

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Charles E. Terrill, sheriff-elect of Jackson county, who assumes office on January 1st, today announced the appointments of his two important assistants in the conduct of that office. H. C. Starr of Ashland, will be chief deputy sheriff. Mr. Starr is secretary of the Ashland lodge of Elks. W. O. Garrett, present deputy sheriff in charge of the taxation department, was named by the sheriff-elect to succeed himself in that position, an appointment that will doubtless give general satisfaction. Mr. Garrett was the opponent of Mr. Terrill for the office of sheriff in the recent campaign.

Try a Stromberg carburetor on your car. Power Auto Co. t*

Lawrence Bateman who left here as one of the drafted men in June, died in France at Base Hospital 45 of pneumonia. His mother, now living at Ontario, Calif., received word from the Red Cross bureau of communication today.

The Sugar Bowl is making enough candy canes for every boy and girl in Medford, 5c each.

Robert Pelouze who recently was awarded his wings in the U. S. aviation service, arrived in Medford Tuesday from San Diego to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pelouze. "Bobbie" is looking fine and expects to re-enter Stanford university where he was a student when he left for France as a member of the Stanford ambulance unit.

Auto curtains and lights, all kinds. Medford Auto Top Co., 20 North Grape, phone 104.

The local Elks lodge has received word from Seattle lodge of Elks of the death of Joe H. Baum on the 17th. Joe Baum was at one time a frequent visitor to Medford as a traveling salesman from Portland and was well known in the Rogue River valley, being a member of the local lodge. His last visit here was with a large theatrical attraction.

Plano—Ellington, Hamilton, sold by H. N. Lofland, at 225 South Oakdale. Liberty bonds taken same as cash. Phone 691-J. 240

Superintendent Neilson of the Pacific and Eastern railway, went to Portland last night to confer with President Turner, on matters connected with that line. Mr. Turner, who formerly lived in Medford, has just returned to Portland from a business trip to Washington, D. C.

A new lot of fancy Newtown apples in holiday containers, just the thing to send away. Schieffelin's Grocery, Medford men who depend on local shoe shining stands for their pedal attractiveness have been in hard lines for the past week as both stands have been closed. Bill Wilson, the colored shoe shiner has been absent from his place of business on West Main street, for a week ill with influenza. Gus Toskam, the Greek who operates the other stand, has been grieving over the death of his brother Pete, who was killed in battle in France a few weeks ago, but opened again for business yesterday. Pete was drafted into service from Jackson county last June.

Jap Art store will open next Sunday, Dec. 22nd.

Prominent Christian scientists informed the Mail Tribune today that in the crowd of opponents of flu masks who attended the council meeting Tuesday night there was only one Christian Scientist and he was there solely in the capacity of a business man. The scientists as usual are strictly adhering to the law and have not even considered opposing the flu mask ordinance.

Magazine subscriptions at prices quoted or advertised by any one. Don't be pestered by solicitors. Do business with a reliable firm. Medford Book Store. 232*

The custom of Medford people calling up the Southern Pacific passenger depot at all times of the day and up to midnight since the telephone company put the ban on giving such information has grown to be such a nuisance that if the practice continues the depot ticket clerks in self defense, will have to politely refuse answers to such inquiries. Many such calls are received at train time and other busy periods.

Pleasant, safe, quick, sure. Dr. Halstead, 227 South Central. 233

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Bass of 235 North Ivy street, left this morning for Roseburg where they will make their future home on a farm near that city.

Fine Xmas mixed candy 25c per pound at the Shasta.

Dr. F. C. Page left this morning to spend the day at Grants Pass on business.

Dr. E. H. Porter has returned from a four months visit in the east. The sanitarium will be opened in a few days, or as soon as the corps of nurses arrive. 232*

A. D. McKenzie of Olympia, Wash, a mining man, is spending a few days in the city and vicinity and was a caller today at the Commercial club.

For the best insurance see Holmes, the Insurance Man.

Private Edward Learned of Applegate, who has been in military service for some time in the artillery, arrived in the city this morning from Fort McArthur near San Pedro, Cal., having been mustered out of service.

WEEKS & MCGOWAN CO UNDERTAKER

Day Phone: Pacific 227. Night Phones: F. W. Weeks, 103-J3. Lady Assistant.

