WAR CONDITIONS INCREASE COST OF
 GOLD HILL DITCH
 The Gold Hill Irrigation District will hold an election for directors on Tuesday, Jan. 14, with the following as candidates: G. B. Alden, C. R.
 Boyd, F. D. Eismann and Albert N.
 Brashear. The first three comprise the present board of directors.
 On February 11 an election will be called to authorize the issuance of $15,000 additional bonds to finish the system, the cost of labor and materials having advanced tremendously since the bonds were issued two years ago upon estimates made at prices then prevailing. This will make the total bonded indebtedness $75,000. There are between 1200 and 1500 acres in the district.
 Charles Champin of Footh Creek, secretary of the district, who was in Medford Wednesday, states that considering conditions, good progress has been made in construction, and if the new issue of bonds are voted, the entire district will be under water this year.

REFINANCING CITY OF MEDFORD HAS BEEN COMPLETED
 having paid up Main street and Oakdale avenue, and has quite a little surplus on hand to apply.
 Selling the bonds at par and according interest is quite remarkable, especially during the conditions brought on by war times, as the city had received at various times in the past numerous bids but because they were all at below par steadily refused to refund until it could sell at par.
 Bancroft Bonds Refunded
 The bonds refunded are old 10 year Bancroft bonds issued by the city in 1910-11-12, etc., and the bulk of them come due chiefly next year and in 1921, 1922, 1923, and in such large amounts as necessitate refunding.
 In refunding these bonds it is proposed to make the bonds conform to the assessment plan of requiring the people to pay only interest for three years and then one-tenth of the principal each year for 10 years, the new bonds to be payable $25,000 to $30,000 each year after three years so as not to entail extra hardship to the property owners.
 With the completion of this second step in the reorganization, the bugaboo of having to go to the tax levy to meet paying, etc., interest is fore-ever laid at rest as it will give the city 15 years to realize on what little property it has to take, and with the coming of after war days and the city growth in the next five years, it is probable that the property taken in will realize the city a nice little balance for its general fund.
 The new bonds will be:
 $25,000 due January 1, 1923.
 $25,000 due January 1, 1924.
 $25,000 due January 1, 1925.
 $25,000 due January 1, 1926.
 $25,000 due January 1, 1927.
 $25,000 due January 1, 1928.
 $25,000 due January 1, 1929.
 $25,000 due January 1, 1930.
 $25,000 due January 1, 1931.
 $25,000 due January 1, 1932.
 $25,000 due January 1, 1933.
 $25,000 due January 1, 1934.

CAPITAL MOURNS
 ROOSEVELT'S DEATH
 WORK SUSPENDED
 WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Washington today mourned the death of Theodore Roosevelt. While the funeral of the former president was being conducted in Oyster Bay, government activities ceased insofar as possible.
 Flags were at halfmast today and will remain so for thirty days in accordance with the proclamation issued yesterday by President Wilson at Paris. The senate, over which Colonel Roosevelt was the presiding officer for a short time before becoming president, stood adjourned. The house planned to meet for only a brief session.
 Representatives of the different branches of the government left Washington last night to attend the funeral.
 Although under an act passed in 1893, it was not possible to order the various government departments close, work was reduced to a minimum during the services at Oyster Bay.
 Upon convening today the house recessed for two hours as a mark of respect to Colonel Roosevelt's memory. The supreme court did not meet.
 All embassies and legations flew their national flags at half staff throughout the day.

