

Local Briefs

The Medford Commercial club now has the large membership of 364 men, 125 of whom were gained in this week's drive which ended last night. On Feb. 1st, when Secretary Steel took office there were only 110 members, and before the drive began last Monday morning there were 128 members. It is generally predicted that with the greatly increased membership and new life and enthusiasm the organization faces an auspicious future which means much for Medford's further development and progress.