Among callers at the Commercial club today was Jas. R. Ansel of Oakland, Cal., a traveling salesman who makes this city once every year.

There is nothing that marks a person more than jewelry properly worn. It is always a mark of culture and refinement. Martin J. Reddy. 231*

Mrs. C. A. Chapman who has been visiting friends in Portland Creswell returned home yesterday afternoon. Nash Hotel. Special rates, week or month. Steam heat. 241*

James Hilbert of Copper, Cal., manager of the Blue Ledge mine, is in the city on business.

Malted milk 50c lb. De Voe's. friends in Grenada, Cal.

Mrs. W. A. Robinson who has been visiting her son at the Blue Ledge mine, left last evening for her home in Seattle. Her son, W. B. Robinson came down from the mine with her, and is attending to some business matters in the city today.

See Traichler Pelson Inc., for tires, oils, and auto accessories.

James Brophy who has been attending the S. A. T. C. at the University of Oregon, arrived in Medford yesterday on his way to the ranch near Prospect.

Dennison's Gift Dressings 10c as usual. Other kinds at 5c. Medford Book Store. 232*

C. C. Triplett appeared for trial yesterday, but on account of sickness District Attorney Roberts was not able to attend the case and it was postponed to Feb. 15. Mr. Triplett was anxious to get thru with it as he said that it is causing him not only expense but loss of time.

More English walnuts 27c pound at Warner, Wortman & Gore. 231*

From the appearance of the large number of automobiles from the country and the number of people on the street yesterday afternoon, it looked as if the people were getting over the scare of the influenza, and that the Christmas shopping had started in again. Upon inquiry the majority of the merchants dealing in boots and shoes, dry goods and notions said that their trade was better yesterday than for several days, and one shoe dealer said his trade would average yesterday with the trade of a year ago.

See us for Xmas candy 25c lb. in any quantity. The Sugar Bowl keeps the prices down.

Private R. C. Richman, whose home is at Rogue River, arrived in Medford this morning enroute home from Fort McArthur, Cal., having just been given his discharge from service in the artillery.

Sweet grass sewing baskets filled with Shasta chocolates make appropriate gifts.

F. L. Patridge of Batavia, N. Y., stated at the Commercial club Wednesday that he is contemplating moving to Oregon and that he plans to locate in the Rogue River valley.

20 bars soap for $1.00. Warner, Wortman & Gore. 231*

Word has gone out everywhere throughout the country that flu masks must be worn in Medford, and returning soldiers and general travelers after stepping from incoming trains at once inquire where they can purchase masks.

Get your milk, cream, butter and buttermilk at DeVoe's.

The condition of Edward Henselman who suffered an attack of the flu followed by plural pneumonia and was operated on last week at the Sacred Heart hospital to relieve the latter has so far improved that he was removed to his home today.

When it comes to candy, that Nut Sillman has them all going. He sells candy for what others pay for it. District Attorney Roberts is better from an attack of bronchitis and was on the streets yesterday, but said that he was not strong enough yet to attend to business.

Diamonds and good jewelry lend prestige and are all marks of success to the wearer. Martin J. Reddy for diamonds. 231*

Mrs. Lulu Wilson of Ashland, called as nurse for George Putnam, left today for her home.

Dr. Heine, Garnett-Corey Bldg. Jack Daw who has been visiting home on a furlough left yesterday for San Francisco to join his crew on the Oregon.

Daily's Taxi, Phone 15. J. C. Aitken who has been in eastern Oregon on business connected with the fish screen, arrived home yesterday.

Shasta candy is made in Medford. It is also the best. t*

J. W. Mitchell who has been attending a meeting of the fish and game commission in Portland, returned home yesterday.

If quality and a lower price count you will do your shopping at Johnson's, the jeweler. 232*

Valentine Singler, Cecil C. Gall and Arnel Butler who have been attending the training school at Corvallis, came in on the morning train.

Furniture upholstering, mattress making, crating and packing. Douglas, 201 S. Riverdale, phone 162-J. *

Mrs. James Pelton who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Orth left for Ft. Klamath this morning.

