POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOW PROSPERITY SAYS BURLESON

WASHINGTON, Mar. 7.—Postmaster General Burleson today declared that increasing postal revenues "one of the most accurate barometers of present business conditions," forecast a period of pronounced industrial prosperity.

tedly the revenue of the postal service is one of the most accurate barometers of present business conditions, because the postal revenue comes from every community in the United States.

"During November, there was a pronounced decline in postal revenues due to the nation-wide prevalence of influenza and the signing of the armistice. Revenues in December showed a returning movement toward normal conditions, while during January and February the revenues greatly exceeded for those months the average annual increase during the last thirty years.

NERVES ALL ON TENSION? A mother in the home, or a man or woman at business, with nerves undone and the system generally feeling the strain, should find wonderful help in

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Powerful sedatives or strong medicines are habit-forming and dangerous. The logical help is a form of nourishment abundant in tonic properties. Scott's brings strength to the body, through nourishment that is felt in every part. If inclined to be nervous, the logical answer is—Scott's Emulsion.

DRAFT SERVICE FOR BRITISH ARMY OF OCCUPATION

LONDON, Thursday, Mar. 6.—Captain E. F. Guest introduced a bill in the house of commons today which proposes compulsory service for the British army of occupation. This army, according to the bill, would be composed of nine hundred thousand men and the enlistment period would expire on April 30, 1920.

DIED.

VICKERS—Mary H. Vickers died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Wortman, three miles south of Medford, Ore., March 7, of old age and general debility. She was 85 years, 6 months and 16 days. She was born in Boston, Mass., August 21, 1833, and at the age of three years with her parents immigrated to Quincy, Ill. Mrs. Vickers came to Medford five years ago and had made her home with her daughter since that time. She was a woman of a lovable character and leaves a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Vickers is survived by three sons and two daughters: C. T. Richards, O. C. Richards and Earl W. Richards, all of Ashland, Neb.; Mrs. J. F. Wortman of Medford, Ore.; Mrs. O. E. Harkness of Portland, Ore. She was a member of the Methodist church. The remains will be forwarded to Burton, Ill., her old home, for interment, accompanied by Mrs. J. F. Wortman and Mrs. O. E. Harkness.

ELECTRICAL STRIKE UP TO BURLESON

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., March 7.—"There will be no strike of electrical workers on the Pacific coast until Postmaster General Burleson refuses absolutely to treat with the committees representing the workers," said Charles P. Ford, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers here today. Mr. Ford said word had just been received from Secretary Tumulty that the brotherhood's appeal for the creation of some kind of a committee to hear the plea for increased wages and better working conditions had been turned over to Mr. Burleson.

THIS MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

Both Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

EM-TEES

From a Hero's Mother In Flanders Fields, where sleep the brave In countless numbers, grave on grave His dear form lies. Brave boy you have not died in vain Sweet joy would recompense the pain Could you see the victory.

Steele, Ala.—"During the Change of Life I had hot flashes, was nervous, run down, and had sick headaches for two or three days at a time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am much stronger and better in every way than I was. My daughter's health broke down last June from teaching school without a rest, and she has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Blood Medicine with good results. She is much better and teaching now and I give your medicine the praise. You are welcome to use this letter for the benefit of other suffering women."—Mrs. F. A. GAINES, R.R. No. 1, Steele, Ala.
