

DELAY IN PEACE BRINGS CRITICISM FROM BORDEN

PARIS, Sunday, Feb. 16.—(By Associated Press.) Premier Borden's speech here last night, in which he criticized the delay in consummating peace while the troops are anxious to return to their homes has made an undoubted impression here.

The same view is said to be taken by some Americans, while the British are not indifferent to the demands of their territorial contingents which are supported by the labor element of England.

Stephen Pichon today said there were many reasons why the treaty could not be signed at once, even though the League of Nations project was out of the way. Many issues that will form the basis of peace, he said, were being carefully studied. Among them is the disposition of many of the fragments into which the former Austrian empire has been divided and another is the treatment to be accorded Bulgaria.

The French people, he added, want peace but they realize, at the same time, the danger of precipitate and unsatisfactory solutions. He agreed with Premier Borden that there should be no unnecessary delay but that he did not share his opinion that time had been wasted at the conference. A full discussion of all questions must be permitted so that settlements which might be decided upon would be unanimous. M. Pichon said that there was no obstacle to recognition being extended the new German government, but added that the Germans must be made to realize they have been beaten, a fact, he said, of which great numbers of them do not seem to be aware. The new boundaries of Germany, he remarked, would be up for consideration within a few days.

SERBIAN PRIESTS MASSACRED BY BULGAR FORCES

PIROT, Serbia.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Confirmation of evidence of the slaughter of Serbian priests by Bulgarians during the war, was given to a representative of the Associated Press today by the Rev. Mihail Yontschitch, pastor of one of the churches here who personally witnessed the massacre of 20 of his colleagues and one Serbian officer. All he says, were shot and many were burned alive.

Father Yontschitch escaped a similar fate only by feigning death after he had been shot. He exhibited to the Associated Press correspondent two bullet wounds in his left shoulder. Another priest, the Rev. Thomas Popovitch, of Pirot, escaped by fleeing across the mountain road.

The murder of the priests took place about 35 miles east of Nish, according to the story of Father Yontschitch, which follows:

Father Yontschitch in company with 22 other Serbian priests was taken by Bulgarians from Pirot to Nish where they were thrown into a cell and forced to live for five days without food or water. After his release he and his companions, who included Lieutenant Tasa Georgevitch of the Serbian army were marched by their captors for 13 hours to Bela Palanka, 30 miles east of Nish, an armed guard walking behind each.

About two hours walk from Bela Palanka, the priests came to a half and were ordered to turn off the road into a very small valley to the right. It was after midnight and half a moon gave the only illumination to the lonely mountain roads and valleys. The priests had not gone far when the guards shot them in their backs.

Father Yontschitch dragged himself in the darkness behind a large rock where he could see the whole scene of murder being enacted by the Bulgarians.

He saw his colleagues dragged, some dead, some half alive, to pyres which had been prepared for them, and their bodies thrown to the flames. Many of the men, said Father Yontschitch, were still alive when the Bulgarians saturated their bodies with gasoline and set them afire. Flames spread about them and they pleaded piteously for mercy but their pleas were met with sneers. After the flames had spent themselves, said Father Yontschitch, the charred bodies of 21 victims were thrown into two holes. Arms, legs, heads, he said, were left protruding, exposed to the ravages of dogs and wolves that infest the mountains in the neighborhood.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

C. W. Scott, business manager of the manganese mine on Lake creek, and Charles Newstrom of Lake creek, spent the night with us Wednesday. Mr. Newstrom returned home and Mr. Scott went to Medford with Bob Harsh, the stage driver. William Cow and L. H. Pickle also were with us Wednesday night. Mr. Pickle brought out a load of goods for George Brown and Sons, and Thursday went on up to the Lake creek country to gather up the cream, chickens, eggs and a dressed hog for the Jackson county creamery of Medford.

Thursday forenoon Eades brothers of Medford sent out a truck load of goods, 4,000 pounds, for George Brown and Sons, and only charged them at the rate of 15 cents a hundred. The roads were dried up they would do their hauling for $2 per ton; two cents less than the railroad charged as their cheapest rates, unless it was in car load lots.

Mrs. Lee Bradshaw of Brownboro, who had been spending a few days in Medford, came out Thursday on the mail car and took passage on the Brownboro-Lake Creek stage for home.

Mrs. R. A. Bradshaw, who lives on the Medford-Brownboro road was also in town doing business with our merchants Thursday.

Carl Stanley of Lake creek was trading in Eagle Point and so was T. F. McCabe and his daughter, Iss Helen.

J. D. Pierre, formerly of Tik creek, but for the past few years he has been staying in New York, came in Thursday evening on the Lewis jitney and spent the night with us. He says that he notices quite a change in the country since he left here, but was surprised to see such—what adjectives should I use—roads, especially between Antelope creek and the Azate station. The continued rains for the past two weeks has made and kept them so soft and the constant travel with wagons, autos and trucks has simply torn them all to pieces so that it is a common thing to hear of an auto getting stuck and having to have help to get out, and when two cars meet the question comes up as to how they are to pass for they are simply in a deep rut and it is with the utmost difficulty that either car can get out and then the one that gives the road is liable to stay there until he is helped out, but our road supervisor, Nick Young, is doing all that he can to relieve the situation.

