

LINCOLN AND ROOSEVELT THEMES FOR PARTISAN ELOQUENCE AT ANNUAL REPUBLICAN LOVE FEAST

Repressed Emotions of G. O. P. Find Vent at Lincoln Banquet—McCammant Speaks on Life of Lincoln and Sargent Pays Tribute to Memory of Roosevelt.

The yearly love feast gathering of the republicans of Jackson county, the annual banquet of the Lincoln club, held at the Hotel Medford last night and attended by 300 persons from all parts of the county, many of whom were women, was the usual brilliant gathering with much speech-making and music.

Altho the assemblage was gathered primarily to do honor to the memory of Lincoln last night, the memory and achievements of Theodore Roosevelt shared with those of the great emancipator president. All breeds of republicans were present—standpatters and Bull Moosers, reformed standpatters and reformed Bull Moosers, and half reformed ones of both kinds.

Partisanship Rampant Altho peace has not yet been formally declared the fact that fighting is ended resulted in more partisanship last night than at the two previous banquets, and the brethren took off the kicking straps and the soft pedal at times to take a fling at the democratic administration.

There was no modesty either of speakers and telegrams of congratulations in telling of what a wonderful party the republican party is, and will continue to be. The banquet room was no place for democrats.

The big dining room was beautifully and patriotically decorated and over the speaker's table were hung large photographs of Lincoln and Roosevelt. Judge McCammant's eloquent address was devoted to Lincoln's life and achievements, and Colonel H. H. Sargent's masterful remarks were confined to the life and achievements of Roosevelt. These were the two main addresses of the night.

Election of Officers The big banquet opened on time at 8:30 with Mayor C. E. Gates as chairman of the county republican committee, calling the meeting to order. Election of officers for the ensuing year was disposed of in a minute, with the following chosen:

President, E. V. Carter of Ashland; vice president, Gus Newbury of Medford, T. H. Simpson of Ashland, George Hilton of Central Point; J. W. Robinson of Jacksonville and Frank Brown of Eagle Point; secretary, O. C. Boggs, and treasurer, Vernon H. Vawter, both of Medford.

By this time the waiters were bringing in Emil Mohr's choice food for the banquet and the banquet was formally on with E. V. Carter acting as toastmaster. The following program which included the many telegrams of felicitation read by Gus Newbury as reader, was carried out:

Program Rehearsed Rev. J. Myron Boozer, invocation; solo and quartet, Italian Street Song, by Herbert, Mrs. Guy Childers, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, Mr. C. C. McCurdy, Mrs. Frank Isaacs; Lieut. Edison Marshall, "Gettysburg Address"; Judge Wallace McCammant, address on Lincoln; H. H. Corliss, Turnkey Song, from "Robin Hood"; Judge Wm. Colvig, Resolutions on Roosevelt; Col. H. H. Sargent, Tribute to the Memory of Theodore Roosevelt; Mrs. Lee Davenport, brief address; Carlton W. James, violin; short address, Robert A. Booth, of Eugene, guest of the club; Dick Posey, original poems; America, audience

Complimented by Booth A brief gem of a speech, purely non-political, but complimentary of Medford and its people, was made by R. A. Booth of Eugene, state highway commissioner. In closing he said: "I want to leave expressing my admiration for the men of Medford and my love for its women."

Among the many telegrams of felicitation received were ones from Will H. Hays, chairman of the national republican committee; Senator McNary, Congressman Hawley, Governor Withycombe, Speaker Jones of the Oregon house of representatives, Thomas H. Tongue, Jr., chairman of the republican state central committee; Edgar R. Piper, of the Portland Oregonian, and L. R. Wheeler of the Portland Telegram.

The Jackson county legislative delegation telegraphed the following from Salem: "With spirits of Honest Abe and Fighting Teddy to guide you Lincoln club should keep Jackson county out of non-partisan column until Colonel Washburn loses power of speech, Gus Newbury takes stamp for Wilson, Sump Smith goes back on Kansas and Bert Anderson votes democratic ticket straight."