THE PEACE ISSUE.
SECRETARY DANIELS has been severely criticised for his advocacy of a greater navy now that the war is ended and the apparent need of a navy is over. His program has been denounced as bluff and threat. But it is neither. It is only adequate preparedness for the nation, necessary in case the plan for a league of nations is rejected at the peace conference and the old system of balance of power and European politics prevail.
 Premier Clemenceau of France, who does not by any means voice French sentiment, has declared against a league of nations and in favor of the perpetuation of the old system, forever discredited by its result—the great war, with its 6,000,000 killed and its one hundred billion money losses. The premier, speaking in the French chamber of deputies, said:
 "There is an old system of alliances called the 'balance of power.' It seems to be condemned nowadays, but if such a balance had preceded the war, if England, the United States, France and Italy had agreed, say, that whoever attacked one of them attacked the whole world, the war would not have occurred. The system of alliances, which I do not renounce, will be my guiding thought at the peace conference if your confidence sends me there."
 To this President Wilson, in his Manchester speech, replied that America was not interested in the peace of Europe, but in the peace of the world and did not intend to enter the entanglements of European politics, as follows:
 "If the future had nothing for us but a new attempt to keep the world at the right pole by a balance of power, the United States would take no interest in it, because she will join no combination of power which is not a combination of all."
 Commenting upon Clemenceau's declaration, the London Daily News accurately sums up the situation:
 "If this policy is insisted on, it means one thing and one thing only. It means that France repudiates the idea of a League of Nations. It means that the world is not to be organized for peace but reorganized for war.
 America will have no choice but to leave Europe to its own ways and its own fate. She will, of course, suffer the penalty which all will suffer.
 Since she has failed to induce the world to disarm, she will have to arm herself, and so the world will be started again on the race of competitive armaments leading certainly and unalterably to war." America cannot and will not undertake to guarantee an imperialistic peace by alliance or otherwise—it did not enter the war for any such purposes. It has no interest in the reactionary claims for territorial aggrandizement which threaten to make peace only a truce between the nations by the return to the principles that governed the congress of Vienna.
 If the peace conference insists upon the revival of the old discredited diplomatic policies of the balance of power theory that has caused the wars of the three last centuries, there is nothing for America to do but to withdraw from the conference and prepare to adequately safeguard her interests on land and sea—for we need no European alliances to maintain any balance of power. Our old policy of isolation is better than plunging into the political intrigues of Europe without compensation. The only object for participation in European affairs is to secure the guarantee of the future peace of the world and the security and freedom of the nations.

Land of Opportunity for Street Waifs and Orphans NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—America as a land of opportunity even for street waifs, orphans and foundlings was recalled by the recent death in Sitka, Alaska, of John G. Brady, former governor of that territory, and the fact that when a child young Brady had been taken from an almshouse and placed in the custody of the Children's Aid society of New York which educated him and placed him on the road to fame and fortune.
 Hundreds of other cases similar to ex-Governor Brady's, it is said, could be cited by the organization which for more than half a century has been taking homeless boys and girls off city streets and sending them to farms in the west where they grew up to be self-reliant, trustworthy and honored citizens. A certain delicacy surrounds the publication of the names of the more noted of these former waifs, but the report of the Children's Aid society for 1918 shows the following harvest of "careers" up to date:
 One governor of a state, one governor of a territory (John G. Brady of Alaska); two members of congress, two district attorneys, two sheriffs, two mayors, a justice of the supreme court; a federal judge; four state judges, two college professors, seven high school principals, two school superintendents, an auditor-general of a state, nine members of state legislatures, 24 clergymen, one cashier of a life insurance company, two artists, a senate clerk, six railroad officials, eighteen journalists, 24 bankers, 19 physicians, 35 lawyers, 12 postmasters, 3 contractors, 27 teachers, 4 civil engineers "and a vast number of other business and professional men, clerks, mechanics, farmers and their wives and others who have acquired property and filled positions of honor and trust." Among the American forces sent overseas, it is pointed out in the report, are twelve commissioned officers and about 7000 soldiers and sailors who were once wards of the Children's Aid society. All were rescued from the streets or from asylums and corrective institutions.

TRANSITION PERIOD PROVES BENEFICIAL
 WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Transition from a war to a peace basis has proceeded thus far with very considerable smoothness, says a general summary of business conditions issued today by the federal reserve board.
 Such slackening of business as has occurred was described as due to conservatism. In the New York district "industries are marking time, awaiting developments," due in part to a feeling that prices will decline.
 Other districts report a similar condition, but say generally the state of things calls forth the opinion that the transition period is proving beneficial in its effects. Thus far the process of readjusting labor is said to have caused very little inconvenience since labor set free from war industries has been absorbed steadily by general business, relieving an existing shortage. Wages have not been reduced, and in some cases have been increased.