All phonographs in one, the Brunswick, see it, hear it, before buying, at Palmer's Piano Place, 28 South Central. 234*

DR. RICKERT

Optometrist

EYES SCIENTIFICALLY TESTED, AND GLASSES PROPERLY FITTED

Suite 1-2 over May Co. NO DROPS USED

D. J. Sullivan, of Carson City, Nev., who is state auditor of Nevada, is a visitor in Medford, having been summoned here by the illness of his wife and two small children with influenza in the Sacred Heart hospital. He arrived several days ago and expects to return home in a few days. He is a guest at the Hotel Holland. The wife and children were here visiting Mrs. Sullivan's mother at 48 Ross avenue, when they were taken ill and were removed to the hospital where they are now doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Valley and their sons and daughters rush to the Japanese Art store to find out something out of ordinary for Xmas gifts.

John Lovell and his son W. C. Lovell of Pocatello, Idaho, came in on the morning train. They are going to look over the country for a farm location, but said that they would prefer to rent for a while.

Again the Sugar Bowl is headquarters for Xmas candy, 25c lb.

H. W. Taylor of Lethbridge, Alberta, arrived in the city yesterday to visit his mother, Mrs. Margaret Taylor on West Tenth street. He will probably spend the winter here.

We carry only the highest standard in quality and our prices are always a little lower. Johnson, the jeweler. 232*

Harry B. Mills of Butte Falls, was in the city yesterday on business.

De Voe wants small show case.

C. M. Grulich and Stanley G. Jewett of Portland, were business visitors in the city yesterday.

Engraved Christmas cards at Haskins' Drug store. 232*

Ralph Jennings of Jacksonville, was visiting friends in the city Wednesday.

Hemstitching, peccotat. All work guaranteed. Variety Hat Shop. t*

Frank W. Rogers arrived in Medford yesterday to spend a few days looking over the city and country.

Dr. H. P. Hargrave, physician, Rooms 408-410 Garnett-Corey Building, phone 230.

Tom Calder of New York City, is among the business visitors in the city today.

We are offering the finest assortment of wrist watches we have ever shown. Johnson, the jeweler. 232*

Our clerks wear flu masks. Shop where every precaution is taken. Johnson, the jeweler. 232*

G. E. Singsdell and family of Kitchikan, Alaska are visiting friends in the city today.

De Voe has a fine line of assorted chocolates at 60c per lb.

Thos. M. Everett and wife arrived in Medford yesterday to spend a few days looking over the city and country.

Handicraft Shop for hemstitching and peccotat at 10c per yard.

G. K. Harrington of Salem, is among the business visitors in the city today.

Electrical Xmas goods. Electric Home Supply Co., 111 West Main St. t*

I. Mullen of Oakland, Cal., is visiting friends in the city for a few days.

Try a Stromberg carburetor on your car. Power Auto Co. t*

Wm. D. Forest came up from Rogue River yesterday to visit with friends in the city.

The flu is under control, but you can't control Sillman, he will sell Xmas mixed candy for 25c lb.

L. E. Schmidt came up from Grants Pass yesterday for a few days visit in the city.

You can drink a pint of cider for a nickel at DeVoe's.

E. M. McKeany who only recently returned from New York, stated today that the export freight rate on apples between New York and Liverpool has been reduced from $2 to $1.25 a box. The local fruit men are making an effort to have the net weight of 38 pounds changed to 45 pounds.

For fire insurance phone 64, corner Eleventh street and S. P. track. D. R. Wood & Co.

Reports were received in the city today that a bad fire occurred in the business district of Ashland some time during last night which destroyed Baughman's clothing store and a bakery establishment.

Medford Auto Top Co., 30 North Grape. Auto top repairing, phone 104.

One reason corn has become popular is

POSTTOASTIES

Never was such corn flakes.

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen

For Christmas

$2.50 to $12.00

Non-leakable and self-filler in one. Sterling and gold mountings. Exchangeable after Xmas at any Waterman dealer until owner has a perfect "fit."

Medford Book Store

George Putnam, editor of the Mail Tribune who has been seriously ill with influenza the past ten days is now reported out of danger and his prompt recovery is expected. The crisis in Mr. Putnam's case was reached Monday night, a week after he was taken sick. Since then the fever steadily declined until today when it was normal.

