.41.

Of the city bonded indebtedness, $18,000 is represented by original sewer bonds, $175,000 lithia watered stock, $15,900 park extension, and $56,500 refunding obligations.

It must not be inferred that the $43,000 will meet the city's expenditures for a year. This amount simply represents the levy which will supplement other avenues of receipts and expenditures including water and light departments, municipal taxes and other sources, the aggregate being in six figures. The levy proper will be a trifle more than last year, but the sinking fund provided in this year's estimate will more than offset the difference. This sinking fund is in reality an economic measure on a moderate scale, and as the months go by something tangible is realized with which to meet the major obligations. In reality it is a war savings stamp plan as applied to municipal finances, and the scheme will grow not only in figures but also in favor.

The school district budget this year will be in the neighborhood of nine mills, consequently this implies a levy of about 25.53 mills in behalf of education and civil government for the ensuing annual period.

Preliminary to the city levy the council will meet at city hall, on Wednesday, Dec. 11, 1918, at 8 p. m., to discuss with taxpayers the merits of the budget as above outlined.