Judge McCammant's Address In his address, which aroused great enthusiasm, Judge McCammant referred to Lincoln as the most illustrious of the founders of the republican party and spoke of the service rendered by Lincoln in converting the people of the west of the free soil doctrine which was the chief tenet of the republican party in its early history. The speaker spoke at length of Lincoln's clear vision and courage in the months intervening between his election and his inauguration.

A contrast was drawn between the conduct of the war and navy departments under Lincoln with their conduct under Wilson. A comparison of Wilson with Lincoln was said to be a comparison of the phrase-maker with the orator, the opportunist with the constructive statesman and the man of ability with the prophet.

The speaker referred to the Copperhead activities of the democratic party during the Civil war and contrasted them with the whole-hearted loyalty of the republican party in the world war. He contended that in all the history of representative government no opposition party had given such loyal support to a war as that given by the republicans in 1917 and 1918.

The speaker also referred to Mr. Lincoln as a master of the poetry of oratory, claiming that the Gettysburg address and the second inaugural were from this point of view the finest orations in the English language.

Sargent's Tribute to Roosevelt "Theodore Roosevelt was very human, and consequently had some imperfections; but compared to his great qualities of courage, forcefulness, patriotism and moral force these imperfections were so infinitesimal that even to mention them would be like one to point to the mole hills on both sides of Mount Shasta in a description of that great mountain," said Colonel H. H. Sargent.

Courage was the keynote of his life. He never feared to do what he believed to be right and just. He always had the courage of his convictions. "He was," says Colonel E. M. House, "the one virile and courageous leader of his generation and will live in history as one of our greatest presidents."

"He was perhaps the most forceful personality the world has ever known. In this respect he surpassed even Andrew Jackson and Napoleon. "It was my privilege to be with Roosevelt a year ago at Princeton University and to listen to one of his intensely interesting speeches. He spoke then of his great desire to lead a division in France and of the grief the refusal had caused him. He said in his forceful way: "I wanted to go, I tried to go, but this is a very exclusive war and I was blackballed, so to speak."

"However he sent all his sons and himself by speech and pen did so much at home to promote war sentiment, to rouse the sentiment of American people, and to encourage a virile and robust Americanism.

"The war is over and he is dead. His son Quentin is dead. Roosevelt's body consecrates the soil of America, and his son's that of France. Their fame is immortal and their names will be associated with the great world war for all time."

With regard to Germany's plea that the allies send her food Cobb said he hoped that not an ounce of grain would be sent into Germany until every baby in the allied countries had been fed. He condemned sentimentalists of this country who advocated sissy treatment towards Germany by the victors.

Also Cobb condemned the unpreparedness of this country for war and scored the work of noted pacifists before the war, and said that he would have been much better off had he listened to the preaching of preparedness of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, whose voice is now stilled in death.

Mr. Cobb was briefly and appropriately introduced by Lieutenant Col. E. E. Kelly.

With regard to Germany's plea that the allies send her food Cobb said he hoped that not an ounce of grain would be sent into Germany until every baby in the allied countries had been fed. He condemned sentimentalists of this country who advocated sissy treatment towards Germany by the victors.

Also Cobb condemned the unpreparedness of this country for war and scored the work of noted pacifists before the war, and said that he would have been much better off had he listened to the preaching of preparedness of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, whose voice is now stilled in death.

Mr. Cobb was briefly and appropriately introduced by Lieutenant Col. E. E. Kelly.

With regard to Germany's plea that the allies send her food Cobb said he hoped that not an ounce of grain would be sent into Germany until every baby in the allied countries had been fed. He condemned sentimentalists of this country who advocated sissy treatment towards Germany by the victors.

Also Cobb condemned the unpreparedness of this country for war and scored the work of noted pacifists before the war, and said that he would have been much better off had he listened to the preaching of preparedness of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, whose voice is now stilled in death.

Mr. Cobb was briefly and appropriately introduced by Lieutenant Col. E. E. Kelly.

With regard to Germany's plea that the allies send her food Cobb said he hoped that not an ounce of grain would be sent into Germany until every baby in the allied countries had been fed. He condemned sentimentalists of this country who advocated sissy treatment towards Germany by the victors.

Also Cobb condemned the unpreparedness of this country for war and scored the work of noted pacifists before the war, and said that he would have been much better off had he listened to the preaching of preparedness of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, whose voice is now stilled in death.

