

ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The homecoming reception tendered Ashland's soldier and sailor lads at Elks Temple on Monday evening, was an ovation, the spacious rooms being thronged. The greeting event was not only a tribute to members of the returning 65th regiment, but was meant as a token of esteem in behalf of Ashland's entire representation in the army and navy, numbering over 200 men from this vicinity, many of whom are yet scattered in various military and naval centers at home and abroad.

The local basketball team is making Roseburg a return visit, the dates covering Tuesday and Wednesday of the present week. Funeral services of the late George M. Lowe, member of the city police force, who met a tragic and accidental death in the S. P. railroad yards last Sunday night, are being delayed pending the arrival of relatives from a distance.

Business men and ranchers met in luncheon assembled at the Hotel Austin, on Monday, and listened to remarks from A. N. Plummer of Portland, who is visiting Southern Oregon territory in behalf of creating interest in the Pacific Northwest Live-stock association's enterprises.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

this unusual story Miss Burke plays a no insignificant part. Besides this feature three extra reels will be shown. All returned soldiers and sailors in uniform admitted free tonight.
