ASHLAND AND VICINITY

The general atmosphere pervading Elks temple on Tuesday night was indicative of the hospitality dispensed by that order.

With the result of the basketball games at Roseburg adding to Ashland team's conquests, it looks as though the local boys would be called upon to compete for the championship of western Oregon also.

Many friends have learned with regret of the calamity which befell Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hallbaugh, last Saturday in the loss of their home by fire.

The second egg day, under auspices of the "Ashbleet" poultry society, occurred on March 8 at fair association headquarters, where 370 dozen eggs were marketed...

About 100 have signed an preliminary on the national guard enlistment project. Allowing for elimination when final tests are made, a dozen or more names are yet needed...

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church has elected Mrs. Ella Garrett president; Mrs. Sarah Walker, vice president; Mrs. Clara Wick, treasurer; Mrs. Sue Day, secretary.

Babies Smile when stomachs do their work and bowels move naturally. MRS. WINSLOWS SYRUP

The Screen

One of those dastardly attempts on the part of a crooked lawyer to destroy evidence developed in the case of Harry Webb, convicted of murder, when Janice Williams, a cabaret girl who was engaged to marry Webb was spirited away before the trial...

GEVALDINE FARRAR in SHADOWS Goldwyn Pictures and among the number Dr. Gregg, H. G. Yeo and Homer Billings lent efficient assistance in conducting a most interesting service in behalf of the church at present without a regular pastor.

Rufus King, of the Bellevue district, lately discovered the remnants of one of his fine steers, which animal had been slaughtered and dressed by some thief with the intent of obtaining a beef supply for the season.

Ora Deibert, employed by the California-Oregon Power company at Yreka, was in Ashland over Sunday visiting relatives and attending to business matters.

Miss Clave M. Johnson, of Moro, returned home last week for a visit with the home folks.

The newly organized Rogue River Valley Jersey Breeders' association met in city hall on Tuesday, to further the work of a movement which is receiving the active encouragement of the Farmers Bureau and Agricultural college, also to adopt by-laws and statutes for extending the membership.

A Liberty lunch car, mounted on the chassis of a discarded bicycle, has been installed on the vacant lot opposite Citizens' bank, very convenient for shoppers and theatergoers in that vicinity.

Clinton Moore, formerly clerk in the grocery unit of the Enders department store, and who went to Seattle to work in the shipyards in the heyday of building operations there, has moved to Olympia, Wash., and from the wording of his R. F. D. address, evidently has joined the back-to-the-soil movement as a granger of the old school.

Interviewer one of the returning soldier boys from overseas regarding lively skirmishes in the Argentine Forest, he was asked if the trees didn't afford protection from snipers and machine gun fire, the retort being that there wasn't trees enough for the officers.

Chapparral was married last Wednesday to Miss Hazel Shook of Roseburg, Ore.

A dance was given at the McKinnis home last Saturday night. It was well attended and everyone had a most enjoyable time.

Mrs. J. Conley and son Vernon and other relatives in Sams Valley motored over to Yreka, Cal., to attend the funeral of Mrs. Conley's sister, Mrs. Centers last Tuesday.

Mr. Roberts and family who have been living in the Meadows for some time, moved to Medford last week.

Mr. Emerson who came from Arizona lately, has rented a place in Rogue River where he will move his family in the near future.

Miss Mildred Sweet of Beagle, was visiting with her sister, Mrs. Elmer Simmons at Medford the past week.

Mrs. C. M. Conley was visiting home folks last Wednesday at Antioch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Chapman spent several days with their son Claude and wife of Coked Butte this week.

Jesse Glass motored to town Saturday.

Wouldn't this appeal to you if you read it in a newspaper, as a piece of ordinary—or rather, extraordinary—news? It so happens that it is merely a part of the plot of the new Wallace Reid Paramount picture, "The Man From the Federal Range" which will be presented at the Liberty theater today.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active.

BLOOD POISONING

Hamlin's Wizard Oil a Safe First Aid Treatment

How often lockjaw and blood poisoning result from the neglect of a slight scratch or little cut! Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a safe and effective first aid treatment. It is a powerful antiseptic and should be applied immediately to wounds of this kind to prevent danger of infection.

It is soothing and healing and quickly drives out pain and inflammation in cases of sprains, bruises, cuts, burns, bites and stings. Just as reliable, too, for stiff neck, sore feet, cold sores, canker sores, carache and toothache.

Get it from druggists for 30 cents. If not satisfied return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30 cents. Guaranteed.