Mr. Cobb was briefly and appropriately introduced by Lieutenant Col. E. E. Kelly.

With regard to Germany's plea that the allies send her food Cobb said he hoped that not an ounce of grain would be sent into Germany until every baby in the allied countries had been fed. He condemned sentimentalists of this country who advocated sissy treatment towards Germany by the victors.

Also Cobb condemned the unpreparedness of this country for war and scored the work of noted pacifists before the war, and said that he would have been much better off had he listened to the preaching of preparedness of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, whose voice is now stilled in death.

Mr. Cobb was briefly and appropriately introduced by Lieutenant Col. E. E. Kelly.

COBB CAPTIVATES LARGE AUDIENCE WITH WAR TALES

A large audience at the Page last night was completely captivated by Irvin S. Cobb, the noted humorist, journalist and war correspondent, now rapidly winning fame as a lecturer or platform entertainer, who told stories about the great war based on personal experiences and gave general comments and recommendations based on the big world struggle.

Many in the audience, in fact the major portion, went to the lecture in a somewhat doubtful mood, thinking that Cobb, whose writings are generally admired, like most humorists and noted writers of the past, would prove a frost as a lecturer or talker. However he was an agreeable surprise with his homely but likeable personality, strong voice, delicious humor, southern drawl, general shrewdness and horse sense, combined with his ardent Americanism and ability to express himself and easy stage presence despite the fact that he does not use gestures.

Speaks as He Writes The secret of Cobb's success as a lecturer outside of his having something to tell and knowing how to tell it is the humanness of the man and his unostentatiousness. He lectures or talks as he writes, a delightful mixture of humor, keen wit and pathos. He was just Irvin Cobb last night.

It takes an artist to keep an audience in practically continuous laughter while at the same time describing gruesome sights and anecdotes of war, and all the time instilling into his hearers knowledge worth knowing and patriotism. His diction was perfect and a treat in itself, to say nothing of his splendid perorations and metaphors.

Cobb uttered the best praise of the average American soldier as shown by the work of the American army in France that has yet been uttered in Medford, illustrating this by his own personal observations during several battles on the western front. He paid especial tribute to the American negro soldiers and their fighting qualities, and his anecdotes told in perfect negro dialect convinced the audience with laughter.

Wants Huns Punished Dwelling on the aftermath since the armistice was signed, and the terms of peace now being arranged, Cobb said that while he was not as a general thing vindictive and had compassion for a fallen foe, but in view of Germany's violating all the rules of civilized warfare and of the horror and cruelties she inflicted he hoped that all these things would be kept in mind in drawing up peace terms in order that the German people should suffer suitable punishment.

With regard to Germany's plea that the allies send her food Cobb said he hoped that not an ounce of grain would be sent into Germany until every baby in the allied countries had been fed. He condemned sentimentalists of this country who advocated sissy treatment towards Germany by the victors.

Also Cobb condemned the unpreparedness of this country for war and scored the work of noted pacifists before the war, and said that he would have been much better off had he listened to the preaching of preparedness of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, whose voice is now stilled in death.

Mr. Cobb was briefly and appropriately introduced by Lieutenant Col. E. E. Kelly.

With regard to Germany's plea that the allies send her food Cobb said he hoped that not an ounce of grain would be sent into Germany until every baby in the allied countries had been fed. He condemned sentimentalists of this country who advocated sissy treatment towards Germany by the victors.

Also Cobb condemned the unpreparedness of this country for war and scored the work of noted pacifists before the war, and said that he would have been much better off had he listened to the preaching of preparedness of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, whose voice is now stilled in death.

Mr. Cobb was briefly and appropriately introduced by Lieutenant Col. E. E. Kelly.

With regard to Germany's plea that the allies send her food Cobb said he hoped that not an ounce of grain would be sent into Germany until every baby in the allied countries had been fed. He condemned sentimentalists of this country who advocated sissy treatment towards Germany by the victors.

Also Cobb condemned the unpreparedness of this country for war and scored the work of noted pacifists before the war, and said that he would have been much better off had he listened to the preaching of preparedness of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, whose voice is now stilled in death.

Mr. Cobb was briefly and appropriately introduced by Lieutenant Col. E. E. Kelly.

