

ARTHUR GEARY TELLS OF DEATH OF LOCAL FLIERS

PORTLAND, Jan. 10.—After six months active service in the aviation branch of the American forces in France, Lieutenant Arthur M. Geary of Portland has returned. He came direct from Garden City, L. I., where he received his discharge last Thursday.

Lieutenant Geary was granted a commission after training at the second officers' camp at the Presidio, and sent to Kelly Field, Texas, where he acted as assistant executive officer for seven months. He was in similar work at the air service concentration camps in England and France for four months prior to being detailed for duty at air service headquarters in France.

The experiences and brave acts of several Oregon fliers were described last night by Lieutenant Geary. "There were few Oregon boys who saw actual fighting over the lines, but among those was Lieutenant Rodger Hitchcock of Medford. After being mortally wounded by machine gun fire on September 8, Lieutenant Hitchcock, in a dying condition, landed his machine and observer behind the American lines. Lieutenants Newell Barber of Medford and Hugh Bloomfield of Gladstone also lost their lives doing brave work."

Lieutenant Roscoe Fawcett, former Portland sporting writer, received injuries when he fell in a flight from London to Paris on a mission to see General Foullos, according to Lieutenant Geary. "The crash netted him two broken jaws, a broken nose and the loss of several teeth in addition to sprains and bruises."

Lieutenant Geary has three brothers who are also in the American air service. Lieutenant E. A. Geary is now in Medford from Camp Morrison, Va. R. E. Geary is flying at March Field, Riverside, Cal., and Lieutenant Roland W. Geary is completing an advanced course in aerial machine gunnery at Olcott, Texas.

STATE FEDERATION FAVOR BOLSHEVIK

PORTLAND, Jan. 10.—Resolutions demanding the immediate withdrawal of American troops now in Russia and declaring that intervention in Russia "appears to violate" the declaration of President Wilson that we are fighting for the self-government and undictated development of all people, were adopted here today by the State Federation of Labor. The resolutions demanded that the people of Russia be permitted to settle their own affairs "as continued intervention can have but one result, that is, the re-establishment in Russia of the rule of autocracy."

During debate on the resolution, Floyd Hyde, delegate from a local shipwright's union, declared that "United States troops now intervening in Russia are international scabs," and added: "Russia now has a more democratic government than we have—the soviet represents more than 80 per cent of the people, which is better representation than we are getting."

FAVOR TRIAL OF FORMER KAISER

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Proceedings against the former German emperor are advised in a special report by a sub-committee of the commission charged with inquiring into violations of the laws of war appointed two months ago. Plans for a tribunal which will try cases in which violations are alleged have already been submitted.

Although final conclusions may not be reached in a majority of cases for some months, it is said that it is not to be assumed that practical steps have not been taken to arrest offenders.

After Your Baby Is Born

Think Now About the Time to Come Afterwards.

When you hold in your arms your tiny new infant, he auro that you can feel that before its arrival you did all in your power to give to it a happy prenatal history. Scientists say that the thoughts and feelings of the expectant mother greatly affect the health and disposition of the future infant.

For over half a century thousands of women who have used the time-honored remedy, Mother's Friend, say that they entirely escaped nausea, nervousness and that peculiar distressing feeling so usual where nature is unaided. They thus preserved a wonderfully bright and happy disposition, which reflects so markedly upon the unborn child.

By the regular use of Mother's Friend the nerves are made and kept soft and elastic to readily yield to nature's demand for expansion without the usual wrenching strain. The nerves are not drawn upon, and as a consequence the expectant mother is calm and serene and the nights are not disturbed with nervous twitchings, and the crisis is one of joy and happiness. Write the Bradford Regulator Company, Dept. K, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their Mother's Friend, of value to every woman, and get a bottle of Mother's Friend from your druggist and begin a treatment that will bring real results.

AT THE RIALTO TONIGHT AND TOMORROW

If your husband not only objected to your taste in motor cars, insisting on one of his own selection, but bought sables for another woman (to make you jealous) as well, would you immediately lose no time in suing for a divorce? Come to the Rialto theatre tonight or tomorrow and see just how Mollie Thornhill (Constance Talmadge) solves the problem of the motor car and sables, in her latest picture. Sam and Mollie Thornhill, a young English couple, are happy indeed, until the serious question of a motor car arises. Mollie wants this and Sam wants that with the result that Sam, in a rage, goes off to make

Mollie jealous and attempts this by the sables-for-another-method, leaving the bill around for her to find. Mollie not only finds the bill, but also the speediest way of divorcing Sam and starts off to tour the country in a car of a make which she is sure Sam disapproves. Sam goes to a country house and tries to drown his sorrows in the merry whirl of amateur theatricals. Mollie, approaching this same house, breaks down and is compelled to be a guest in the house which shelters Sam. Here, thru the medium of "A Pair of Silk Stockings," which Mollie loses, the two are rejoined and are remarried by the vicar in the village.

WOMEN ATTEND G. O. P. LOVE FEAST FOR FIRST TIME

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Two women occupied seats in the republican national committee at its meeting here today for the first time in the history of the party. They were admitted to the inner council of the party on proxies.

The action is taken to mean that in the future women will be urged to take an active part in every branch of national republican politics. They were Mrs. Josephine Corliss Preston of Washington, who held the proxy of S. A. Perkins, national committeeman from that state, and Miss Mary Garrett Hay of New York, who held the proxy of Herbert Parsons.

The committee began its all-day love-feast session at 10 a. m. with an executive business session. A roll call showed that every state was represented. Chairman Will H. Hays read a lengthy report in which he reviewed in detail his activities during his first year and analyzed the republican victory at the congressional elections last November.

New members of the committee were elected to fill vacancies in several states as follows: Maine, A. J. Sweet; New Jersey, H. F. Keon; Virginia, C. B. Slomp; Wyoming, P. Sullivan.

The committee adopted resolutions on the death of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt.

Chairman Hays and other members of the committee discouraged every attempt made to boom candidates for president. They took the position that party leaders should wait a year before seriously discussing qualifications of the many men named by their friends for the presidential nomination. It was evident from the informal gossip that there would be no scarcity of candidates in 1920.

GERMANS FIGHT FOR POSSESSION OF NEWSPAPERS

BERLIN, Wednesday, Jan. 8.—(S. P. M.)—Details of the achievement by government troops last night, in which Dr. Liebknecht's newspaper organ, the Red Flag, was suppressed, show the invasion of the newspaper premises came as a surprise to the Spartacists, and troops of the Red Guard there. The defenders hastily barricaded themselves behind rolls of print paper, but were overcome.

The government is now occupying the plant in which numerous machine guns and rifles were found concealed. A score of Spartacist guards entered the editorial rooms of the Tagesliche Rundschau Tuesday night and threatened to stop the publication of that journal. The invaders were later driven off by government troops and the newspaper appeared today.

Reports from outside show that the Rheinische Westfalische Zeitung of Essen, the Dortmund Nachrichten, the Disseldorfer Nachrichten and the Zeitschau Volksblatt have been forcibly seized by the Spartacists. In addition to the Brunswick Nachrichten, the Spartacists have taken possession of the Landes Zeitung and the General Anzeiger, these three being the only bourgeois papers in the city.
