EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Last Saturday evening C. H. Childer who is in the employ of A. Hubbard on the headquarters of Clarks Creek came out and spent the night with us and Mr. Edgar Wright, one of the Medford jewelers, also came out and spent the night and the next day, spending the day hunting eagles, returning Monday morning on the Harmsen jitney. He and Mr. Goin went out together and between them gathered quite a number of stones, possibly 50 pounds, and some of them appeared to be very good. There seems to be a kind of craze on the subject of hunting eagles, since my little notice a few weeks ago on the subject. From what I learn the best of those that Mr. Goin is getting, after they are dressed, will be sent or taken back to the eastern market.

In my last I mentioned the death of one of our prominent women, Mrs. Ella A. Florey, wife of A. J. Florey, who died Feb. 1, 1919. She was born Aug. 27, 1867, on Foothills creek, Jackson county, Oregon, being the oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Nye, and during her infancy they settled near Prospect, Ore., where she lived until she was married on Dec. 25, 1886, and soon after her marriage they moved to Eagle Point, where she spent the rest of her days, aged 52 years, 8 months and 27 days. About 1910 she was converted and some months after united with the Baptist church of this place and from that time was a very active member of the church. She was also quite an active member of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, assisting in the organization of unions in the outlying districts. She was a kind and devoted wife and mother, and as an evidence of the respect in which she was held there was one of the largest funeral processions that has ever followed a corpse from here to the cemetery. The services were conducted at the grave in the Central Point cemetery by the pastor of the Baptist church of Medford, and his remarks were very appropriate to the occasion. She leaves her husband, Andrew J. Florey, and six children, Mrs. Floy Von der Hollen, Mrs. Chauncey Florey, Andrew J. Florey Jr., Mrs. Marguerite Reeter, Theodore A. Florey and Judge Florey, beside her mother, Mrs. A. Nye, her sister, Mrs. Joe Phipps, and brother Nelson Nye, besides a large number of warm friends and neighbors to mourn her loss.

U. S. Bookbath of Klamath Falls came in Monday evening expecting to take the P. & E. train Tuesday morning for Butte Falls, but was disappointed. He remained here until Wednesday morning and started to take the Moonan stage for Derby to connect with the Derby-Butte Falls stage.

Delton A. Smith and William Cross of Butte Falls came in and spent Monday night, taking the Harmsen jitney for Medford Tuesday morning.

C. H. Natwick and A. G. Bishon were among the business callers Tuesday morning and Mr. Natwick reports that his daughter, Miss Gladys, had just started for Kentucky via Eugene and Portland, where she will stop and visit friends.

Guy Pruett, Wm. Perry and wife and James McCaslin were among the callers Tuesday.

Art Nichols and wife have been here the past few days from Siskiyou county, California, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols.

Mr. Neilson, the accommodating and efficient superintendent of the P. & E. railroad made a trip to Butte Falls on the little motor car and took seven passengers and I understand that he left seven who needed to go from Medford.

ing that it would start up again in a few days and there seemed to be general rejoicing, not only on our own account, but on account of the people living along the line and at Butte Falls.

Tuesday evening Miss Vera Zimmerman of Trail came in on the P. & E. train to visit her uncle, aunt and other relatives at the Farmer hotel. Speaking of that hostelry, Miss Minnie Abel, a granddaughter of the host and business of that hotel came over to the house to get the milk for that institution, and while here I asked her about the sick folk over there, and she said that they were all getting along quite well and in the run of conversation I asked how many there were, and she named over just 29, and they were all related by blood or marriage except Ira Dunlap, his son and Mr. Schelvey, and they have been confined there with the flu; but that Mr. Dave Abel and his son John, his nephew, Mr. Lawson Abel, Mr. Marford Zimmerman and Miss Minnie Abel were going to start today for Halvay, Oregon. The Abel family, the wife and nine children, came first—she is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zimmerman—came in to visit her parents early in the winter. A short time ago Mr. Abel came in from Canada and gave his family the flu, and the result has been they have had to remain all winter, but now they are getting well enough to begin to scatter out. They have surely had a time.

R. A. Felty and A. G. Bishon were among the business callers Wednesday morning, and so was W. E. Hammond and one of the Eadler boys, who has just received his discharge, came in and went up to his home on Lake creek and reports that his brother has been discharged, but remained in Medford.

Mrs. Robertson is recovering from the flu. Elmer Robertson arrived home Sunday from Camp Lewis, having been discharged. Albert McCabe received his discharge and arrived home Monday. Owen Conover came home several days before.

Most of the boys from this neighborhood have already arrived home, only two or three having gotten as far as France. Corporal Louis Hiss of the aviation corps, who lives at the Frio Ferry, received his discharge and arrived home last week. W. R. Zimmerman, a former Reese creek boy has also arrived home. J. F. Wakelield went to Central Point Monday to move his sister-in-law Gladys Natwick who has been visiting at home for several weeks left for Portland Tuesday.

This has been a very favorable winter for the stockman, very little snow, the range has been nice and green.