With regard to Germany's plea that the allies send her food Cobb said he hoped that not an ounce of grain would be sent into Germany until every baby in the allied countries had been fed. He condemned sentimentalists of this country who advocated sissy treatment towards Germany by the victors.

Also Cobb condemned the unpreparedness of this country for war and scored the work of noted pacifists before the war, and said that he would have been much better off had he listened to the preaching of preparedness of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, whose voice is now stilled in death.

Mr. Cobb was briefly and appropriately introduced by Lieutenant Col. E. E. Kelly.

With regard to Germany's plea that the allies send her food Cobb said he hoped that not an ounce of grain would be sent into Germany until every baby in the allied countries had been fed. He condemned sentimentalists of this country who advocated sissy treatment towards Germany by the victors.

Also Cobb condemned the unpreparedness of this country for war and scored the work of noted pacifists before the war, and said that he would have been much better off had he listened to the preaching of preparedness of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, whose voice is now stilled in death.

Mr. Cobb was briefly and appropriately introduced by Lieutenant Col. E. E. Kelly.

With regard to Germany's plea that the allies send her food Cobb said he hoped that not an ounce of grain would be sent into Germany until every baby in the allied countries had been fed. He condemned sentimentalists of this country who advocated sissy treatment towards Germany by the victors.

Also Cobb condemned the unpreparedness of this country for war and scored the work of noted pacifists before the war, and said that he would have been much better off had he listened to the preaching of preparedness of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, whose voice is now stilled in death.

Mr. Cobb was briefly and appropriately introduced by Lieutenant Col. E. E. Kelly.

COBB DECLARES PREACHER'S STORY UNQUALIFIED LIE

In an interview last evening before his lecture at the Page theater Irvin S. Cobb characterized as an unqualified lie the statement by Dr. Boyd of the First Presbyterian church of Portland that France officially offered to provide prostitutes for the American soldiers.

In a private interview at Portland Tuesday night Mr. Cobb took issue with the Boyd statement and after he arrived in Medford late yesterday afternoon a telegram was received in the city from a Portland newspaper stating that Dr. Boyd now quotes as his authority for the statement Dr. Raymond Fosdick, in an article published in The New Republic of November 30th.

Mr. Cobb, who was dining at the Hotel Medford when shown the telegram thought the matter of sufficient importance to stop eating at once and make the following terse and emphatic statement:

"It is a lie—an unqualified lie—and any man who uttered it originally or repeats it is doing a cruel injustice to two great nations, the French and the American."

"Despite the fact that Dr. Fosdick is quoted as authority?" queried the interviewer.

"Yes, indeed; no matter who is said to be guilty of such a crime, but I don't think that Dr. Raymond Fosdick ever uttered or published such a statement. It is an unwarranted and malicious statement."

PLANS OUTLINED FOR ARMENIAN DRIVE

Rev. Frederick G. Coan who visited the city in the interest of the drive for funds for Armenian Relief met the county executive committee at luncheon at the Hotel Medford Wednesday to perfect plans for the drive that will be held the week of February 24-March 1. A strong and representative committee has been formed composed of the following men and women: L. Myron Boozer, chairman; Rawles Moore, secretary; Delroy Getchell, treasurer; Mrs. Jap Andrews, Charles M. English, J. C. Mann, Geo. R. Lindley, Father Powers, Mrs. E. B. Pickett, Mr. W. A. Folger and Mrs. Davenport.

All team captains and workers receiving their appointment do so under the direction and authority of the food administration and the national council of defense, which organizations are supporting and approving the drive. The quota for Medford and vicinity is $3,600 and will be raised with ease if all will do a part, not necessarily large, but something.

BOILERMAKERS FAIL TO VOTE FOR STRIKE

OAKLAND, Calif., Feb. 13.—Members of Oakland Boilermakers' and Iron Shipbuilders' union who met last night to take a strike vote discussed the situation but did not take a vote. There will be another meeting tomorrow night, and labor leaders said today that indications are the men will vote to return to work next Monday.

DR. REID SPEAKS TO WOMEN UPON HEALTH MATTERS

There are very few persons in Oregon who do not now know that it is the cleanest army in the world—the United States army in the great war—Oregon's quota of men was cleaner than the quota of any other state in the union.