STEADY GROWTH OF COMMERCIAL CLUB
 SHOWN IN REPORT Interesting statistics relative to the rejuvenation of the Commercial club during the past ten months will be presented at the annual meeting of the club at the Public Library at 7:30 tonight in the annual report of the secretary, Mrs. Atlanta Schatchwell, which is in part as follows: In February 1 found 37 enrolled members, eight of whom were holding back their monthly dues on accounts owed them by the former secretary; and four holding back their dues on accounts owed them by the club.
 The membership has steadily increased during the past ten months until there are now 130 enrolled.
 Approximately 900 booklets have been mailed out in response to applications for information regarding Medford and vicinity, and 700 letters of inquiry have been answered.
 Have assisted 50 families through correspondence and literature to become located in Medford and surrounding country, and am corresponding with others contemplating coming here either for a home or for business purposes.
 Summarizing the financial statement, will say that all the current expenses have been met during the past ten months and about $450 has been disbursed on the previous endebtedness.

 HUN REGIME
 This picture of General Ludendorff, who was the power behind the old military regime, has just arrived in America.
 With him is Baron von Richthofen, who three days before the picture was snapped had been wounded in the head.

BRITISH TROOPS AND NAVAL CREWS
 SHOW DISCONTENT
 LONDON, Jan. 8.—The agitation of crews of mine sweepers on account of the slowness of demobilization has been settled by the admiralty which has decided that only volunteers should be engaged in sweep-mines. About 65 per cent of those engaged in mine sweeping volunteered for that service.
 LONDON, Jan. 8.—Discontent has made its appearance in the grand fleet over the slowness of demobilization, especially among the auxiliaries whose duty it has been to sweep up mines. The crew of many of the auxiliaries were recruited from the fishing fleets and the men wish to share in the huge profits now being made by the fishermen.
 Further demonstrations by the soldiers took place today in London and other centers.
 The vicinity of the war office was invaded by lorries filled with men and by marching soldiers yesterday.
 On the sides of the lorries were signs reading: "Get a move on; we won the war; give us our tickets," and similar sentiments. The men were generally well behaved and treated the matter humorously, although they refused to disperse until a deputation was seen by officials, who assured them that Viscount Milner, secretary of state for war, and General Sir William Robertson, were then in conference on the grievances advanced by the soldiers.
 One of the chief causes of dissatisfaction is the belief held by numbers of troops that they are to be sent to Russia.

TRANSPORTS SAIL WITH YANKS FROM FRANCE FOR HOME
 WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The transport President Grant, the battleships Montana and South Dakota and the hospital ship Comfort have sailed from France for New York with 284 officers and 7,419 men.
 The President Grant is due January 16 with the 2nd field artillery, 51st field artillery, 83rd field artillery, headquarters detachment, 8th field artillery brigade, Company H, 347th infantry, 113th trench mortar battery, 69 casual officers and about 250 sick and wounded. Most of these are regular army units.
 The battleship Montana, due January 17, has on board the 3rd and 4th trench mortar battalions, complete, and a detail of 17 officers of the 56th coast artillery regiment.
 The battleship South Dakota, due the same day, is bringing the 56th coast artillery regiment, less Battery F, and the 47th aero squadron.
 The Comfort, due January 20, in addition to naval personnel, has on board seven officers and 31 men of the army as sick and wounded. The third trench mortar battalion is to be divided between Forts Crockett and Logan and Camps Grant and Pike.
 About 20 per cent of the 4th trench mortar battalion will go to Camp Mc-Arthur, the balance scattering. Of the 56th coast artillery regiment, seven officers and 800 men are bound for Fort Terry, the rest being scattered among various posts.

