CHURCHES WILL HOLD RED CROSS SERVICES SUNDAY

PORTLAND, Ore. Dec. 14,-Tomorrow is "Red Cross Sunday" when the ministers from every pulpit in Oregon will usher in the Red Cross like the gold stripes issued overseas the work of this great humanitarian organization. The Red Cross visits the sick, gives drink to the thirsty, feeds the hungry, clothes the maked, comforts the afflicted, provides for the widows and the orphans and buries the dead.

Mrs. Saidie Orr-Dupbar, secretary, of the Oregon branch of the National Tuberculosis association, has been asigned the duty of arranging for Red ross Sunday by State Manager H. Witham. In currying out this plan. Mrs. Danbar has written a personal request to all clergymen soliciting their attention and she has received a general response so that there is every assurance that no congregation in the state will be overlooked.

Prepared by the sermons tomorrow the people wil be ready for the membership campaign, which opens Monday and which will continue until December 23. The National Tuberculosis association is not selling scals this year, as the Hed Cross has made an appropriation of $2,500,000 to the association in order that its mem-bers will be able to render every possible assistance to the Red Cross drive. In this confection it may be stated that the Red Cross has estab-lished 76 tuberculoses hospitals in France and a number in Italy and Belgium, for the spread of this disconditions brought about by the war

CHICK EVANS EARNED

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.— Altho Chick Evans, national amateur and open golf champion, did not go to war, as only a few days before Germany was defeated, his record in Red Cross work, just tabulated, shows an amazing performance in golf.

The fifty-two exhibitions particle pated in by Evans, who suggested the plan managed by the Western Golf association under the personal direction of President Charles F. Thomp-son, brought in $250,000 of the $303,005 procured from golfers for the Red Cross.

In order to play these matches Evans traveled 26,250 miles, played in forty-one different cities, and was on the road almost daily from April 23 to Oct. 5.

CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 14. Silver service stripes for army service in the United States. drive by delivering a sermon based on veterans, one for each six months of service, muy not be worn by some officers and men here entitled to wear them.

The sontiment of this class of soldiers is summed up in the words of a widely known regular army officer:
"I feel badly enough about not being sent overseas after 20 years of service without advertising to the world my regrets and the fact that I was not of the elect.'

Remaining at home to train troops has been a bitter disappointment to hundreds of officers who possess the best of army records. In fact, one officer showed more than 60 per cent of the officers of the regular army did not get oversens. This was due to the need of competent instructors to train raw troops and was taken from the lesson furnished by the ease of England which lost most of her of England which lost most of her trained officers in the first year of the war because necessity took them immediately to the front lines.