There is no fact connected with the war of which Oregon can be more justly proud than of the fact that while the average state sent 30 venereally diseased men per 1,000 into the first million drafters, and the state with the highest per centage sent 89 per 1,000, Oregon sent less than six per 1,000. We can be proud both of the cleanliness of our boys and of the fact that we were the first state in the union in which the hearty cooperation of the public in social education made such results possible.

It is not only a right to pride, that these conditions give us, however, with our pride comes a duty to maintain and better that record. Other states, as well as the federal government, will now take up the work in an earnest effort to mitigate the social evil and we must lose no opportunity to take measures that will keep Oregon in her proud position as the state with the cleanest body of young men and young women.

Education has been the force that has set us where we are and education must be the force that will keep us there. Especially must we educate the mothers of our state. On them rests the real burden of our social problems. A generation of properly instructed mothers having the confidence of their children would go a long way toward eliminating those problems.

Dr. Reid, who will arrive here tomorrow, is as competently trained as any one who could be obtained to help the mothers with the problems they face and to help every woman and girl to understand their needs and the needs of society.

Dr. Reid speaks at the following times and places: Lincoln school, Thursday, February 13, 3 p. m. Roosevelt school, Friday, February 14, 3:45 p. m. Library, Friday, February 14, 8 p. m. Library, Saturday, February 15, 3 p. m.

GERMANS RETURN FROM PALESTINE

GENEVA, Feb. 13.—A trainload of German officers being brought back from Palestine arrived here yesterday. All of them were ignorant of recent events in Germany and did not know of the revolution or the former kaiser's flight into Holland.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR

It has been said that there is now hardly a city, town or village in this country where a woman does not reside who has found health in that good old-fashioned remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore, if you are suffering from some ailment, and hardly know what to do for it, and have tried other remedies without help, ask your neighbor if she has ever used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If she herself has never had the need for it, undoubtedly she knows others who were just in your condition and who have been restored to health by its use. Adv.

A New Hot Lunch at Crowson's

We have arranged a number of tasty and pleasing combination luncheons from which to choose. We are featuring hot biscuits with nearly all of them.

Liberty Last Times Tonight

Enid Bennett in Fuss and Feathers

A romantic story with plenty of Humor.

A GOOD COMEDY "A LADY'S SLIPPER" and a BRAY PICTOGRAPH

TOMORROW AND SATURDAY Marguerite Clark in Out of a Clear Sky

U. S. Mail Tablets Note Book Fillers Drawing Pads 10c

There is no excuse for asking more

Medford Book Store

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR It has been said that there is now hardly a city, town or village in this country where a woman does not reside who has found health in that good old-fashioned remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore, if you are suffering from some ailment, and hardly know what to do for it, and have tried other remedies without help, ask your neighbor if she has ever used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If she herself has never had the need for it, undoubtedly she knows others who were just in your condition and who have been restored to health by its use. Adv.

A New Hot Lunch at Crowson's We have arranged a number of tasty and pleasing combination luncheons from which to choose. We are featuring hot biscuits with nearly all of them.

Liberty Last Times Tonight Enid Bennett in Fuss and Feathers A romantic story with plenty of Humor.

A GOOD COMEDY "A LADY'S SLIPPER" and a BRAY PICTOGRAPH

TOMORROW AND SATURDAY Marguerite Clark in Out of a Clear Sky

U. S. Mail Tablets Note Book Fillers Drawing Pads 10c There is no excuse for asking more

Medford Book Store

Fisher's Blend Flour Now Milled as Before the War NOT THE COARSE, DARK FLOUR OF WAR TIMES BUT A RICH, WHITE, PATENT FLOUR Made from finest Eastern Hard Wheat and finest Western Bluestem— Scientifically blended and manufactured by FISHER FLOURING MILLS CO. Seattle, U. S. A.

TOPS Now is the time for that new top, or to have the old one repaired. We also put on plate glass back curtains, do upholstery, all kinds of repair work. MEDFORD AUTO TOP CO. 30 North Grape Street. Phone 104.