Tim Daly, one of our soldier boys, or men, came in on Friday, having received an honorable discharge, and

The Outbursts of Everett True

I don't know as it is necessary for me to use the term honorable discharge for all of the boys who went from this section of the country are expected to so deport themselves as to entitle them to an honorable discharge. Mr. Daly was met here by Pete Belts with a rig to take him to Mr. Hennah's, his brother-in-law, on Rogue river, and he was accompanied by J. H. Howard, one of the veterans of the civil war. They took dinner at the Sunnyside.

F. J. Burnett of Oakland, Calif., came in Friday morning on the mail auto and was taken direct to the Sunnyside where he engaged a room. Mr. Burnett has an 80 acre tract of land lying west of here that he came up to look after, with an eye to building on it and making it his home. He expects that his family will come in about two weeks. Frank Hurst and W. H. Mandly of Medford were out this Saturday morning to arrange to build his house for him.

Mr. Whitely of Elk creek also came out on the stage Friday morning and took passage on the E. P. Persist stage for his home.

Miss Pina Benedict, my primary teacher, who has been spending the time since our school closed in Ashland, came in Friday ready to resume her work Monday morning.

R. A. Pettv, one of our rustling farmers, was a business caller Saturday.

Henry A. Meyer of Brownboro was a business caller Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Minter came in this morning to go to Medford on the Lewis jitney, but he had so many passengers that he could not take her.

The little railroad motor went up to Butte Falls Thursday and today loaded down to the full capacity. They can only carry about seven passengers.

Mr. Hamilton, manager of the work on the Fish Lake ditch, and another man passed through here headed for the upper country this morning.

J. L. Robertson one of our hustling and progressive farmers came in this morning with a crate of hen fruit.

F. J. Avers, another one of our progressive men, has gone to his farm on the Eagle Point-Derby road in help his son Amos before he, F. J. Avers, has to go to Jacksonville to serve as jurymen.

There is a span of mules impounded in our town pond that are said to belong to Ed Conley, who left a good position as business manager of L. E. Nichols' store and volunteered to serve his country in the army, and is now in the service, that will be sold to the highest bidder to pay the cost of impounding and caring for them unless some person comes to the rescue.

Mr. E. J. Murphy and family were doing business in our town this morning.

It is reported that Albert Bingham, lately returned from the training camp, has the mumps.

Clarence Whitte of Beagle hauled a load of hogs to market Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon and son of Beagle, were trading in town Tuesday.

Miss Mildred Sweet, who has been working the past several months at the Medford book house, and her sister Ruth, who has been working in Medford, both returned to their home at Beagle last Sunday.

Jesse Glass has purchased a tractor from the Gates garage this week.

Mr. Bunch, who has been visiting his sister, Grandma Glass, and other relatives in Antioch, for some time past, left Wednesday for his home in Texas.

Those who were trading and doing business in Central Point and Medford this week were Howard Rodgers and wife, Bert Chapman and family and the Glass brothers.

Ellis Chapman spent Tuesday night with Mrs. Vincent at Table Rock.

Bill Cottrell of Trail passed through the valley on his way to Medford one day this week.

Mrs. Cardwell from near Prineville, is staying with her mother, Mrs. Case and sister, Mrs. Theo Glass, to recruit up after a long spell of sickness.

Theo Glass and wife and Mrs. Caldwell of Antioch were calling on friends and relatives in Central Point and Medford Sunday.

A Woman's Recommendation
Mrs. D. T. Tryor, Franklin Av., Otago, O., writes: "Nine years ago I was very much afflicted with kidney trouble. I bought different kinds of medicine, but all to no effect, until one day I bought a box of Foley Kidney Pills. I realized so great a benefit from the use of that box that I concluded myself cured of kidney trouble. I feel safe in recommending Foley Kidney Pills to any kidney sufferers." They relieve backache, pain muscles, stiff joints, rheumatic pains and bladder ailments. For sale by Medford Pharmacy.

PHYSICALLY FIT AT ANY AGE

It isn't age, it's careless living that puts men "down and out." Keep your internal organs in good condition and you will always be physically fit. The kidneys are the most over-worked organs in the human body. When they break down, uric acid accumulates and the deadly uric acid accumulates and crystallizes look out! These sharp crystals tear and scratch the delicate urinary channels causing excruciating pain and set up irritations which may cause premature degeneration and often do turn into deadly Bright's Disease.

One of the first warnings of sluggish kidney action is pain or stiffness in the small of the back, loss of appetite, indigestion or flatulencies. Do not wait until the danger is upon you. At the first indication of trouble go after the cause at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL, HARRISON'S GOLD MEDALS, imported direct from the laboratories in Holland. They will give almost immediate relief. If for any cause they should not, your money will be refunded. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. None other is genuine. In sealed boxes, three sizes.
