Peruzzi as Ashland delegates to attend the peace conference at Portland February 16 and 17, where ex-President Taft will be one of the prominent delegates nationally.

New whiskey containers are the order of the day. The latest one-dispenser hot/teapot, et al. covered here is the ordinary hot water bottle, and early in the week a foreigner, claiming Portland as his habitat, was arrested here with several of these secreted about his waist measurement, which it is unnecessary to state was abnormally enlarged. He hailed from Redding. The city demanded $75 for this escapade, and then the county stepped in and wanted $250 in cash as an additional bonus, with the penalty of going to jail for 50 days also.

A complete service, honoring the memories of both Lincoln and Washington, was held by the patriotic assembly of the high school on Wednesday morning of this week, with Rev. W. L. Wellinger as orator of the occasion.

A men's quartet, figuratively sailing the briny deep without a harmonic rudder, was incidentally a phase of a public gathering here the first of the week. Tenors and basses struck up the refrain, "We are sail—" but "got caught in the breakers," and being furling until a second attempt speedily witnessed a like result. In desperation the minor tenor pinned all hands to quarters in concert with, but unavailingly. The abstract singer gazed abstractedly, the physician turned two pages of the blue book instead of one, the dentist worked the reverse pedal on the sheet music, while the sage of Winer Cove, as basso profundo, awaited the outcome with manifest composure. In the meantime an instrumentalist in the orchestra hit an anchor to windward by hitting the piano keys a flick which reestablished the proper tempo, whereupon the quartet at once pursued the even tenor and basso of their respective ways to the edification of all present.

Dr. J. B. Webster and wife have come to Portland for a trip of recreation, expecting to return about February 15, when his office headquarters will be in the Sanatorium. His residence will be in rooms at the Vendome, 425 East Main street.

A Buick Six, owned by Ross Small, with a young lady chauffeur at the wheel, ran head on into the Mitchell clothing store, on the Plaza, Monday afternoon. Not only was the plate glass front shattered, but the entrance approaches were damaged. The car slipped to the garage under its own power, but was stayed on considerably. Inexperienced driving is supposed to have been the cause of the accident.

W. C. James, Medford violinist, visits Ashland Thursdays of each week, with headquarters at the Andrews studio in Auxiliary hall.

Owing to a serious accident having happened to Mrs. Lares in San Francisco, Mrs. J. C. Ferguson, a sister of the injured woman, has been summoned to that city. Mrs. Lares is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd of Ashland.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. A. A. Marske on North Main street, Friday afternoon this week. On the evening of the same date the Epworth League will hold a Valentine social in the church parlors.

Charley E. Davis, well known S. P. engineer, after protracted illness, was taken last Saturday to the company's hospital at San Francisco. M. E. Cyster accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Davis to the city. Many friends of the genial engineer, who is critically ill, will hope for his speedy recovery.

January's warmest day was on the 22nd, 64 degrees, and the coldest on the 1st, 11 degrees. The rainfall was 2.28 inches, not as much as took place last Saturday night, 2.338 inches, the heaviest precipitation here within a few hours for the past eight years.

P. W. Churchill of Yreka, was in town recently and sold the Lamkin Bros. at 75 h. p. motor engine for use on their extensive Siskiyou county grain ranch. The machine will pull five drills and five disc harrows at the same time. Young Churchill has just been released from the aviation corps in the military service.

Buck Richardson, of Klamath county, brother-in-law of Mrs. H. G. Mathes of Ashland, was recently found dead in the Shoal creek section of that county. He had started out to look after stock, and not returning a search was made. His horse and rifle were found first, and later on the body of Richardson was discovered. Indications are that his rifle was accidentally discharged, shattering a limb, and that he died of hemorrhage and exposure.

The local contingent of Boy Scouts, under the leadership of Manual Trainer King of the high school, demonstrated a series of tactics on the streets last Saturday. The membership is nearly 40. In the evening, as guests of the city, they enjoyed a substantial dinner at the Hotel Ashland, chaperoned by Rev. C. A. Edwards, Mayor Lamkin and O. F. Carson. All of this trio being classified as "good old scouts."