Shoppers are finding Johnson's the best place to fill their Xmas needs in jewelry, diamonds, etc. 232*

The Fortieth Coast Artillery regiment arrived in San Francisco Tuesday last and was given an enthusiastic welcome by the people of that city. Major George Von der Hellen, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Von der Hellen of Wellen, is a member of the staff, and arrived with his troops.

Electrical Xmas goods. Electric Home Supply Co., 111 West Main St. t*

You can always find something for a quick lunch at DeVoe's.

OBITUARY

BURROUGHS—At Sacred Heart hospital, Dec. 19, of obstruction of the bowels, Grant Burroughs, aged 56 years, two months and 19 days. He came from Lebanon, Ore., to Jackson county 24 years ago and has been a resident since then. He was married to Margaret McAndrews Dec. 29, 1906, at Medford. He leaves his wife, Margaret, one daughter, Margaret, and two sons, Joseph and Gerald, also mother, Mrs. L. A. Burroughs, of Lebanon, Ore., one brother, M. Burroughs of Lebanon, Ore., and two sisters, Mrs. Thos. Warren of Independence, Ore., and Mrs. Adalbert Wilson, Lebanon, Ore. He was a member of the Catholic church of Medford. Funeral services will be held at the Catholic church Saturday at 10 a. m. Burial at Jackson-ville cemetery. Jubon A. Perl, funeral director.

With Medford trade is Medford made

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED—To buy a five or seven-room house. Must be a bargain. Phone 740-M. 232*

SILK BLOUSES

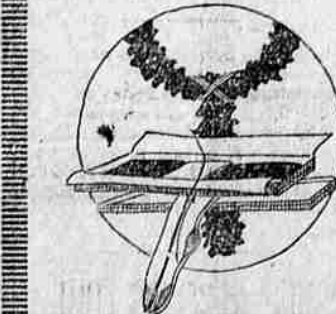

Lovely waists of Georgette, taffeta, nets, messaline and hand made batiste. Various trimmed with beads, embroidery, tucks, lace and hemstitching. The wanted light and dark shades. All sizes, 36 to 44 included.

BEAUTIFUL NEW STRAP PURSES

Greatly in demand now and is splendid for yourself or friend. Made in imitation walrus leather, 3 1/2 x 8 inches in size and lined with colored moire.

DOLLVILLE

deserves special mention. Here you will find all kinds of dolls—big and little, all made in America and wonderfully lifelike. Purchased before prices advanced, you get the benefit of the same. Priced from 15c up. Make the children happy.

SPLENDID CHRISTMAS HOSE

$1.25 to $1.50 Offer a splendid value in silk hosiery at $1.50. They come in the popular shades of bronze, brown, grays, as well as black and white.

CLEMENCEAU HAS LONG CONFERENCE WITH PRESIDENT

PARIS, Dec. 1.—Premier Clemenceau and Colonel E. M. House visited President Wilson this morning at his Paris residence, the Murat mansion. The French premier and the president were engaged for more than an hour in an intimate discussion. Colonel House also conferred with the president during the morning. The president's engagements for the day caused him to postpone his plans for recreation, but he hoped to take a short drive with Mrs. Wilson. An invitation has been extended the president to visit London at Christmas time, but it is improbable that he will accept as he has fully planned to dine Christmas Day with the American troops in the field.

PARIS, Dec. 19.—President Wilson was today handed an address of welcome by the Central Union of French Agricultural Association on behalf of its 2,500 affiliated organizations. The address sets forth that peculiar conditions under which French agriculture is operating and calls the attention of the peace conference to the fact that protection is necessary for its normal development and for the resumption of agricultural effort in regions devastated by the war.

BOLSHEVIKI TROOPS MARCH AGAINST LETTISH REPUBLIC STOCKHOLM, Dec. 19.—Bolshevik troops marching westward have reached a point 100 miles east of Riga and representatives of the Lettish republic have asked the entente legations here for military assistance. The soldiers of Lenin are advancing immediately behind the retiring Germans. They are making hostages, pillaging and levying contributions.

