

PORTO RICANS FEAR PUNISHMENT

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Feb. 11.—Members of the graduating class of the University of Porto Rico who recently signed a petition to the legislature asking that a memorial to President Wilson be so amended as to make a definite demand for the independence of Porto Rico are now fearful that their action will result in refusal to appoint them as teachers in the public schools.

The commissioner of education, Paul G. Miller has sent to the dean of the university a letter in which the commissioner said that his attention had been called to the action of the students, and added: "Since this request is made by persons who are American citizens and at a time when the nation has been exceedingly careful to scrutinize the loyalty of all its citizens you are hereby directed to furnish me with a list of any members of the graduating class of the normal school who may desire to enter teaching service. I shall not appoint or approve the nominations by school boards of persons concerning whose loyalty to the United States of America there may be any doubt. Please let me have the list."

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Mrs. Herman Meyer Jr., of Lake Creek and the two McCaslin girls came out on the Harbush auto stage Thursday and the former took the E. P. L. C. stage for her home and took Harbush took the two young ladies up to the Corbin orchard, where their father is engaged. Our new town pound that has been built along the county road between the Snowy Butte grist mill and the warehouse, was scarcely finished before our new town marshal, George Branson, the miller, had four of Walter Wood's hogs in it. The gossip on the street for a few days was to the effect that he was going to test the legality of the stock law in our little village, but after having them fed for a few days he decided to pay the charges and take them home. It seems like an imposition on good nature for a small town like this that is dependent on the surrounding country for its very existence, to take up people's stock that happen to straggle into town and have them impounded in such a way. But there are a few people in our midst who are too poor or indifferent to fence their lots, so have to discommodate those who contribute a good share toward their support, simply for their accommodation. But such is life in the far west. Mrs. Nettie Grover, formerly of Eagle Point, but now of Medford, is here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Kaughton. Mr. and Mrs. Al Mayfield of Ashland are also here with Mr. and Mrs. Knighton. Mrs. Mayfield is a sister of Mrs. K. and she has been in poor health this winter, so they came to assist in caring for her. In my last I mentioned that it was thought that the P. & E. railroad would be in operation again in a short time. I was met on the street the afternoon that I wrote the letter by one of our said, reliable citizens, and he gave me the item, but later when I had more time to investigate, learned that it was started by a remark made by a traveling salesman that opinion in Medford seemed to be that the P. & E. would start up again in a few days, illustrating the old adage that "a drowning man will catch at a straw." The section gang's motor car goes up about every other day to Butte Falls and that breaks the monotony and encourages us to hope that it will not be so bad as at first represented—a total removal of the road. Thursday was one of our dismal rainy days and our streets were as empty as a last year's bird's nest, there seemed to be no one at home in the town and that everybody in the country had stayed at home, although there was one man, Aden Haselton, formerly of this place, came in from Portland and spent the night, and so did Margaret Riley, but the next day made up for Thursday's lack for in the morning John Goin, our agent man, went to town with Rob Harbush, and by noon that day I met Mr. P. S. Anderson and V. E. Brittsen. Mr. Anderson owns the old Vatch place on Rogue river, a few miles above here, and Mr. B. and his brother are running the ranch and keeping his dairy. I also met Mr. Charles Peyton of Peyton. He was on his way to Arizona and reported that his mother, Mrs. R. E. Peyton had just returned from Aberdeen, where she had been to visit her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Dawson. A. G. Bishop was also among the business callers. C. E. Bellevs and A. J. Howard, the turkey man, was also among Thursday's callers. Mr. Howard says that he has secured 65 turkey hens and that they are doing fine, but not laying yet. Edean Johnson of the Johnson Produce company, Central Point, and E. Clark of the same company, were here for dinner Friday and so were Messrs. Anderson, Brittsen, Bellevs, Howard, T. F. McCabe, and daughter Helen and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Albert McCabe. Our Mayor John Nichols, who has been housed up for the past two weeks, was on the streets again Friday. Bert Clarno was a business caller and so were George Given, George Stanwell and Charles Cincade and Mr. Samples, the farmer on the Alivista orchard, Benjamin Brophy, Thomas Stanley and wife, W. H. Crandall, Albert McCabe, besides others who were strangers. The cause of so many being in town Friday probably was that the Johnson produce truck was to be out that day to gather in the cream, chickens and eggs around here and the Jackson County Creamery truck was to come and go as far as Lake creek to gather cream cans in that region. E. H. Pickett of Medford and Audley Meyer of Lake creek, Mr. Pickett with the Jackson company truck, came in about 6 p. m. for supper and reported that the roads might be worse than what they are but that they are had enough. Today, Saturday, is another quiet day here. There seems to be but few persons on the streets. I noticed that Miss Allison Officer and her cousin, Miss Hazel Bronson were on the streets yesterday for the first time that I have seen Miss Allison since she had the flu. Mr. R. J. Craik of Wellen was here for dinner today.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She mixed Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a quantity of Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Wet wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrant. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
