Samuel Leonard, who is Medford's most soldiered father, was seen early this morning outside the French Army band special Pullman in earnest conversation, or rather language, with three of the soldier-musicians.

He was talking in perfect East Main street English and they were talking back in polished French. Evidently the local merchant and the visitors in some strange way understood and liked each other, for after he had gone fifteen minutes the Frenchmen visited his store, inspected the goods full of relics and had their host point out to them in a Seventh century picture two of his soldier sons.

"Where do you play tonight?" Mr. Leonard asked as the bandmen departed. "Se-ilm," was the reply.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Rowlett.

Floyd French and Thomas Vestal, two of our Eagle Point boys who were dismissed from the service in Camp Lewis, came in Wednesday evening and took rooms at the Sunnyside. There is general rejoicing all around here over the return of the soldier boys, not only among their near relatives but also among their neighbors and old-time friends. Frank Smith and Glen Haley, another one of our boys from the army were also lodgers at the Sunnyside Wednesday night and so was A. Vandermark and Orville Childers.

L. H. Pickle, who is gathering cream, eggs, etc., for the Jackson County Creamery also came in Wednesday night. He has to use a team and wagon to gather up his load now, so has to come out this far the day before to meet his customers in this and the Lake Creek sections.

John Geln, our agate man, went to Ashland Wednesday afternoon with the Eagle Point-Medford mail carrier, taking several pounds of agates with him. He said that he was going to cut and dress up a lot of them, and get them ready for the market during this coming season.

N. E. Snauser, our barber, has been working for several days getting his machinery in operation to commence grinding out agates, but he has not as yet procured all of the necessary appliances, altho he has procured several very nice specimens in the rough.

Rudolph Peck of Lake Creek, came out from Medford with Rob. Harnish, where he had been attending to business. He took passage on the Eagle Point-Lake Creek auto stage for home the same morning.

Miss Emma McCaslin went to Medford Thursday morning on the Lewis Jitney. Her two sisters, Misses Elsie and Gertrude came this far with her. The McCaslin family are living on the Corbin orchard.

M. C. Logan and little son were here Thursday morning. Mr. Logan was formerly a resident of this town but is now farming what is known as the Old West farm near Brownboro.

Art Smith and his brother John and little daughter were here Thursday on business.

Miss Ella and Anna Belford, the former the manager of a fine farm a little northeast of here, and the latter Miss Anna is her cousin recently from Los Angeles. (In my last letter I spoke of her coming from the Willamette valley but was mistaken.) They were here on business and took dinner at the Sunnyside.

Art Heffner and Al Clements spent Thursday night with us and Friday Mr. Heffner went to Medford. They are two of our discharged soldier boys and on being asked how they liked the life of a soldier replied that in camp it was rather monotonous, but if our country needed their services they would go in again.

Mrs. J. E. McDonald of the Elk Resort, came out Thursday evening on the Eagle Point stage, and so did Wm. Heckathorne of Elk creek.

Speaking of the Eagle Point and Persist stage, Dick Bessy, the pioneer stage driver has been the mail carrier on that route during the past winter and has always been on time so as to meet the Eagle Point-Medford stage, but he tells me that today, Saturday, March 1st, will be his last day on the route as John Winningham, the contractor is to turn the route over to Mr. Adamson of Trail. The many friends of Dick regret exceedingly that he is to leave the route as he is noted for his courteous treatment of all with whom he meets as well as promptness in his business transactions. Fred McPherson and wife motored to Medford Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Loosely of Fort Klamath and Mrs. Cora O'Brien of Medford, came out on the Harnish auto Friday morning and Mr. and Mrs. Loosely took the Eagle Point-Lake Creek auto for her niece's, Mrs. Geo. B. Brown of Brownboro and later intended to go on up to her brother's, James Culbertson at Lake Creek.

Everett Beeson of Talent also came out on the Harnish auto Friday morning.

Robert Hanna of Derby, and P. S. McCabe were here for dinner Friday.

Friday after dinner I was called to the phone and requested to attend a meeting of the Eagle Point Industrial club, and of course I joyfully attended. The meeting was held in the high school room, and the exercises were really a part of the regular exercises of the school.

Miss Winifred Haak presided and the exercises were commenced by singing America. The first on the program was a debate between Judge Florey and Lyle Van Scoy on one side and Helen Holt and Nora Childreth on the other. The subject was, "Resolved that the League of Nations should not be endorsed by the United States." Judge Florey led off by giving some reasons why we should not endorse the league and he was followed by Miss Helen Holt and she went after him red-eyed showing the fallacy of his statements, and then Lyle Van Scoy came to the rescue but he did not try to shatter her arguments and he was followed by Miss Nora Childreth and she clinched the arguments. Then Judge came in with his closing speech and was followed by Miss Helen with a few remarks. The contestants evidently had been reading the speeches of ex-President Taft in favor of the league and Senator Lodge against. They all used prepared notes. They all done well for children. After some other exercises, recitations, readings, songs, etc., the president called for the decision by the judges. J. L. Robertson, M. S. Wood and Geo. Daley and Mrs. Robertson announced that they had decided that the girls had won out in the debate. Prof. Deardoff announced that there would be another meeting of the club the fourth Friday in March when they would try and be better prepared as they had had only a few days to prepare for this.

Mrs. F. J. Burnett, the lady mentioned in my last letter as having arrived from Oakland, Cal., had to go to Medford Friday to get clothing out of her trunk as she has been unable to get her trunk brought out yet on account of the mud.

Henry McCabe came in and spent the night Friday evening.

Robert Kent and a lady and Mr. Childs of Welton, came out this Saturday morning on the stage.

Word has just come over the telephone to Miss Zula (Flopper) that her sister, Mrs. Elsie Casey had been shot in the neck by the explosion of a cartridge that had by some means got into the fire. The bullet struck her neck in the jugular vein and she had trouble staying the flow of blood. Have not heard the particulars.

SOFIA, Bulgaria. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Bulgaria is facing a financial crisis, it is asserted. The war cost the country over $1,500,000,000 while its estimated wealth is only $2,200,000,000. The national debt before the war was $160,000,000.

Of the national debt as it now stands Bulgaria owes to Germany $600,000,000 which was advanced in installments of ten millions, but last winter Germany discontinued this practice and demanded payment for munitions in cash. Germany evidently was not in the business of helping its allies for nothing, as the prices charged Bulgaria for gas masks etc., clearly indicate. For each mask it charged $15 and a sheepskin, as compared with the cost of a similar article for the United States army in England of $4.50.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times, I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for women's ailments I ever saw."—Mrs. SARA SHAW, R. No. 1, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did.

Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years experience is at your service.