Brunswick for Christmas

We unhesitatingly indorse the Brunswick. We indorse it because, to us, its quality has been convincingly proven. Yet we do not ask you to accept these statements without further proof or without investigation on your own part. We only ask that you hear this beautiful instrument—hear it reproduce records of all makes—then decide whether or not, for you, it is the ultimate Phonograph. Prove to yourself that the Brunswick is your choice. Let your ear decide. Brunswick designs are unique and beautiful, Brunswick cabinet work of superior excellence and finish.

Prices $32.50 to $1500—Easy Terms

We cordially invite a careful and exacting inspection. No obligation implied by your call. Catalogs and terms gladly mailed upon request.

Palmer Piano Place 28 South Central Medford

Suggestions for Christmas

CHRISTMAS, 1918 promises to be the most joyous time the world has known for a long day. You will want to add to the pleasure of those dear to you with some remembrance—and why not a gift that will be as useful as it is pleasing? Let us make a few suggestions in practical gifts—they are well within the range of all pocketbooks and cannot fail to please:

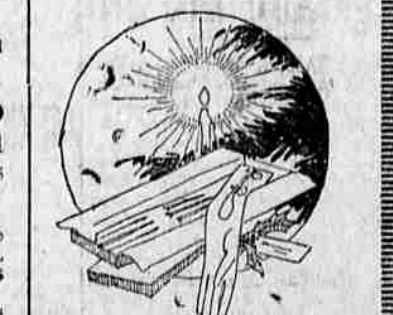

What Nicer Gift for Her Than SILK UNDERWEAR Pretty, dainty, Silk Chepe de Chine and Wash Satin in flesh, pink and white, trimmed with pretty laces and dainty designs in hand embroidery— Silk Chemise $3.50 to $6.00 Silk Camisole $1.75 to $3.00 Silk Vests $2.50 to $5.00

MOCCASINS Nice line of Indian leather moccasins. Nothing nicer for presents for all the family. The prices are right.

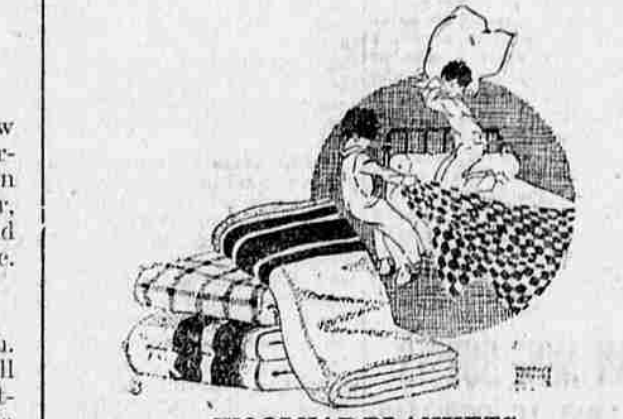

HANDKERCHIEFS Always suitable for presents and nothing more appreciated. We have a big line of all kinds, in plain white and attractive color effects, fancy and plain, some with embroidered corners. All prices.

Comfort Size COTTON BATTS $1.50 Just 100 of these offered. A full comfort size, 72x84. Each batt packed in individual paper carton, sanitary, fresh and ready for use. Weight two pounds.

INDIAN ROBES 10.00 and $12.00 What is nicer for Christmas than a pretty, bright colored robe?

CHRISTMAS GLOVES Our stocks are large—very good kind and popular style is here at reasonable prices. If you have gloves on your list, visit this department and see our splendid display.

WOOLNAP BLANKETS

That are Warm as Can Be—Are $5.98 These are just the sort of coverings that you've longed for these cold, snappy nights—and with their neat plaid patterns, they are pretty enough for any bed.

SILK MULL COFORTERS $10.00 Big double bed comforts that will interest you from whatever standpoint you look at them.

BIG, WARM, COTTON BLANKETS, $4.00 Fine quality Cotton Blankets in gray, tan and white; sizes 62x78—now worth more than this wholesale.

CAPS AND SCARFS—All greatly reduced. Angora and fibro silks in dainty colors and combinations. Priced, per set, only 95c to $2.95

BOUDOIR CAPS—A large assortment of attractive models developed in crepe de chine, satin, nets and laces. Many colors 75c

Make Everyone Happy This Christmas by Buying Useful and Practical Gifts

THE MAY CO. A. W. HUBBS, Manager