Repair Competent Mechanics Have charge of all work in this shop and when a repair job leaves the shop you can be sure it is first class. All work guaranteed or no charge. We specialize on oxy-acetylene welding. PACIFIC HIGHWAY GARAGE ULRICH & MCKINNEY, Props. 29 S. BARTLETT

Where Quality Is Represented. THIS is sometimes by MAIL ROUTE—particularly if one is too busy to come in to Medford. One can open an account, make subsequent deposits and withdrawals—or even take up the matter of accommodations with us by MAIL. If you already have an account here—keep it GROWING. Wm. G. Tait, President Oris Crawford, Cashier FIRST NATIONAL BANK MEDFORD, ORE. CAPITAL $100,000

MEDFORD MUSICIANS WIN A. C. RECOGNITION

Students from Medford at the Oregon Agricultural college are gaining recognition this year for their talents along musical and dramatic lines.

Miss Annette Wakeman and Miss Elizabeth Hill, both graduates of the 1918 class of the Medford high school, have become members of the Madrigal club, the Girls' Glee club of the college, and are in the opinion of the authorities doing very satisfactory work. Miss Wakeman has also been elected to the position of yell leader of the freshman girls.

Janette Patterson, also of the class of '18, is a member of the Mask and Dagger society and has been chosen to act in their first play this year. Maurice Wakeman is also a member of this society. Dean Carder is, for the second year, a member of the Men's Glee club and is gaining distinction thru his ability as a bass singer.

MEDAL WINNERS FOR LIBERTY LOAN ESSAYS

Silver medal winners from Jackson county in the Fourth Liberty loan essay contests were announced this week as follows:

Third grade, Neil Davidson, Butte Falls district 91; fourth grade, Alice R. White, Butte Falls, district 91; fifth grade, Irene Chandler, Phoenix district 6; sixth grade, Frances Cope, Phoenix district 7; seventh grade, George Lounsbury, Medford R. 2, district 95; eighth grade, Kathleen Seiler, Butte Falls, district 97; ninth grade, Alice Humphrey, Derby, district 31; tenth grade, Cecil Ahlstrom, Butte Falls, district 91; eleventh grade, Helen Norris, Phoenix district 4; twelfth grade, Esther Miller, Phoenix, district 4.

PARENT-TEACHERS TEA AT LINCOLN

The Lincoln Parent-Teachers circle will hold their annual tea at the Lincoln school on February 14th at 7:30 p. m. The program will be as follows:

Piano solo—Miss Flora Gray. Violin solo—Miss Van der Sluis. Address by Attorney Gus Newbury on "Abraham Lincoln."

Piano solo—Winifred Clancy. Vocal solo—George Maddox. Piano solo—Merica Miksche. Reading by Mrs. Heine.

Refreshments will be served following the program. All parents are especially invited to attend.

EXCLUDE GERMANY FROM RED CROSS

GENEVA, Feb. 13.—The movement to exclude the central powers from the International Red Cross was debated at a meeting of the organization held here today. President Ador of Switzerland, was chairman of the meeting which was attended by delegations from allied countries which preferred charges of violations of Red Cross privileges by Germany.

The German revolt leaders, Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, advocated violence, and that's what they got. —Boston Transcript.

Ask your grocer what the coffee drinker turns to when he makes a change.

INSTANT POSTUM

so completely takes coffee's place in flavor, satisfaction & appearance as to cause no loss of pleasure. No Caffeine in INSTANT POSTUM "There's a Reason"

Fisher's Blend Flour Now Milled as Before the War

NOT THE COARSE, DARK FLOUR OF WAR TIMES BUT A RICH, WHITE, PATENT FLOUR Made from finest Eastern Hard Wheat and finest Western Bluestem— Scientifically blended and manufactured by FISHER FLOURING MILLS CO. Seattle, U. S. A.

Now is the time for that new top, or to have the old one repaired. We also put on plate glass back curtains, do upholstery, all kinds of repair work. MEDFORD AUTO TOP CO. 30 North Grape Street. Phone 104.

Repair Competent Mechanics Have charge of all work in this shop and when a repair job leaves the shop you can be sure it is first class. All work guaranteed or no charge. We specialize on oxy-acetylene welding. PACIFIC HIGHWAY GARAGE ULRICH & MCKINNEY, Props. 29 S. BARTLETT