UNCEASING MISERY
 Some Medford Kidney Sufferers Get Little Rest or Comfort.
 There is little sleep, little rest, little peace for many a sufferer from kidney trouble. Life is one continual round of pain. You can't rest at night when there's kidney backache.
 You suffer twinges and "stabs" of pain, annoying urinary disorders, lameness and nervousness. You can't be comfortable at work with darting pains and blinding dizzy spells. Neglect these ailments and serious troubles may follow. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of disorder. Thousands have testified to their merit. Medford readers will find convincing proof in the following testimony: Daniel Flaten, C street, Jacksonville, Ore., says: "It is some six or seven years ago since I used Doan's Kidney Pills but I cannot forget how much good they did me. I suffered from weakness of the kidneys and other disorders that go with kidney complaint. I pained and ached all over. I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and received benefit from the very first. Soon they had me straightened up in good shape." Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Flaten had. Foster-Milburn

SIMPLE BURIAL
 SERVICES HELD
 FOR ROOSEVELT
 tears were running down his face.
 The casket was not opened in the church.
 The church service of ten parts included the sentences the psalter, (psalms 39 and 90), the Scriptural lesson, Corinthians 1:15 the colonel's favorite hymn, "How Firm a Foundation," recited by the rector, the Lord's prayer, and the prayers for grace, thankfulness, transfiguration and support.
Profusion of Flowers Sagamore Hill was astrir early this morning and flowers, which began to arrive yesterday notwithstanding Mrs. Roosevelt's request that none be sent, were received in great profusion. Many, for lack of space in the house, were sent to the church.
 The church service, beginning at 12:55 o'clock was concluded in 18 minutes. The Episcopal ritual was followed and the only mention of the ex-President's name was when the rector spoke the word "Theodore" in the final prayer.
 The casket was borne to the altar rail by porters. Draped in an American flag, it was covered also with the two battle flags upon which rested a large wreath of acacias tied with the yellow ribbon of the cavalry.
 These flowers, the only tribute near the casket, were from the colonel's comrades of the famous unit of Spanish-American war days.
Wreaths From Officials Among the flowers banked against the altar rail were wreaths from President Wilson, Vice President Marshall, the senate and house, Secretary Daniels and the officers and men of the battleship Indiana. Back of the altar were hung two American flags, while another floated from the entrance to the church.
 The guests were received personally by Captain Archibald Roosevelt, assisted by William Loeb, Jr., who was Mr. Roosevelt's secretary during his presidency. In service uniform Captain Roosevelt exchanged salutes as they came down the aisle with General March, chief of staff of the United States army, and Admiral Winslow, representing the navy, whom he conducted to their seats.
 Bishop Frederick Burgess of Long Island, was on the rostrum, but took no part in the services.
 H. E. McDorman and M. Shennine of San Francisco are in the city today on business.

COMPLETE CASUALTY

 ican expeditionary forces have been sent to Washington and one thousand additional clerks have been put to work in the adjutant general's office to get them out as speedily as possible.
 John Greb came in from the Eagle Point district this morning to do some trading and visit friends in the city.
 P. B. Wickersham and S. S. Bowman of Portland, are business vis-

BOSWELL MINE
 ROBBER CAUGHT
 AT SALT LAKE
 SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Jan. 8.— Robert Wesley Dewitt, who has been working here for several weeks as a policeman for the Oregon Short Line railway, was arrested here today for complicity in the robbery of two miners near Grants Pass, Ore., in April, 1918, at which time $10,000 in gold bullion is said to have been stolen. Dewitt has admitted his part in the robbery, according to Chief Deputy Sheriff W. E. Shoppe.
 According to the chief deputy, sheriff, Dewitt, in his confession, said that he and another man, Jefferson S. Howell, held up the miners near Grants Pass, bound and gagged them and fled into the woods with the bullion. In order to make their escape more certain the men parted, the alleged confession declares, and Dewitt has not since seen Howell.
 Dewitt's confession, according to the sheriff's deputy, alleges that Howell took with him the bullion stolen from the miners at the time of parting.
 The above dispatch refers to one of the two men who last spring attacked R. Boswell and his son at the Boswell mine, near Holland, bound and tied them to trees, while they made way with what was understood at the time to be $6,000 worth of bullion. The identity of the two robbers was practically established shortly after the robbery and the search for them has been continuous ever since. R. Boswell, owner of the mine, is a former Medford paving contractor. He had been in Medford visiting for several days until this morning when he went to Grants Pass for a visit there.
